Secretary's Report

The year is really starting to hot up and Rodeos are coming thick and fast. This last month has seen the N.R.A. go to a new Rodeo down over the border.

Woodenbong was a great success and we thank the Woodenbong Committee for choosing the N.R.A. to run their Rodeo. The Rodeo went extremely well with good nominations in all events. We look forward to going again in 1992.

This month sees the N.R.A. going again over the border to another new Rodeo in Kyogle. Preparations are going well and they are looking forward to a successful Rodeo. Please note competitors that, the novice events which are being held will commence at 10.00am. The main performance will start at 1.00pm.

After such a good response to the candid photos they seem to have come to an end. I am sure there would be many of you out there who would have some interesting photos.

Thank you to Dean Barram for organising the profiles on the cowboys. This month sees our second profile on Maurice Morton.

I received a letter this month from the Committee in Casino. They would just like to thank everyone for their support and would like everyone to know that it was the most successful Rodeo ever held in the town. Thank you Casino and we will see you in 1992!

Committees, please note! Can you please make sure that you send your affiliation money in with your programme. It makes it a lot easier for you, as well as the Association. Well until next month, safe travelling!

Nicki Kennedy*

PRESIDENTS REPORT

This month we welcome Kyogle back to the N.R.A. circuit and trust a success is in store for this Committee. Unfortunately, I cannot attend Kyogle, as I will, at Rodeo time be having a skiing break in the Snowy Mountains. I will however be back in time to go to Rockhampton for their third N.R.A. Rodeo, a weekend I am looking forward to.

I would like to draw Committees attention to the importance of booking your Rodeo date well in advance. This year we have had a couple of clashes being brought about by the number of weekends per month varying from year to year. It is the N.R.A.'s policy to hold dates for existing Committees and consult with them prior to issuing a day to a new Committee. Therefore, please advise in writing your date as soon as it is decided.

Further good news regarding sponsorship, this time from the 'Queensland Country Life'. This support is to be used to promote junior events and supply trophy buckles. On behalf of the Junior Committee, may we express our gratitude to the 'Country Life' and at the same time remind members of the N.R.A., to report each week in this newspaper.

It is sad news to hear of the return of the Webb Family to the United States. They are great supporters of the N.R.A. and I am sure the members of the N.R.A. will wish them well on their return. I hope they will decide again to visit us here in Australia.

National Rodeo Association President
BILL URQUHART

Rodeo Queen's Report

Hello Everyone,

I hope everyone has enjoyed the Rodeo Season for 1991 so far, I must say that I have. We have not had all that many rodeos to report on as we have had a short break and only a few Rodeos. But as you know September & October will make up for our rest, with vengeance.

The first thanks this month must go to all the people who participate in the Grand Entries so willingly - thank you. Woodenbong is the only rodeo this month that conducted a Rodeo Queen. Although there was only two girls, it was hotly contested, with only a 1/2 point between the girls. Dawn Smith was the eventual winner. Congratulations Dawn! Thanks to Joanne Berg and Woodenbong past Rodeo Queen Julie Wattsworth.

Although Canungra Rodeo did not have a Queen quest, I feel confident that they will conduct one next year. I have been overwhelmed with the number of Rodeos that have conducted Rodeo Queens this year. I hope that each committee has been pleased with the event and the glamour that such an event adds to their Rodeo.

Another New Rodeo to the N.R.A. circuit, Kyogle, will have a Rodeo Queen competition.

Some good news that I have to report, I have a number of sponsorship prizes in the negotiation stages. However, we have one prize 'A Complete Hair Consultation' donated by Stefan Hair Salons. Such prizes will be much appreciated by the future N.R.A. Queen.

Remember that Rockhampton Rodeo is conducting a Rodeo Queen, with quite good prizes and prizemoney. So come on Girls! It costs nothing to enter and prizes are good.

Until next month, Safe Travelling and Happy Rodeoing.

Your Ambassador for Rodeo,
Liz O'Halloran
N.R.A. Rodeo Queen 1991

Ahh! That's Better
Proudly sponsor the National Rodeo Association

Troy Thompson, a young Junior Competitor, taking on the Men in the Bareback Ride at Nanango.

QUOTE FOR MONTH OF AUGUST

Overheard in a Hotel Bar:—
*"The only book she enjoys is a cheque book.
She can't put it down until it's finished."*

N.R.A. Junior Committee

NOTICE TO MEMBERS

A group of people got together Wednesday, 5th June, 1991 to form a Juniors' Committee so that we can work towards improving Rodeo for youngsters in the future.

We are happy to consider any suggestions you might like to put in writing and we would appreciate the support of committees and members alike - as we all know - the Juniors of today are the cowgirls and cowboys of tomorrow.

The newly formed Committee is as follows:—

President .....	Bill Chapman
Secretary .....	Jan Gall
Treasurer .....	Maureen Butterfield
P.R. ....	Sharron Drinnan

Address any mail to:

The Secretary,
