Secretary's Report

It only seems like yesterday that we were all competing at our first Rodeo of the season. I look at the calendar now and see that the finals are only a month or so away.

Everyone please note that the finals tickets are now on sale. Please see me at the Rodeos running up to the finals and get your tickets early. You will notice in this month's Sports News a special page on the finals. This will let you know about what's happening coming up to the finals. Brad Ison has some signs made for the finals, so please everyone make sure you grab at least one of these signs and place them on the back of your float or trailer.

Presentation night this year will be held at the Town Hall in Caboolture on the 14th December. This will also be the date for the AGM. You will be notified of the exact time etc. closer to the date.

I was happy to see that people are checking their points. Please make sure you keep this up as you can well imagine I will be extremely busy coming up the finals.

I have had a lot of questions from competitors regarding the Powers Series. If you do have a query or problem please come and see Brad Ison or myself.

Again this month I ask all competitors to please check their points. If there is a problem please contact me as soon as possible.

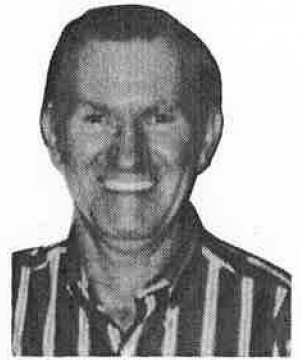

Until next month safe travelling.

PRESIDENTS REPORT

In this month's issue of the Sports News you will note the date and venue for our finals. Should you require tickets please purchase them early so as to eliminate any rush on sales.

I would like to express my appreciation of the effort put in by Kevin Kasper and those persons who attended his 2nd Jackpot Day to raise funds for aggregate buckles. With the 1991 season about to draw to a close we should reflect on the year to date.

Firstly the increase in prize money lost us a couple of rodeos and if it had not been for the effort of our marketing arm led by Brad Ison we could have had a far worse result. Brad sought out special sponsorship for rodeos such as Dalby, Laidley, Toowoomba and Caboolture to name a few.

Our major sponsor Powers and B.P Australia have given the Association a much stronger basis and we look forward to continued support.

To complete this report I would like to make special mention of our grand entry team. Liz O'Halloran our Rodeo Queen has worked hard on uniforms and co-ordinates the workout in the arena. The team has performed at a number of rodeos and each time we see them you can't help but appreciate the effort of all involved.

National Rodeo Association President BILL URQUHART

Rodeo Queen's Report

Hello Everyone,

This month has been extremely busy, with eight Rodeos in September. We have seen a number of committees this month conduct Rodeo Queen competition. Imbil was the first Rodeo of September, Stella Baulch was the winner of the five contestants who were presented immaculately. Congratulations to Stella and thank you to the Imbil Committee.

Caboolture Rodeo was the day after Imbil, and although there was not a Rodeo Queen, myself and the grand entry drill team did a new drill and from all comments from the spectators, it looked great.

The next weekend saw us travel to Laidley and the Parklands, Gold Coast. Each of these Rodeos held Rodeo Queen competitions. Laidley Rodeo Queen competition was won by Dawn Smith, congratulations Dawn. The next day the Gold Coast Rodeo Queen was probably the hardest Rodeo Queen to judge to date. Each and every contestant was presented immaculately. Judging the contest was unenviable and there can only be one winner, and that was Dawn Smith, congratulations to Dawn. The only other Rodeo Queen contests that will be held to date is Coominya. However, I am sure that there will be more before the end of the year.

I must apologise to Chris Steinhardt for failing to congratulate her for her win at the Dalby Rodeo. Chris was the winner of the Dalby Rodeo Queen and I must say that congratulations were definitely in order and that Chris was one very happy girl.

The next thing that I must talk about is the finals and the end of year Rodeo Queen competitions. All contestants wishing to enter must do so by the 20th October 1991.

The minimum of $500 must be in by this time for the Rodeo Queen competition, while all monies raised for the Charity Queen must be handed in. However fund raising can be continued up until the beginning of the Finals Rodeo.

We have a number of wonderful trophies donated and a number of others in the negotiation stages. Until next month, remember that the N.R.A. Rodeo Queen is a very worthwhile title to win and $500 is not a lot of money to raise. Until next time.

Your Ambassador for Rodeo,
Liz O'Halloran
N.R.A. Rodeo Queen 1991
