Secretary's Report

Another year has begun and the N.R.A. has seen some changes coming into 1992.

As a lot of you will already realise the National Rodeo Association has moved into an office in Caboolture. Please take note of the new address and phone number in this latest edition of the Sports News.

The Credit Card facility will also be located in this office. There is a special number for Credit Card Nominations and entries will not be accepted on any other number. There will be an answering machine on at all times. The putting in of your entries on this machine has not changed. You state the Rodeo, your name and your event. Entries will not be accepted after the Tuesday prior to the Rodeo.

As with any other office there will be certain times in which the office will be open. These times are advertised in the Sports News this month.

I would like to congratulate all the winners of the Power's Series of Rodeos. The Series was a great success with a great deal of help from Brad Ison our Marketing Manager. The N.R.A. will look forward to another Series this year.

Committees please note that your Rodeo for 1992 will need to be into the office three (3) months prior to the Rodeo. If you have any problems with your date etc. please do not hesitate to contact the office.

Well, that's that for this Sports News and remember everyone, safe travelling.

National Rodeo Association Secretary
Nicki Kennedy

Ahh! That's Better

PRESIDENTS REPORT

I trust everyone had a wonderful Christmas and a Happy New Year.

To those members that showed support for me and entrusted the President's job to my care, I trust your confidence will be vindicated. It will not be for the lack of trying!

You would by now be aware that the Association is renting an office in Caboolture. This is a progressive move which in time will more than compensate the cost of being central and having a base to grow from. All phone information is printed in this Newsletter.

Central Entries are now being run by the N.R.A. Head Office and all enquiries should be directed to the N.R.A. Secretary. I would like to complement Sam and Don Butterfield for a professional job in conducting the Central Entries over a period of time.

The Queensland Government is about to legislate an Animal Protection Act. This effects Rodeo and the use of any livestock. The N.R.A. will be enforcing this new Act to the fullest, therefore, no arguments, should you be directed to perform in accordance with these rules.

National Rodeo Association
President
BILL URQUHART

Rodeo Queen's Report

Well here we are,

I trust everyone had a happy and safe Christmas.

We had two Rodeo Queen competitions the weekend after the finals. Sandgate was won by Robyn Donoghue, and Robyn made it a double by winning the next day at Acacia Ridge. Congratulations Robyn!

It was a pleasure to work with the committee at Acacia Ridge and I must say thanks for asking me to compete in the Camel Race, although it was a bit scary at first, I had great fun.

I was unable to make it to Caloundra and I must thank Chris for taking care of the Grand Entry.

Hervey Bay was a great success. Two girls took part in the Rodeo Queen. They were Chris Smith and local girl, Fiona Beddows. Both girls did a very good job, with Chris being the winner. Congratulations Chris! No doubt we will see Chris compete in a few more throughout the year.

There will be a Rodeo Queen competition on at Alstonville and Rosewood Rodeos, so come on girls and support these competitions as the committees put them on for your benefit and there are good prizes to be won.

It is nice to be able to say that Lisa Kraut is our first entrant in this years competition.

So if anyone else is interested please contact me. Chris and I are only too willing to help anyone who is interested in entering in the Rodeo Queen Competition.

Until next time,

Your Ambassador for Rodeo,
Sandra Gilchrist
