Director's Report

I would like to take this opportunity to thank all the members of the Executive Board for their assistance and support since my appointment as Finance Director.

At this point in time, the association is in a strong financial position due mainly to the strength and commitment of all your board members.

With the finals just around the corner, I wish all finals contestants a successful rodeo and trust that each competitor will represent our association in a manner that will ensure our Number 1 Rodeo is a success.

To ensure any endeavour like our Finals Rodeo is to be a success, promotion is an integral part, so if any member is available to assist in the promotion of our finals, please contact the Secretary.

In closing, members please note the special notices in this month's newsletter, especially if you have qualified in the Top 20, you are required to nominate by the date indicated. Also please be sure to vote for the Judge of your choice when submitting your entries.

Paul Range
EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR OF FINANCE
National Rodeo Association

Secretary's Report

Well, what beautiful weather we are having and the rodeos are running well. As we all know, the Finals are just around the corner and we will need support from the members to go to shopping centres etc. for promotion of the Finals. Also, we are having a Cowboy's Pub Night for the Finals to promote the Finals. Starts 7.00pm on Black Friday, 13 November 1992 at the Grand View Hotel, Shore Street, Cleveland. There will be a B.B.Q. and a Bucking Machine. We would appreciate if all cowboys and cowgirls be western dressed. These things are time consumed, but necessary to ensure Pine Lodge will be filled with spectators come the 20th, 21st and 22nd November 1992, so please lend your support when asked.

All the best to competitors going hot for the title. These last few rodeos are always hard on everybody, so let's all be considerate to each other. We are all in the sport we love so let's protect and promote it to the best of our ability.

Rodeo Committees: please have all your information on the rodeos in January and February 1993 to head office by the 20th November. If I don't have the information, the newsletter will go regardless.

Well, until next month, let's rodeo.

Patty Kelly
SECRETARY
National Rodeo Association

Rodeo Queen's Report

Hello everyone,

At the time of writing this report, the Finals are only six weeks away, so this will be the last report that I will write for the newsletter. I was proud to be chosen to represent the N.R.A. and the sport of Rodeo as Rodeo Queen. It has been a hectic year but I have thoroughly enjoyed it.

There are so many people to thank for their assistance throughout the year. I would like to thank them all, but in particular Chris Steinhardt, who has been great in her role as Charity Queen and runner-up Rodeo Queen. Chris has been there for me all year, thanks. Nicki Kennedy in her role as Secretary has also been a tremendous help, thanks.

A special thanks to the Grand Entry Team and everyone who participated in the Grand Entry in 1992. Thanks also to the committees and the N.R.A. Board of Directors. It makes the job so much easier with everyone's help and support. To anyone not mentioned, thanks also.

To the entrants in the 1993 Rodeo Queen, I wish you all the best of luck. To the winner, congratulations, and my support when you need it throughout 1993, just ask.

I hope that our new Rodeo Queen will receive the help and support of everyone during her year.

Don't forget girls, it is a great honour to represent the N.R.A. and rodeo, so please consider entering the quest in 1993.

Thanks once again and safe travelling.

Sandra Gilchrist
1992 RODEO QUEEN
National Rodeo Association

P.S. Jodie and myself would like to thank everyone who rang and those that enquired how we were after our accident on the way to Kenilworth. The horses, Jodie, Peter and I were very lucky and were unhurt. Unfortunately, the car was not so lucky.

Thank you,
Jodie Sorrell & Sandy Gilchrist.

FARMERS...

FIGHT BACK!!

Don't let poor fertiliser performance, problem soil or disappointing crops & pastures knockout your profits.

LIME can DOUBLE the nutrient availability in your soil ...

Millions of hectares of Australian farming land is affected by soil acidity (low pH)...a condition which "LOCKS UP" major nutrients & can ruin farm productivity. Depending on your soil pH, it's possible with agricultural lime (aglime) to double availability of some essential nutrients.

HOW DOES IT WORK?

Aglime neutralises soil acids. Residual NPK nutrients become available. Fertilisers work better. Essential calcium is added. Soil aeration & friability is improved.

SPECIAL AGLIME SERVICES

Call the FREEPHONE Aglime Advisory Hotline for help with these special services-

- Natural, high-grade aglime.
- Agrifine, Superfine & Calcium Grit grades
- Affordable and available in bags & bulk
- Major lime supplier to stockfeed industry
- Free soil acidity testing service
- Professional transport & spreader network

Dear Bill,

The rodeo and horse club committee would sincerely like to extend thanks to yourself and the National Rodeo Association for the assistance given to our Inaugural Rodeo held September 12th last.

A dream was finally realised however without the support and assistance afforded by Paul Baron and Kevin Kasper, Stuart and Kris Grayson, Patty Kelly, yourself, the N.R.A. officials on the day and importantly, the competitors, it would not have been the success it was.

Planning for the 1993 rodeo is now in hand where next year it will be bigger and even better.

Keep rodeoing,

Junior Rodeo Report

by Jan Gall and
Carole Meyer

The last Junior Rodeo was held at the Rosewood Showgrounds on the 29th August. It was a real success and the Pig-on-the-Spit and dance were a most enjoyable way to end a great day.

Some Memorable Incidents:

Excitement was at its highest during the afternoon when Corey Reynolds, an up and coming bull rider, was bucked off Shandelle Armitage's pony in the barrel race.

At the end of the rodeo when Digger decided to show the young cowboys how chute dogging should be done, he was "undressed" by his "pet" chute dogging steer.

Much to everyone's delight, Dicko gave an exclusive performance of his "fancy footwork" at the social evening.

We all added a few inches to our waistlines after the huge and delicious meal cooked by Bill Chapman and his family.

The Junior Cowboys and Cowgirls would like to thank all those who worked so hard to make this day such a success.

DATES TO REMEMBER:

November 20 - 22

National Finals - Breakfast!

The Junior Rodeo Committee will again be selling breakfast: eggs, bacon, sausages, savoury mince! See Sharon Drinnen or Jan Gall if you would be able to help, even in a small way, with this.

SEQRRA Reunion and

Old Timers Rodeo

N.R.A. Junior Finals

N.R.A. Junior Presentation Night

This is to be held at the Rosewood Showgrounds, commencing at 9.00am. It is proposed at present that age of the "old timers" is to be: women - 35 and over; men - 40 and over. Competitors must not have competed in the event entered for in the past 2 years.

The evening will commence at 7.00pm with a Pig-on-the-Spit meal and there will be a dance to follow. During this time, the juniors will be presented with their trophies.

Concern for Shane Harth

On behalf of the National Rodeo Association, we would like to give our regards to Shane Harth of Beaudesert. Shane had an unfortunate accident at Coominya Rodeo and I am sure we would all like to see Shane back on his feet real soon.
