Secretary's Report

Welcome to our March 'Sports News'. It was good to hear some good reports on my first 'Sports News', putting my second newsletter together this time was a breeze.

In my first report last month I asked if anyone had any profiles to put into the newsletter. So far I haven't received any. Please if you do have anything at all of interest to go into the 'Sports News' please send it in.

I think articles like these make a newsletter a little more interesting. We must remember also that not only do our members and committee's read the 'Sports News' but we do sell the newsletters to the public. So you are not just making the newsletter interesting but you are also selling the sport of rodeo.

Members please note also that you make sure you read the notices put in by central entries. They are important, they will help you as well as make the Central Entries job a lot easier.

Dalby was unfortunately cancelled as you all know due to the weather. Dalby has been in contact with me and I am hoping they will run later in July. You will be notified however when Dalby will be running.

Please remember if you have any problems or questions please do not hesitate to contact me.

Till next month, safe travelling,

National Rodeo Association

Secretary

PRESIDENTS REPORT

Firstly I would like to express my gratitude to Laurie and Nancy Howard on their support of the association by running the Mary Valley Rodeo. Also to be included in this show of appreciation is Mick Sandy and his team and indeed all that helped. Unfortunately it appears whilst it was a top two days, financially the same cannot be said and a loss will be inevitable.

The new executive board has taken a great deal of weight off my shoulders over the last two months and I welcome the change and trust when the format if completed the N.R.A. will be the main beneficiary. Like all new changes I hear a few people would prefer the old concept. I know everyone is entitled to their own beliefs. However if changes didn't occur, and our forefathers not have foresight we would still be driving a horse and buggy. Instead of being a knocker, become progressive and assist in the growth of your sport.

In the last month progress has been made in forming a Rodeo Queen Format and a Junior Promotional Committee. Both of these programmes are of vital importance and any person interested in assisting please contact Terry McHugh.

I must congratulate Brad Ison on his compiling a program for our rodeos. This has been a real bonus for rodeo goers and from discussions I have had with the public, very well received and worth the small charge.

Finally you will see a notice from Central Entries in this edition. Please read, digest and comply with all requests.

Rodeo Queen's Report

Hello everyone,

The 1991 rodeo season is definitely, well and truly under way, I am pleased to report that we have had quite a number of Rodeo Queen competitions up to date. It is wonderful to see and I hope that every rodeo committee considers running one.

The next Rodeo Queen competition was held at Mary Valley Rodeo. We had 3 girls competing, it was very hard job for the judges to separate them, however Dawn Smith was the winner and congratulations must go to Dawn. Also I would like to thank Judy Gough and Mary-Jo Webb for doing a fine job of judging.

I was invited by the Oakey Rodeo Committee to judge their Rodeo Queen competition, which was closed to the two local girls who raised over $2000.00 for charity. Janine Park was crowned the Rodeo Queen, while Michelle Curtis was the Charity Queen. I must thank the Oakey Rodeo Committee for their hospitality and say that I was only too pleased to assist.

Our next Queen competition was to be Dalby, but unfortunately due to the inclement weather, the rodeo was cancelled. We hope that Dalby can get together another day so that we can have a "Dalby Rodeo Queen 1991".

Rosewood saw our next competition. The girls were beautifully attired, with Dawn Smith being the winner again. Congratulations to Dawn and thank you to the judges, Karen and Kevin Creese, and also to last years Rodeo Queen Wendy Eisentrager for her assistance on the day.

The 4 girls going in the end of year competition that I mentioned last report are Chris Steinhardt, Sandra Gilchrist, Dawn Smith and Kim Crouch. It's wonderful to see four girls and I hope that more will come forward in the near future. The girls are busily raising money and organising themselves early in the year which I must commend them on. As of yet I have no more confirmed Queen competitors for a month or so, but bring your outfits just in case.

Until next month have fun and safe rodeoing.

Yours for rodeo,

Liz O'Halloran

CANDID PHOTOS

While going through the files in the office I found some very interesting photos.

I thought a few people may find them a little humorous.

