NRA CODE OF BEHAVIOUR

Only Parents/Legal Guardians require this form to be accompanied with a Junior & Parent Membership.

This 'Code of Behaviour' is intended to be the minimum standard for anyone involved in Rodeo.

Parents/Legal Guardians and Junior Competitors

Operate within the rules and spirit of your sport, promoting fair play over winning at any cost.

- Encourage and support opportunities for people to learn appropriate behaviours and skills.
- Support opportunities for participation in all aspects of the sport.
- Treat each person as an individual.
- Display control and courtesy to all involved with the sport.
- Respect the rights and worth of every person regardless of their gender, ability, cultural background or religion.
- Respect the decisions of officials and administrators in the conduct of the sport.
- Wherever practical, avoid unaccompanied and unobserved one-on-one activity (when in a supervisory or where a power imbalance will exist), with people under the age of 18 years.
- Adopt appropriate and responsible behaviour in all interactions.
- Adopt responsible behaviour in relation to alcohol and other drugs.
- Act with integrity and objectivity and accept responsibility for your decisions and actions.
- Ensure your decisions and actions contribute to a safe environment.
- Ensure your decisions and actions contribute to a harassment free environment.
- Do not tolerate harmful or abusive behaviours.

Parents/Legal Guardians

- Encourage children to participate and have fun.
- Focus on the child's effort and performance rather than winning or losing.
- Never ridicule or yell at a child for making a mistake or losing a competition.
- Respect the performances and efforts of all people.
- Reject the use of violence in any form, whether it is by spectators, officials or competitors.
- Remember that children participate in sport for their enjoyment, not yours.
- Encourage children to participate, do not force them.
- Encourage children to compete according to the rules and to settle disagreements without resorting to hostility or violence.
- Remember that children learn best by example. Appreciate good performance and skilful plays by all participants.
- Support all efforts to remove verbal and physical abuse from sporting activities.
- Respect official's decisions and teach children to do likewise.
- Show appreciation for officials and administrators. Without them, your child could not participate.
- Respect the rights, dignity and worth of every young person regardless of their gender, ability, cultural backgrounds or religion.
- One parent must be a financial member of the NRA.

I/We fully agree and understand the above NRA Code of Behaviour for Parents/Legal Guardians and Junior Members.
