Secretary's Report

By the time you receive this November Sports News the plans for the finals will be well underway and only a couple of weeks away.

I do not really have that much to report since the last newsletter was not that long ago.

You will all notice the Agenda for the AGM in this months Newsletter. Please read all this information and be sure to attend the AGM on the 14th of December.

I have had a few queries regarding the postal address of the Newsletter. If you have changed address recently or not so recently and have not been getting your Newsletter be sure to advise myself of this change. If you do change your address please send it in on a piece of paper to the office so as I have some written material to go from. It is really of no use letting me know at a rodeo as you can well imagine with either competing or timekeeping or both I cannot always remember what people have told me during the day.

We are getting close to the end of the year and memberships will be due again soon (1st January 1992). Please remember to pay these early so as not to have any confusion at the first rodeo of the year.

Well until next month I wish everyone success at the finals. Safe travelling.

*National Rodeo Association Secretary
Nicki Kennedy*

Ahh! That's Better

PRESIDENTS REPORT

With the finals fastly approaching please make sure you firstly have entered if you qualified in the top 20. If you are not required your monies will be refunded. You will be required to pay a deposit on a number, which is your only entry into the complex. These are not transferable. Any member found guilty of misuse will be heavily punished.

Stock contractors, judges, timekeepers, backyard workers etc. will all be issued with special passes.

To clear up any misunderstanding regarding the ballot for President and Executive Board members. The only vote required is for President as all Executive Members returned without a ballot. Therefore it is in our interest to ensure you vote for the person of your choice.

This year as in the past you will not be called over the P.A. at the finals. If you are not ready when your event starts, you could be scratched, likewise no personal calls will be made over the public address system.

I wish all finals contestants a successful rodeo and trust we will as an Association be proud of our no.1. Rodeo.

*National Rodeo Association President
BILL URQUHART*

Rodeo Queen's Report

Hello Everyone,

With the finals looming around the corner, regretablely, this is the last report that I will write to the members and readers of the N.R.A. Sports News. My year as N.R.A. Rodeo Queen has been fantastic and something that I will always be proud of.

I would like to take this opportunity to thank each and every person who helped me make this year so memorable. I would also like to thank from the bottom of my heart, each of those people who so willingly participated in the grand entries throughout the year. Such co-operation made my job not only easy, but enjoyable. All those people know who they are.

My heartfelt thanks must go to the girls of the grand entry team, you have helped me make an idea of a more professional, exciting grand entry become a reality.

To each of the girls who are competing for the 1992 Rodeo Queen, I wish you the very best of luck for the competition. These girls will set a very tough example for next years entrants, as they have presented themselves immaculately throughout the year, and I am sure that the finals will be no exception.

Cecil Plains saw Kerry Donald not only compete in, but also win her first Rodeo Queen competition. Congratulations to Kerry. I hope this is the first of many for Kerry.

Our new Rodeo Queen will have her work cut out right from the start, as we have Sandgate and Acacia Ridge Rodeos running Rodeo Queen competitions.

I hope that many girls will consider entering in the competitions next year, as not only is it rewarding, but it costs nothing to enter and you can get some excellent prizes.

This job is very hard work, but rewarding and the sense of achievement is immense, and can only be clouded by pettiness and bad sportsmanship. I sincerely hope that next years entrants will remember this and that the 1992 Rodeo Queen does not experience it.

The time has come to end my last report and I guess all that is left to say is good luck to all competitors as the finals. Thanks to everyone for all your help and god bless.

*Your Ambassador for Rodeo,
Liz O'Halloran
N.R.A. Rodeo Queen 1991*
