President's Report

The National Rodeo Association Ltd. has Ansett Australia as its preferred carrier. People wishing to fly phone 008 81 052 and quote number MC 07118 to enquire about your flight. Ansett have just advised they may not always be the cheapest, however it is asked you to try Ansett first, be it for domestic or overseas travel.

MMI Insurance have a group sponsorship available to members and friends of the NRA. We asked you all to place your third party insurance with MMI, at no extra cost to you. All third insurances cost the same, but by changing to MMI the NRA will receive a commission on all business we put their way. This offer to help the association can be extended by asking your relatives, friends and family to insure with MMI.

This years finals are almost here. I trust we will not have to beg for support in organizing shop promotions, distributing posters and flyers, and having banners and core flute signs erected. Please seek out the director responsible and pledge your support. Directors positions for finals are noted in this newsletter. Don't leave it to the same old few, be involved in making this your event the greatest yet.

I personally was disappointed at your lack of nominations to fill vacant directorships. This indicates one of two things: (A) that everybody is happy with the present board or (B) no one is interested in supporting their sport. The only nominations received were for Saddle Bronc ride leaving. President, Executive Director or Finance, Executive Director Marketing, Bull Ride, Rope & Tie, Team Roping, Chairman of Judges Panel all to be filled on the board.

The NRA now has an underwriter, to cover the injured riders insurance. Your contributions remains unchanged except for juniors with increase to $11.00. Major benefits and changes will be printed in this newsletter. Members with a problem contact your director for advise.

Bill Urquhart
PRESIDENT
National Rodeo Association

Secretary's Report

This is the month we have all been waiting for. All the events are very close on who will be Champion of 1993. The finals will make or break some of the competitors on being the champion.

I would like to thank everyone who phoned concerning about Dale's health, as he is very lucky to come out with a busted ear drum only not a broken jaw. Dale's next Rodeo will be Grafton in which we all know Bull Riders just can't wait to be back out there riding bulls.

A Happy Birthday to Peter O'Connor on the 11th November.

As you all should well know, the Central Entries phone number has changed, please remember the hours to nominate. You will only be able to nominate for the rodeos on the following weekend and not for any other. The days to nominate are Wednesday between 3.00pm-5.00pm and Thursday between 5.00pm-9.00pm, on (074)988766. Non members will be able to nominate through the phone as well. Remember to nominate in those hours only or you will receive a $20.00 late entry fine.

In the next months Sports News will be a membership form and all members who will be rejoining must fill in the membership form and forward to the Head Office by the 1st of January, 1994. If you compete in January and have not paid your membership you will not receive your points that you have been awarded.

I can tell you now that I am not looking forward to A.G.M. as I seem to get a bad headache afterwards. But this year I would to see a good quick A.G.M. and then look forward to the presentation night.

I hope you find the Sports News interesting to read as it would be much better to receive support from members to make the sports news bigger and better to read. If you have information all interesting stories, gossip, tit-bits, marriages etc., would be very much appreciated.

Hoping you all had a successful 1993 season and I certainly am looking forward in making 1994 bigger than '93" with hopefully all your support.

All the best to competitors going hot for the title. Those last few rodeos are always hard on everybody, so let's all be considerate to each other. We are all in the sport we love so let's protect and promote it to the best of our ability.

Safe travelling.

Charity Queen's Report

I felt it right to say goodbye away my usual report, as I have many people to thank for the year. The first person on this list will be my very supportive husband Robert. He has been a tower of strength through the rough times and I must say there have been a few this year. Thanks also to my family on both sides, the Kennedy's, Hatherell's and my mum, Barry and brother Dallas.

Grand Entry's would not be the same without a horse for me to ride. I owe thanks to the following horses, "Joker", "Easy", "King" and "Tyson", thanks guys.

There are also a group of girls who have been great support. I am not about to mention all by name in case I forget someone. They know who they all are. (My Grand Entry Side-kicks!)

Tamara, our Rodeo Princess has been with me throughout the year. She has been a wonderful ambassador for the juniors and a great help throughout the year.

Thank you also to all the girls who competed in the Rodeo Queen Competitions throughout the year. Also thanks must go to the members who set aside a little of their time to go in the Grand Entry's. Your support was greatly appreciated.

I was extremely saddened by the news of Bill Urquhart retiring from rodeo. I guess I am like many others, rodeo will not be the same without the voice bellowing out through the speakers. I do know one thing the finals will not be the same without him. My personal thanks goes to Bill and Dulcie not just for their support throughout the year but also throughout my rodeo career. I love you both.

My year has been memorable as well as enjoyable. I will admit it was alot harder than I thought. I feel that I have done the best to my ability to promote Sport of Rodeo as well as the National Rodeo Association in general. I wish the next Rodeo Queen and Charity Queen and Princess for 1994 all the best for next year. I feel any of the entrants will do a great job for rodeo.

I will not be travelling much next year as I am hoping to show my young Appaloosa alot more in the coming year. I feel after such a hard year I need a break.

Thank you to anyone I may have missed that have helped me also this year. Good Luck to all those heading towards titles.

Rodeo Queen's Report

Finally my last report as the 1993 N.R.A. Rodeo Queen. Since my last report I attended the city of Ipswich Rodeo. Due to commitments at Kennilworth Rodeo I was only able to attend on the Friday night session. I'd like to thank Maryanne and Eddy Powell for the use of "Easy" for the grand entry.

