Secretary's Report

It is good to see the entries in for the Promasters on the 19th August. I would like to congratulate the top competitors on making it in the top five and wish you all the best of luck!!

Please remember to be in the street parade as this is a must!!! Sign on for the street parade is at 11.00am sharp!!! At Little Cunningham Park Quay St Rockhampton. If you do not go in the street parade the nominations you have paid will be void!!

Please remember to give any ideas for the float in the street parade to National Rodeo Association head office!!!

Please check your points members!!! Just a reminder that all memberships will be renewed in December.

I will be putting a membership form into a few newsletters before then, so anyone who would want to renew their memberships sooner can do so by all means and it will save the last minute rush as well!!!

I went to the Beenleigh Rodeo and even though the wind was harsh the crowd was good. The rodeo was on the go all the time. Ticket sales are running smoothly. Anyone who would like to help with the sales of tickets can let myself know at head office and I will arrange for the organisers to be in touch with you . . .

Well there really isn't anymore I can say. Good luck to all competitors in all events!!! Send in photo's and your "Members" say!!!

Norma Wolfenden

Executive Director of Events Report

Well, it's that time again and all our 1994 Champ's and top 5 prepare for the Pro Masters in Rocky. Just a few notes on the Pro Masters prize money is I'm told $2000.00 per round and added of which work's out at about $850.00 per round so total $2850.00 per round. One other thing every competitor must sign in and go in the street parade. I'm told there will be no excuses or exceptions at all.

I wish all the representatives of the National Rodeo Association the best of luck.

Moving on to the National Rodeo Association Finals for 1995. Well the changes made in 1994 although far better than in the past didn't solve all the problems but we will keep on trying and changing which it seems is very common amongst the different Association's in Australia.

At this stage it looks like being a three or four head contest over the 2 or 3 week-ends at 2 or 3 different venues. There is still a lot of work to do but we have received some good interest from both promoters and committees prepared to do a lot of work to help with our finals. There will be more information on them as it comes to hand, anyway looking forward to Rocky and again good luck to all those involved.

Executive Director of Events
Mason Jardine.

NRA Rodeo Queen Report

Hi everyone, the past month has seen three different Rodeo Queen competitions at Teebar, Woodenbong, and Beenleigh- all were very close and I did not envy the judges their task! At Teebar Rodeo the winner was Jo Taplin from Toowoomba who is a new comer to Rodeo Queen Competitions. Congratulations Jo and we hope to see more of you.

Woodenbong was also highly contested with all the girls looking like real professionals. Thanks to Natalie Porter and Brooke Smith, the judges who had a very difficult time! Eventually the winner was announced as Rebecca Smith. Rebecca has been doing really well in these competitions, always looking immaculate and riding very well.

Congratulations Rebecca and it's great to see you doing so well. Rebecca is now raising her $2000.00 for the 1995-1996 Queen Quest, so please support her and Janene Ryan who is also in the quest, as much as you can. Beenleigh Rodeo Queen Quest was also a difficult one for the judges Maryanne Powell and Kylie Mathews as the girls looked stunning. In the end Janice Lancaster of Morayfield was the winner by one point over Rebecca Smith - Rebecca beat Janice by one point at Woodenbong the day before.

Congratulations to Janice who received the next $300.00 entry fee paid certificate for the 1995-1996 Queen Quest. Janice is now thinking about joining the quest. I must say congratulations to all the girls who compete in these Queen competitions at Rodeo's, as you all present yourselves and your horses very well and it's great to see local girls and rodeo competitors both competing.

The latest and greatest on the 1995-1996 Queen Quest is that Horseman's Trading Post at Rochdale, have donated a beautiful American Ladies Barrel Racing Saddle (value $1500.00) as a prize! !! I'm sure you'll all agree that this is a fabulous prize for the National Rodeo Association Queen 1996 and I'd like to sincerely thank Horseman's Trading Post.

Other prizes include a Navajo saddle cloth donated by National Rodeo Association and a basket of nutrimec's skincare and make up donated by myself.

So, come on girls! ! anyone wanting more information on the quest please contact me for all the details. In case you didn't know, the queen quest is run by the national rodeo council, so when you enter by raising $2000.00 you are eligible for Rodeo Council Awards as well as the week on the gold coast for judging!!! This year we had a fabulous time, as I've said before. All promasters competitors please make sure you are available for grand entries and street parade in rockhampton hopefully I will have spoken to you all at Kyogle and organized this!!!

