- PRESIDENT'S REPORT -

PRESIDENTS REPORT -

I must inform all members that on the 28.6.87 Doc Cavanagh resigned his position as President of the Association. Doc found added pressure in running the S.E.Q.R.R.A. and his family business a task that was too tough hence his resignation. On behalf of everyone involved in rodeo I thank Doc for a job well done and add thanks to his wife Joy and family. We are fortunate not to lose Doc from the Board as he remains with us as Immediate Past President.

Tom Tamini has accepted the job of Junior Vice President with Peter O'connor and myself moving one step up the ladder.

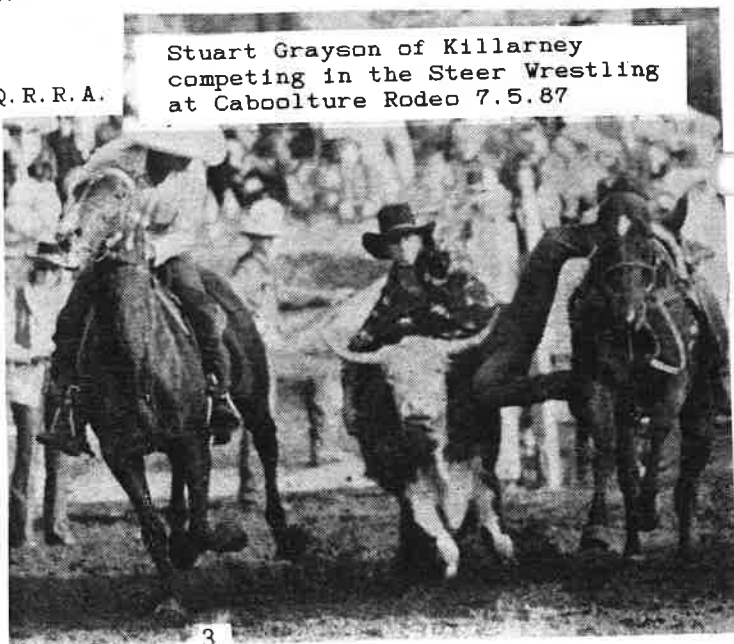

The Wayne Norton Cancer Fund Rodeo was a major success and we will advise set proceeds next month. On behalf of Norto and the rest of the organisers we thank one and all for their tremendous support.

Saturday the 8th August we will be having another Grand Entry at the R.N.A. I would like to see members faces in the crowd to add support to competing members. This day a presentation will be made to the Cancer Fund for all proceeds received at Caboolture.

We as an Association have been very lucky to pick up two new rodeos in August - namely, Glenreagh and Kyogle. I wish both Committees every success and trust a large following of competitors will be in attendance.

To wind up this month, let's ALL get our acts together in the best interest of RODEO.

BILL URQUHART.
PRESIDENT, S.E.Q.R.R.A.

Stuart Grayson of Killarney competing in the Steer Wrestling at Caboolture Rodeo 7.5.87

SECRETARY'S REPORT -

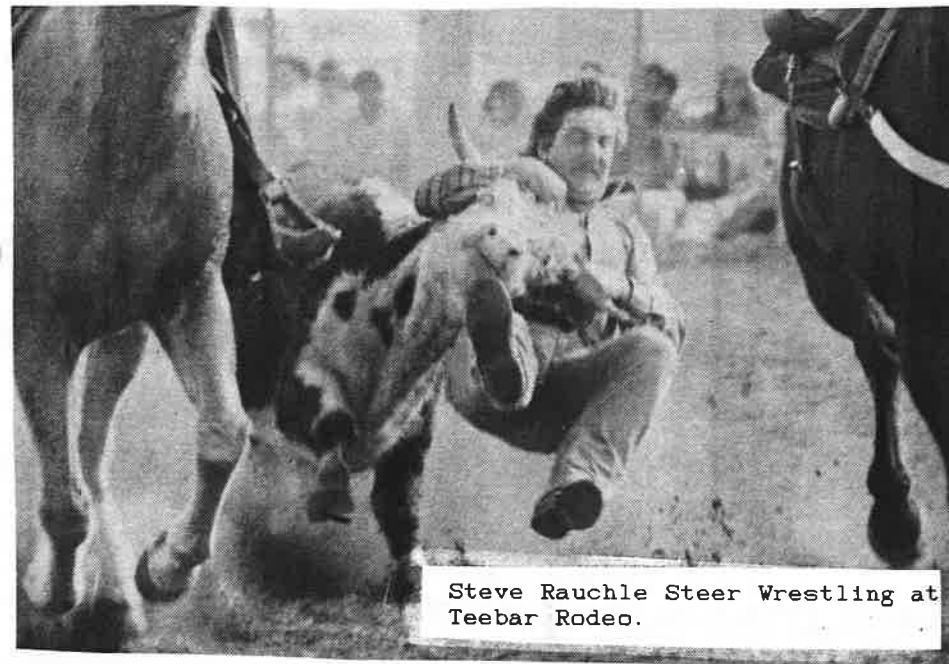

SECRETARY'S REPORT -

It is a pleasure to welcome Bill Urquhart back as our President and I must thank Doc Cavanagh for all the time and hard work he put into the Association in his time as President.

This month we welcome Glenreagh and Kyogle Rodeo's, I'm looking forward to going down and doing both rodeo's and most of the the members are anticipating a great week-end. With high prize money top facilities lets show our appreciation by helping where we can. Mundubbera Rodeo on Saturday 29th August is also a new one to the S.E.Q.R.R.A. make sure your there to show your support and don't forget the Rodeo Ball.

I'd like to give a Happy Birthday wish to Fay Johnston, Fay has helped with the newsletter each month and without her help I would dread newsletter time. Thank you for all your help it is very much appreciated, all the very best for the future and every happiness.

SECRETARY.
CATHY KEPPEL.

THE RIDE

He's there in the chute
And he's waiting for you
And you're too dang nervous
To know what to do.

You think to yourself,
"Now why am I here?"
'Cause your mouth's dry as dirt
And your gut's full of fear.

But you go to get on him,
Get settled down right,
And ol' Joe pulls your rope
And you wrap it up tight.

You nod to the chute man
And the swinging gate flies;
It's just you and a critter
That's twelve times your size.

There's a quick flash of colour,
You know it's a clown
Standin' ready to help you
In case you get down.

You're set in the middle
With a leg either side,
And that bull's busy buckin':
It's one helluva ride!

There's horns and a hump,
And he's twistin' and spinnin'.
You're both really tryin'
And you don't know who's winnin'.

And 'bout now you're thinkin',
"It's sure a long eight."
But then there's a whistle
And you know you've done great.

You reach for the daly
And step to the ground
To the hootin' and acheerin'.
Man what a sound!

It's tough and it's risky,
Though it all comes together.
Ain't nothin' more excitin'
Than "RIDIN' LIVE LEATHER!"
