Secretary's Report

It's sports news time again. Just as I seem to get one newsletter out, I have to start on the next one.

Last year we had a good feedback with the photos which were put into the newsletter.

While the rodeos seem to be a little quiet, anyone who may have an interesting photo they would like to send in, please do. They don't necessarily have to be old photos, just a photo that you think may be interesting to our members and readers of the sports news.

I would like to bring to all Committees attention the need for your programme and affiliation money to be sent to the office as soon as possible. The programme is supposed to be in the newsletter at least three months prior to the actual Rodeo being held. Delay in getting this information to the office may cause a delay in the newsletter being printed and may not be enough time for the competitors to realize your rodeo is on. So please make sure you send the information in as soon as possible.

You will notice in this month's sports news a letter from Alstonville Rodeo Committee. Thank you Alstonville for joining the N.R.A. You certainly were a pleasure to work with and we all look forward to seeing you again in 1993.

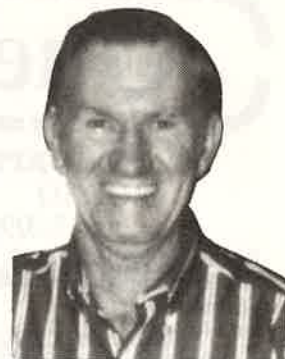

I realize I mentioned this last month in my report but I feel that many people are not aware that entries close the Tuesday prior to the Rodeo and under no circumstances will late entries be accepted.

Nicki Kennedy
National Rodeo Association
Secretary

Ahh! That's Better

PRESIDENTS REPORT

The Junior Rodeo and Presentation Night being a great success, I wish to express my appreciation to all concerned and in part thank the Committee, Sponsors, Workers, Stock Contractors and Peter Bebbington.

The N.R.A. will be conducting a Rodeo at Samford Valley Country Club in June. As usual we will be seeking interested persons that can help. Please advise your Director and a job will be found and please do this immediately to enable the Director time to slot people into jobs.

(A) Special mention should be mentioned re members phoning contractors booking stock. This is not on. All nominations must go through Central Entries. Any member found guilty of the above offense will be fined and not allowed to compete.

(B) Now you are aware of the conditions of entering a Rodeo. Failure to comply will result in disappointment as these Rules will not be bent or broken. The girls in Central Entries have been instructed to make no exemptions.

We, as an Association, are fortunate to have a number of new Committees this season. I trust the members will support our new friends and hope they will have a successful promotion.

In the future we will have a segment each month on the Rodeo Council activities. We have some exciting times ahead with an interstate competition and a truly National Finals. Both are now being planned for 1992.

National Rodeo Association
President
BILL URQUHART

Rodeo Queen's Report

Hello Everybody,

Once again rain seems imminent and it seems Rosewood may be called off again. Stanthorpe had lovely weather and quite a successful day. We had three entrants in the Queen Competition and the Committee were very pleased. It was a good display, girls. I think that we will see more Queen Competitions at Stanthorpe. Chris Steinhardt was the winner. Congratulations Chris. Chris won a beautiful crystal decanter and glasses.

We then went to Wiangaree, where the judges had a very easy job. One of the entrants had to pull out due to her horse going lame. Robyn Donoghue was the only entrant and was the winner. Congratulations Robyn.

Coming Rodeo Queen competitions are at Monto and Gympie. I feel sure that Widgee will also hold one. Gympie will have Sashes, money and make-up for the winner and runner-up. It will be worthwhile entering, girls.

Once again I'm glad to say that we have more entrants in this year's Queen Competition. They are Michelle Law and Nicki Kennedy.

Until next time, safe travelling.

THANK-YOU

*Lying hospital isn't much fun.
But with all the concerned calls I received while in hospital, it sure made things a lot easier*

I really appreciated all who called, enquired and helped when I had my mishap at Wiangaree Rodeo.

A few screws in the leg should see me back nodding my head real soon.

I just wrote to say thanks to everybody.

Dear Nicki,

On behalf of our club I would like to say a very Big "Thank-you" to you and your committee for their assistance at our very first N.R.A. Rodeo.

We had our most successful Rodeo to Date and look forward to a long and happy association with the N.R.A.

Yours faithfully
June Lock,
Secretary.