Yours in Rodeo

Challenge Series Secretary Report

Saturday the 24th June was the first Junior Bull Ride in the Challenge Series. The day started off with a Calcutta of the Junior Bull Riders. Kerry Stewart won by putting his money on Silas Richards. Wendy and Shane Richards donated a trophy for the "Stick Horse Barrel Race", with enormous entries the eventual winner was Linc Cummings. We did have a bad fall of horse and rider around the second drum though. Anne Marie Hasselbach I hope your knee has recovered! After a lot of talk and bribes! we finally got some 'victims' for the "Mexican Poker" Jason McKinnon entered the arena with helmet on. As soon as the Bull was released "Ferrett" was off! I have never seen anyone move so fast. It's times like these that you really need a video camera and the address for "Australia's Funniest Home Videos". The winner was Danny McLaughlin. Great job Danny. The day finished with the presentation of the Average Winner. This trophy was donated by Robert and Nicki Kennedy. Congratulations go to Silas! The only misfortune of the day was after the Rodeo, the loss of Rupert's Bull "Billy Coke Bottle". He will be missed by Rupert as well as Robert. He did however have a win on his last performance by throwing off Steve Doneathy.

Thanks must go to all Sponsors and workers on the day, who most of them donated their services. A big thankyou to Rupert and Betty Hatherall who donated their arena etc and helped alot with the preparation. Thanks also to Wendy and Shane Richards for their assistance in the planning of the first event of the series. Money is now in the bank for the Buckle for the end of the series. The next round of the series will be held at the Bostock's Bull and Bronc at the Calamvale Hotel Sunday 6 August. The series has shown a lot of interest and plans are under way for other Rodeos to be part of the series. Good luck to all those competitors and thankyou to the competitors who supported the first Rodeo of the Series.

Nicki Kennedy

Members Say

Well, another month of Rodeo has gone by and we have seen quite a lot happen.

I believe the juniors had a very successful rodeo at Caboolture last month, as was the senior rodeo in the evening. All of which was added to the spectacular Grand Entry and the performance of Ian Bostock with his bull "E.T." and his "Indian" horse.

Also a job well done to Shandelle Armitage for singing the National Anthem. I wouldnt like to guess which side of the family she gets her talent from!

Most of us headed up to Teebar rodeo in the middle of June (Probably to be as far north from the cold as possible). It was great to see so many competitors support the rodeo as the committee held what would be one of the best rodeo's we have on the calendar.

There was a lot of effort put into making the day enjoyable and there was something for everyone e.g. Poddy Ride, Local Steer Ride, Queen Quest and trophies for every event. Doc Cavanagh unfortunately came off second best when a steer fell on his shoulder, hope your on the mend Doc.

Well Done Members

The Ambulance Personal was very impressed with the Caboolture Show Rodeo and the conduct of the National Rodeo Association Members. Well Done Members!!

Welcome

Welcome to Eddie Powell as Executive Marketing Director. Eddie is putting together a marketing team. On behalf of the Executive Board of Directors and National Rodeo Association Members, welcome to the Board Eddie!!

Birthday!!!
Suzanne Brooks for August 3rd

Now is the time for the Directors of each event to start organising raising money for any end of season trophies etc. that you may want to put up, many have started but the ones that haven't think about it as you don't want to be left out come presentation night.

Sorry to hear Marcus Jones was badly hurt while practising. Best wishes for a speedy recovery and we hope to see you back riding soon.

It's great to see that the Bull and Bronc rodeo's at "Pinelodge" have started up again.

Last Friday night was the second that Ian Bostock had held there, and we can thank Ian and the spectators for making the night so enjoyable and the atmosphere electric.

We hardly have a free weekend from now until the end of the year so remember to drive carefully and to take your time.

Until next time, bye for now.

Caroline Green

TRIBUTE TO THE CHAMPS

By Archie McPherson

Payout has left us, Master Plaster and Honkey Tonks.
It will be a while before we can replace these great
broncs,

They're all won their share of bucking horse of the year,
When the gates use to open, how the crowds use to cheer.

Now as we gather round the back of the chutes,
checking our gear and pulling on our boots,
How would we love to be getting on one of these great
broncs.

There's one thing for certain you'd get a good trip,
You'd know that you're on them, I'll give you the tip.
Ordinary buckjumpers are plentiful but champs are few,
But these three champs, they knew what to do.

Cowboys they loved them because they gave one hundred per cent.

And even if they threw them it was money well spent.
To the owners of these champs it must be hard, when they muster their string and there not in the yard.

But think of those happy days when you had them in your pen.

Don't be disheartened because it will happen again.

So I think everybody should show their respect.

This is only a thought but wouldn't it be great at the next
National Finals to have their names on the gates.

PRO MASTERS PLEASE NOTE:

11.00am sharp at "Little Cunningham Park"

to return to the showgrounds to prepare
