Executive Director Operation's Report

The '94 season has started off slow but is sure to be full on for the rest of the year.

Our new system in the office for Central Entries is working out well. Doing it this way, there is no argument. If you don't get a reference number when you enter, you are out of luck. It is good to see the number of late entries starting to drop, it certainly makes it a lot easier on the staff and contractors alike.

The Board is tossing around ideas on how to improve our finals. We certainly have to change our ways to make them a more high profile event to:

- (a) to attract more sponsors, and
- (b) to get more people on seats.

So if you have any constructive thoughts, stand up and put them forward. We need your help!

If everyone contributed a little more effort in these projects, the sport of Rodeo will grow alot faster.

All the best in Rodeo!
Safe Travelling

Secretary's Report

This year has started off great with minimum point rodeos. As all the rough stock competitors would say. Since Presentation Night we have had only a couple of weekends spare. We have also had 2 maximum point Rodeos as well.

Our first Rodeo for promotions was Currumbin on Sunday 2, January. Dale and I left on the Thursday prior to the Rodeo to help the committee promote the sport.

We started at the Pines Shopping Centre on Thursday night. Friday we went back to the Pines and Saturday off to Sanctuary Cove where Yvette, our Charity Queen, sang a song and to finish the promotion. Saturday, at the Currumbin Hotel for a Cowboys Night, and I must say a poorly of the Cowboys who didn't turn up. A great thanks to the Cowboys who did, you know who you are. Thanks.

Sunday was the Rodeo and what a great turn out it was for spectators. The Rodeo ran fast and professionally. I would like to make a special thanks to the Currumbin District Horse Club for sponsoring a room at the Currumbin Motel and to Terry, Marilyn, Brett and Jenny for their hospitality.

Our next Rodeo was Hervey Bay on January 8. Yvette and I left on Thursday prior to the event to promote the Rodeo. We went to the Maryborough Markets on Thursday and the Shopping Centre Friday. Unfortunately, we didn't get rid of as many pamphlets as we would have liked. We decided to letter drop in the local area of the Rodeo to inform people of the event.

Saturday came, along with some unwanted clouds that caused a few blackouts through the Rodeo, leaving the last two events postponed until the next morning.

Thank you to Hervey Bay Rodeo for sponsoring a room for Yvette and I at the "Beach Comber" Motel, and for running a Rodeo Queen Contest. Judges were Ann-Maree Hasselbach and Chris Smith. We had four contestants in which the judging was close, but the end result went to Shellie Wilson as the 1994 Hervey Bay Rodeo Queen. Congratulations Shellie and thanks for competing in the Quest.

Unfortunately, Beenleigh Rodeo was cancelled due to wet weather and transferred to February 5, but again was cancelled for the same reason and will now run in May.

From there we headed off to Alstonville the weekend after on January 22. The committee from Alstonville were great to work with along with a well run Rodeo.

Thank you to Alstonville for running a Rodeo Queen Contest in which we had five girls competing, two of which were local. Our judges were Robert Johnston and Ann-Maree Hasselbach. Thanks for judging. Unfortunately, we can only have one winner and congratulations to Sharon Webb on becoming the 1994 Alstonville Rodeo Queen.

We then headed to Toowoomba Rodeo on February 12. Toowoomba Rodeo had a huge crowd with the makings of a quick professionally run Rodeo.

The last Rodeo we had was Bundaberg on February 19. Thank you to Cathy for organising a horse for me to do the Grand Entry. The clouds looked worrying but the rain stayed away. Congratulations to all the winners of the night.

While being the Rodeo Queen, you need nothing but support from everyone and I have certainly been receiving it from some of our members.

I would sincerely like to thank the girls who have been helping me with the Grand Entries at the Rodeos since my reign for Rodeo Queen and hope dearly that I will receive the same support throughout this year. You may not realise how much I appreciate this support but believe me, it makes a difference to have great people backing you all the way.

I would also like to make a special thank you to Doc, Troy, Brad and Joy Cavanagh for supporting me and taking their horse "Gray" to minimum point Rodeo for me to do Grand Entry on and to Josh and Brooke Frahm for travelling "Gray" to the Rodeos for me. A special thank you to you all.

I would like to introduce you to a company called "Mackline Distributors" who deal in Riding Boots. Mackline Distributors specialise in Red Wing and Canada West high quality pull on, lace up and Western Boots.

Mackline Distributors are sponsoring me as Rodeo Queen and I would like to thank Laurie Parr of Mackline for donating money towards N.R.A. Rodeo Queen. I would like to see Cowboys and Cowgirls supporting this company as they are sponsoring the N.R.A.

At present, I would like to welcome Janene Ryan on becoming a 1994 Rodeo Queen entrant and I also have another interested person, Sharon Thorne who has asked me to send information on the quest. If you are interested in becoming the 1995 Rodeo Queen, please call me or see me to give you all the necessary paperwork. It is a great opportunity to promote the sport of Rodeo as well as a great learning experience for yourself. You can contact me on (074) 95 8668.

I shall finish my report now and hope you found it enjoyable and interesting to read.

Next month, our Charity Queen Yvette Mills, will have a report. My next report won't be until May issue of the Sports News, so until then don't drink and drive.

Safe travelling.
