Secretary's Report

This year is certainly flowing through with July already on the go.

I have a few points I would like to bring to your attention:

1. There will be no more late entries accepted after 9.00pm Thursday night comes. You cannot put any more entries through and no excuse will get you in. If you haven't entered between the hours advertised then you won't be getting them through at all.

2. With the M.M.I. Insurance forms sent to all members back in April Sports News — all you are required to do is fill the form in and send to M.M.I. along with the envelope provided. Then, when you pay your registration, the Third Party Insurance Policy will automatically transfer to M.M.I. Insurance costing you nothing but a little time in filling in the form and posting it. In reply our Association benefits by receiving sponsorship from M.M.I. For trucks, Head Office has further forms to fill in. Please contact Head Office and I will send these forms to you. If you have any further inquiries on M.M.I. contact either Head Office or Bill Urquhart and we will be happy to help. Thank you.

3. Persons wishing to contract, promote, clown, judge, pick-up, chute boss, announce or time keep at the National Rodeo Association Ltd Rodeos, please have your name listed in the Newsletter. You must be a member. Non-paid members will result in your name being removed from Contract Listings.

The Rodeos which have been held in the past couple of months have been terrific in the spectator's eye. The number of spectators at the Rodeos have been unbelievably great and we hope to keep this up. A job well done by the Committees on promoting their Rodeos and making the days what they have been. Thank you.

When I was filling the position as Central Entries Officer at Rodeo, there was a couple of members who helped me in a big way and I have not yet thanked them for it. I felt this would be a great way in doing so. Jocelyn Frahm and Joy Cavanagh, I would like to thank you both for your support while I was doing Central Entries. A SPECIAL THANK YOU.

For this month good luck,
and Safe Travelling
Yours in Rodeo!!

Executive Director Finance Report

With six months of the 1994 season gone, the Association is in a reasonably stable financial position, considering the current economic climate.

Over the Labour Day long weekend, I attended the Mighty Mingela Rodeo. As in 1993, there was again this year, an enormous crowd in attendance for the two day promotion.

Financially, this rodeo again proved successful for your Association.

On a personal note I would like to extend my thanks to Graham and Elaine Smith and family for the hospitality extended to me during my stay.

The 1994 Rosewood Rodeo Promotion was again a financial success. However, this would not have been possible without the support of a number of people. To all those people, I extend my thanks on behalf of the Board of Directors.

Lastly, members don't forget the M.M.I. Insurance Offer.

Rodeo Queen's Report

It has been a while since my last Rodeo Queen Report. One thing I didn't think about was having two write reports for the month Sports News, but just the same I enjoy writing about what's up!

The competition this year has been slightly changed, with the associations contest being run in conjunction with the N.R.C.A. Queen Contest. This means if you are an N.R.A. Entrant you have the chance to win the N.R.A. Rodeo Queen as well as N.R.C.A. Rodeo Queen.

If you wish to be an entrant or would like further information, please do not hesitate to contact myself at the N.R.A. Head Office during office hours on (074) 958668 and I will be more than happy to inform you.

On Friday June 3, we headed off to the Pro-Masters Championships at Beaudesert held 3, 4 & 5 June. I was introduced to each of the Association's Rodeo Queen and I certainly enjoyed working with the association queens all weekend. Each Association was judged on their presentation on representing their Association. Friday night started out slow but the Rodeo was run professionally between the three announcers working together, they never missed a beat.

The support I received from the N.R.A. members was tremendous. No one complained about what they had to do and helped me decorate the truck for the street parade.

A special thank you to Greg Gall, Joanne Billenburg and Jenny Glasby for participating in the Street Parade and yet were not competing and also to Dale Jones for his support all weekend.

Also thanks to the girls who wore the Drill Outfits in the Street Parade and to the competitors in taking their time in saddling their horses just to participate in the Street Parade.

The N.R.A. competitors presented themselves well in the Grand Entries and Street Parade. It was an experience and a half when we came out of the chutes at the start of the Grand Entries. I must say at first I didn't think it would work but in the end it was great. The horses didn't play up and all went smoothly. I learnt a lot on the weekend about Rodeos and people that I never knew.

The Paint Horses were proudly supplied by Kathy Hall and Vicky Gough who put a lot of work behind the scenes in presenting the horses each night. A BIG thank you to both for your help over the weekend.

Congratulations go to the C.R.C.A. for winning the best Presentation Association. I was certainly proud of the N.R.A.'s presentation as there was no room for improvement. Thank you to you all for your support once again and look forward to working with you all throughout this year.

Our following weekend was Caboolture Show Rodeo on Sunday in conjunction with the show. The Committee were pleased with the crowd they had at the Rodeo which was a huge number of people.

Congratulations to Brooke Frahm for winning the Caboolture Rodeo Queen, which was a job well done. And thanks to all the girls who participated. Thanks to Caboolture Show Society for running a Rodeo Queen Entrant at your Rodeo.

The weather wasn't looking too promising early in the week. The Wednesday before the Rodeo we had sunshine which stayed with us throughout the week and weekend.

From Caboolture to Teebar the next week was on a Saturday. Thank you to the Teebar Rodeo Committee for having Trophies up for each event. Unfortunately, we do not have many rodeos that do so. Congratulations to Samantha Daley for winning Teebar Rodeo Queen and also to Yvonne Beezley for participating. Thanks to Teebar for running a Rodeo queen Entrant at your Rodeo.

On finishing my report, I would like to thank the Cowboys and cowgirls who participated in the Grand Entries at our Rodeos. It was very much appreciated.

If you wish to go in a Grand Entry come and see me at the beginning of the Rodeo as that is when I organise the Grand Entry. I will be happy to include you. As the Grand Entry only takes a couple of minutes of your time and the goodness of your heart.

Safe Travelling.

THE COMPETITOR

A competitor is not somebody who wins consistently, but somebody who is consistently there to take up the challenge and strive to do their best.

A competitor is always satisfied in knowing they have done the best they can, and winners and losers, do not exist.

A competitor does not enter a race to "beat" individuals, but to accomplish the goal that has been set, so that they can set new and higher goals.

A competitor is not somebody who aims for the same title year after year, but somebody who moves on to new areas to test both strengths and weaknesses.

A Competitor is somebody who can stand among kings or peasants and not be noticed.

A competitor does not rally with those who succeed and forget those who fail.

There are many who sit atop their chosen career or sport, but some, are just simple people, others are true competitors.

People, they say, have short memories, how true! People too soon forget the fight, the failures and the friends.

A competitor is a soft and gentle heart with a long memory.

A competitor never forgets the help given or who gave, nor does a competitor forget those who now seek help.

Yvette Mills.
