Steer Wrestling at Dalby Rodeo.

Secretary's Report

Everyone will notice in this months "Sports News" the standings for the Powers Series Rodeos. For those who did not know much about this, Powers are sponsoring 15 Rodeos which will become a series and finish with a final at Beenleigh.

So far the Powers Rodeos that have been held have been at Gympie, Caboolture Show Rodeo, Cunungra, Beenleigh and both days of Rockhampton. You will notice each month on the back page of the Newsletter the calendar which will tell you of the Powers Rodeos coming up.

Competitors, please note that we are starting to get well into the year with many weekends with two and three Rodeos. Can you please make sure you check your points each month in your events and if there are any problems please let me know as soon as possible. Getting this done early will help everyone involved and not be left until the last minute.

I would just like to thank Geoff Frame for supplying many of the photos for this month's Newsletter. It was good to see Geoff back doing some Rodeos, even though some of his jokes were pretty off. Sorry Geoff!!

The week prior to Rockhampton, I spent with Liz helping with the promotions for the Rodeo. I would just like to thank the girls at the Rockhampton Agricultural Society and also Col Austin for running us around everywhere and Peter Stephensen and Ray Reynolds. Thanks must also be passed onto the staff of the A1 motel at Rocky for their hospitality during our stay.

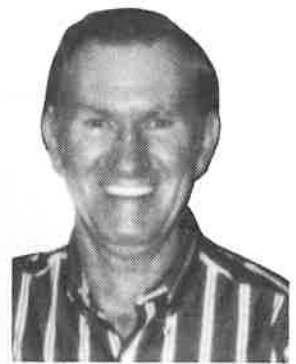

Well until next month, safe travelling!

PRESIDENTS REPORT

September is our largest month of Rodeos. This year we have three new committees and each one we trust will have a successful promotion. The three being: Parklands, Kilkivan and Cunnumulla. I must add, special nominations were granted to Cunnumulla because of its remoteness and large distances competitors have to travel and lower entry fee was allowed.

Nominations are now due for Board Members. If you show interest please seek advise. Persons interested in nominations for the Executive Board, I should warn you that all positions are selected by the full Board and you would be placed in a position most suited to your ability. You do not nominate a position, only as a member of the Executive Board. However the President is a separate position and nominations are called for this vacancy.

I would like to personally thank Bob McGee for his support and for naming a Trotting Race at Parklands in my name. Bob is the Promotions Manager at the Gold Coast Trotting Club and the force behind Parklands Rodeo.

Rodeo Queen's Report

Hello Everyone,

The year is well and truly half over with a run of some 20 rodeos until the finals.

We have not had a busy month with only two rodeos being held, the first one being Kyogle. I unfortunately was unable to attend due to travel commitments. I would like to thank Nicki Kennedy for organising the Rodeo Queen and Grand Entry. Congratulations must go to the girls who entered the competition, with the winner being Robyn Donaghue, first runner up Sandra Gilchrist and second runner up Dawn Smith. Thanks must go to the committee for having such wonderful prizes.

The next rodeo we went to was the Rocky Round Up. I must say I felt like I was finally doing the job of a Rodeo Queen, as I did a radio interview with the ABC in Rockhampton, as well as promotional photos for the Morning Bulletin and an interview with "WIN" Television. Nicki Kennedy, Col Austin Chairman of the Rocky Committee, and myself went to the North Rockhampton Shopping Centre and handed around children's passes and spoke about the Rodeo. This is the type of promotions that Rodeo Queens can do for any Rodeo Committee. I urge all Rodeo Committees to consider using the Rodeo Queen in the way that it was designed, that is, to promote your Rodeo, The N.R.A. and the Sport of Rodeo.

I was extremely proud of the Sport of Rodeo, when given the opportunity to promote it in such a way. Thank you to the Rocky committee and for their hospitality.

I am very pleased to announce that I am 99% sure of having a department course donated by June Dally-Watkins Modelling Agency in Brisbane, for next years Rodeo Queen. Also I hope to have some other lovely prizes as well. It is my ambition to make the Rodeo Queen a more prestigious and worthwhile title to win, in turn encouraging more girls to enter in the competition.

With prizes donated by Stefan and also June Dally-Watkins, as well as the beautiful Buckle donated by Spike Johnson and the Trophy Saddle, this years Rodeo Queen will be very much worthwhile entering. This month sees our first Rodeo Queen entrant profile and next month we hope to see some more of the contestants.

Until next month, Happy and safe Rodeoing.

Your Ambassador for Rodeo,

Liz O'Halloran

Profile

Sandra Gilchrist 1991 Rodeo Queen Entrant

Name: Sandra Gilchrist

Address: Kilkivan

Age: 23 years

Events: Barrel Race

Horses: 'Rebel' is my Barrel Racing horse. He's a 7 year old, chestnut gelding. I've been competing on him for 18 months. He is also a Steer Wrestling horse.

'Budweiser's Special Image' (Bud), is my Rodeo Queen horse. He's a 6 year old, Blood Bay, Stallion. I've competed on him in 4 Rodeo Queen competitions, of which I've won one — being my home town of Gympie.

Ambitions in Rodeo: I would like to be the new Rodeo Queen or Charity Queen. I would like to take up Breakaway Roping and be the Rookie Barrel Racer this year. Eventually I want to win a Barrel Racing Title.

Why I am going in the Rodeo Queen Contest: I think that it would be an honour to represent the N.R.A. Also, I want to help to promote and further the sport of Rodeo. It is an incentive to work hard knowing that the money I raise is going towards Cancer Research.
