Secretary's Report

Welcome to the May Edition of the N.R.A. Sports News. This month the N.R.A. welcome a couple of new Committees: Brookfield Show and also Beaudesert. The N.R.A. would like to welcome these committees and hope they have a successful Rodeo.

If anyone is interested in supplying the N.R.A. with good quality photographs please contact me at the office. The N.R.A. are prepared to pay anyone who supplies photos on each event, so if you are interested please get in touch with me as soon as possible, as we will require photos for the next Sports News.

Competitors who travel horses, please make sure you read the notice in this month's Sports News. It is regarding the spraying of horses to go over the border. The horses must have a clearance of 72 hours and you must also call the border gates which you will be crossing to let them know what time you will be there. If you adhere to these rules you will not have any trouble.

Well, my report this month is very small, but as the Rodeos heat up I'm sure that so will the Sports News.

Nicki Kennedy
National Rodeo Association
Secretary

Ahh! That's Better

PRESIDENTS REPORT

Bi-monthly in the N.R.A. Sports News, each Executive Director will be doing a report to let you know what is going on in their area. I will be back next month with my report.

National Rodeo Association
President,
BILL URQUHART

With the 1992 Rodeo season close to hitting top gear, we will all have our fingers crossed that the wet season is nearly behind us. From now on our Rodeo calendar is looking really good with not a lot of spare weekends before the finals.

The National Rodeo Council of Australia is well under way. Each meeting we have with the Council is covering some very exciting and promising ground. It is coming together exceptionally well and will certainly be the milestone in making Rodeo recognised at a level never seen in this country before. Our own personal contributions will enhance the performance of our Association and the National Rodeo Council of Australia. This performance will be by the way we dress and conduct ourselves at all times.

1992 will be the year Rodeo will take a giant step into the commercial world. The openings for Rodeo Athletes will be tremendous. Sponsors are now looking for well spoken and presented Rodeo type people to market our sport in high profile areas. So let's get smart and present ourselves well.

1991 and 1992 have been both very smooth years in the way of problems with competitors and complaints which comes down to the fact that our Board structure is working and we have an excellent representation of Directors. They have been doing a tremendous job, and with everyone's support we can make Rodeo the truly professional and promotional sport that it is.

Bob Armitage
Executive Director Events

Rodeo Queen's Report

Hi Everyone,

Well, I can now say I've "Met my mates at the Mighty Mingella Rodeo". I must thank Elaine & Graham Smith for my accommodation and meals. Thanks also to Col Davis for being my chauffer.

There were seven girls turned out in the Rodeo Queen. Kelly Holden was the winner. Second, third and fourth respectively were Julie Terry, Debbie Smith and Nicki Collins. Congratulations girls!

Monto Rodeo Queen was won by Jodie Sonel. Congratulations Jodie!

Widgee Rodeo Queen was won by Janis Lancaster. Congratulations Janis!

Don't forget, there are Rodeo Queen competitions at Gympie and Rosewood. Both rodeos are putting up excellent prizes.

I recently did an interview with the Leisuretime Magazine and they gave us an excellent write up on rodeo. We also got a good review in the Gympie Times after Widgee.

Until next time, safe travelling.

Yours in Rodeo,
Sandra Gilchrist
1992 N.R.A. Rodeo Queen