Saturday then saw us at Kenilworth Rodeo. The weather was fine and hot. Thank you to Greg Beer for doing the music for me due to Bill and Dulcie's illness. Thanks also to the girls for the Grand Entry.

The Thursday after the Rodeo I was off to Toowoomba to help with promotions for the St Vincents Rodeo. I was looked after during my stay by Bryan and Marlene Kofoed. Bryan and Marlene have a beautiful home and gardens which Marlene should be proud. The views from their hilltop home were stunning. My first duty was an interview on 4SB Radio Station. After some last minute instructions from Bryan the interview went off well, talking about the Rodeo as well as my year as Rodeo Queen. Later in the day I was off to Village Fair Shopping Centre for the rest of the day handing out pamphlets and talking Rodeo. Friday morning we were off to visit the St Vincents Hospital. Louis Scott the promotional lady for the Hospital took us around visiting the childrens ward as well as the Coronary Care Unit where all the funds from the Rodeo went. The Chronicle newspaper took some photos of our visit. During that visit I also met last years St Vincents Rodeo Queen Melissa Reich who worked at the hospital. I'd like to thank Louise for showing us around. I enjoyed it alot and learnt alot also. After all of Robert's injuries you would think that I would know everything there is to know about hospitals! After the visit off we went back to the Village Fair for a bit more promotions. Friday night was the St Vincents Rodeo Ball where took place the crowning of the Rodeo Queen, Charity Queen and Junior Fund Raiser. I had the most pleasurable task of announcing the Junior Fund Raiser.

This was Melissa Duncan-Kemp, raising $4500.00. The Rodeo Queen was Nicola Piccini, and the Charity Queen was Vicky Morris. Congratulations to these girls it was a tremendous effort.

I would like to thank the St Vincents Rodeo Committee and Bryan and Marlene Kofoed for asking me to attend these functions, I enjoys myself. Thanks must also go to Yvette Mills an NRA Rodeo Queen Entrant. Yvette also helped with the peomotions during my time in Toowoomba. I must day though that Yvette has a new Nickname "The Mouth". I say no more!!

Saturday we were off to Kingaroy for their Rodeo. It was well attended and a good night. Thank you to Ron Deakin for the use of his stallion "Hollywood" for the Grand Entry.

Back to Toowoomba and St Vincents Rodeo. I had a good day not all because of the Rodeo but because the mighty Broncos won the Grand Final!! Thank you to Pat Holmes for the use of his horse for the Grand Entry.

The next week saw us at the Rum City Rodeo Bundaberg. Thank you to the committee for putting on a Rodeo Queen contest. Congratulations must go to Patty Kelly for winning the contest. This was Pattys first win. I think she was a little excited. Great job Patty and good luck for the End of the Year.

The big crowds of Boonah was our next stop. Boonah is one of the NRA's best Rodeos and the competitor certainly did not let the crowd down. A Rodeo Queen contest was conducted and the eventual winner being Shallice Wilson. Congratulations to Shallice. I must also say a big thank you to Judy Gough for lending me her horse "Tyson" for the Grand Entry. He certainly was a pleasure to ride and I felt great riding him.

The next day after not much after sleep was home town Murgon. The crowd may not have been huge but the programme and competition was. We held a Rodeo Queen competition with the winner after much discussion and deliberation was Yvonne Beezley. I will say though I kept right out of this one! Congratulations to Yvonne. She was one happy girl. We are really getting into the nitty gritty of the year now with only a couple of Roderos left. This last week end was Nambour and Coominya. Thank you again to Judy for "Tyson" for the Grand Entry.

Coominya held a Rodeo Queen with the eventual winner being 1992 Charity Queen Chris Steinhardt. I think she was a little surprised. Congratulations to Chris. May this be a comeback!

I only have three more Rodeos to add to a very busy year as Rodeo Queen. These are McLean, Grafton and Killarney and then the big NFR.

I wish all the Rodeo Queen and Princess Entrants all the best for the end of the year. I hope that the winners will have a memorable and busy year as I did.

Bye for now.

Rodeo Princess' Report

Farewell from Tamara Jakimowicz
1993 NRA Rodeo Princess

The NRA finals are getting closer and I will soon be handing over my crown to the next up and coming princess. It was a honour being the NRA Rodeo Princess for 1993 and I hope that the next princess will enjoy it as much as I did.

Being your representative for 1993 as princess was most enjoyable and great experience, I am looking forward to running for it again in future years.

I wish good luck to all Rodeo Princess entrants for 1994 and I hope they do the best they can do in the competition. I am very grateful for all who participated in Grand Entry's and the Princess competitions throughout the year. Thank you to the judges and girls who competed in the competition.

A special thanks to Nicki for helping make my year a success by helping me organize things this year. Thank you to everyone who helped me through my 12 months as Rodeo Princess.

Hope to see you at the finals.

FRIENDS OF ST VINCENTS ASSOC. INC.
RODEO COMMITTEE

St. Vincents Hospital Rodeo Committee, Toowoomba, would like to take this opportunity to thank NRA Rodeo Queen Nicki Kennedy for all the help she gave us before our Rodeo in September.

She arrived at Bryan and Marlene Kofoeds on Thursday morning and straight away started helping us promote the Rodeo at a display we had set up at Village Fair plus spending some time at St. Vincents Hospital, and then at the ball for the crowning of our 1993 Rodeo Queen, Charity Queen and Junior Fund Raiser on the Friday night.

So a big thank you to Nicki. It was great having you here and we wish you all the best in the future.