Does anyone recognise any of these people!

If anyone has any photos similar to this and doesn't want to get into too much trouble please send them in.

-- Rodeo Roundup --

Another month has gone by. As the month has gone by so have many good rides. The first rodeo we have had since my last report was the rodeo held at Laurie Howards property at Brooloo. The Junior Rodeo was held on the Saturday and was a great success for all Juniors involved. With Pat O'Halloran supplying the time event stock and Kerry Hall the broncos and of course Laurie Howard the bulls. The kids had a tough task ahead of them. They handled it like the champs they are.

The next day was a full rodeo programme. With a slight delay with Kerry Halls horses turning up, they finally arrived and showed well. One of new comers to the N.R.A. Dale Jones had his first win of the year as well as being his first win with the N.R.A. with a big score of 74. This man certainly is riding hot this year already having some really good rides. Dale Laffey and Robert Kennedy were also in the money as well as local competitor Gene McAuliffe all putting up good rides. The saddle ride and bareback were all close contests with the scores being one point difference. Warren Lamb seasoned bronc rider took home the money for the saddle ride and Craig McIntyre from down Lismore way took home the bareback prize. One memorable part of the day for me was young Jamie Knox doing a sizzler of a run in the Rope & Tie with a time of 9.65. This sort of time would be money in any part of the country. At sixteen he is certainly matching it with the men. Local competitor Gary Andrews took home the bacon in the steer wrestling with a time of 8.6. Debbie Armitage is running hot again in '91 with a good run in the barrel race to share the money with veteran Glenys Bate. There were not many times in the steer undecorating, actually there were only two times and both were broken barriers. The money went to Jenny and June Kennedy. The breakaway was won by Sam Payne with a good time of 5.3. Let's not forget the bullock ride (no favouritism!!). Bullock Ride champion on three occasions Robert Kennedy took the thick end of the prize money in this event. It was good to see so many local competitors in this event and they all showed well. Team roping again this year is going well with John Smith Junior and Pat O'Halloran taking home the winners cheque with a time of 13.35.

Our next rodeo was Oakey. The bulls on this occasion were nearly the victors with only four scores. Warren Jorgenson took the money in this event. The saddle ride was won by Ken Reed and the bareback again, as at Brooloo, Craig McIntyre took out this event. Mick Duffy is again running hot in '91 with a win in the rope and tie. John Smith Junior won the steer wrestling with a time of 4.4 - now that is pretty quick. Glenys Bate took the barrel racing money and it was good to see local competitor Carlene Robinson pick up prize money as well. Yours truly won the steer undecorating with Vicky Gough, Judy Gough and Jenny Kennedy also picking up money. Vicky Gough also won the breakaway roping with a time of 3.45.

Dalby was unfortunately cancelled due to the bad weather but I am sure that they will be running later in the year.

Rosewood was again the venue for some more exciting entertainment. The great bull 'Undertaker' was ridden by owner Gary Johnson to a big score of 84. This sure took a bit of chasing but trying hard were the other money winners Kevin Kasper, Dale Jones and Dale Laffey. 1987 saddle ride champion Stuart Grayson took the bronc riding cheque and behind him were Ron Wilson, Norm Stagg and Ken Reed. Kevin Kasper certainly had a good rodeo at Rosewood also picking up money in the bareback and steer wrestling. Young Alan McHugh put up a good run in the rope and tie to take home fourth money. You big guys should watch out because these kids are really starting to shake the rope and tie up. The barrel race was again won by Glenys Bate and it was good to see novice barrel racer Sandra Gilchrist take home third money. In form steer undecorator Jenny Kennedy made true the saying last out first home, with a win. All round champion Vicky Gough won the breakaway roping with fiancée Mick Duffy.

Helen and Terry McHugh, great supporters of the kids ran a junior rodeo the next day as well as a Jackpot. It was a great day with a lot of laughs for the men in the open breakaway roping, but I must say they did a fine job. (If I didn't say that I would probably get mugged).

*Well until next month, safe travelling,
Nicki Kennedy*
