Secretary's Report

The Caboolture Rodeo was a real hit! I enjoyed myself and everyone else looked to be having a wonderful time, I have heard nothing but good. Members you have done yourselves and the association proud. I did catch up with some competitors at the Rodeo and it was great to see the number that came to say hello!

We have started to distribute the first of the life membership cards. If you are a life member and have still to send a photo of yourself please do so. (Remember I will be using that actual photo) If you have any queries don't hesitate to give me a ring or if you know a life member with a card have a look I'm sure you will like them.

Committees, a job well done to those who are sending there affiliations in nice and early. Three months is the recommended time but if you want to send it earlier please do not hesitate as the sooner the better for all of us! Most of you would have received our new look affiliation prms by now. There is a space for the Rodeo venues address. I find a lot of competitors and spectators ring Head Office after a street name or directions and I think publishing the street would help. Please do not hesitate with any feed back or comments regarding these forms. We are all here to work together and these forms along with the requirements form is to help make everyone's job run smoother.

Members, I am still awaiting some time event or junior photos to be sent into Head Office for the Newsletters. "Members Say" is going really well, please do not hesitate to write in. Cowgirl of the month for July is competitor Brooke Frahm. Please fill in the profile that will be advertised in the Newsletter from time to time and send a photo/s. These photos will be sent back after use but normally will take up to six weeks. If they are needed back sooner just make a note and I will organise to post them to you.

We are now over half way through the year and the finals will soon be upon us. Therefore you will all be going through your points like crazy! Please spare a thought for your Secretary as I will have to go through everyone's points, so please do not wait till the end of the year, let me know now of any problems, then they can be sorted out with the special attention that they deserve, instead of the last minute rush! This will make everything more efficient for the end of the year.

Please do read the article on the Pro Masters, and those involved, do note that it is mandatory to be in the street parade!

There is a rule change/additions section in the Newsletter, please read this and update your new rule books accordingly as these are now official rules and will help the association run smoother if we have our adjustments made. There is also a section regarding our Central Entries. This page will be printed in each Newsletter as standard and is there for all competitors to read so that you will all have a better understanding on how our Central Entries system works! Any feedback would be appreciated!

Members don't forget to take advantage of the NRA members specials at Maverick's!

Safe Rodeoing.

NRA Rodeo Queen Report

I everyone! Well another month seems to have flown by with a bunch of great Rodeos now memories. Firstly I'd like to thank everyone who has allowed me to ride their horses in Grand Entries over the last couple of months, Robert Kennedy, Shane Richards, Kathy Hall & Patty Kelly. Patty is always willing to let me ride the lovely "Hobo" and I really appreciate it. I hope she's recovered from the "scary" wagon full of judges at Caboolture.

Since my last report we've had two Rodeo Queen Competitions. The first being at the very wet Gympie Rodeo! The competition was fierce with six girls lining up for the great prize of a beautiful sash and an Akubra hat from Ace High Hat Co. and the $25 Runner-up prize and sash. All girls went really well considering the wet conditions and should be proud of the way they looked and handled their horses. After the dust (??) had settled, the winner was Karen McIntyre who did very well and was closely followed by Rebecca Smith who received Runner-up. Congratulations girls!

The next Queen Competition was at Caboolture Rodeo and once again we had seven girls competing for a beautiful sash and trophy donated by the Caboolture Rodeo Committee. We also included the very exciting prize of the $300 entry fee to the 1995-96 Rodeo Queen Quest. Sharon Piggott of the Rodeo Council has given me three of these certificates to give as prizes at Rodeo Queen Competitions. The remaining two Rodeo Queen Competition certificates will be given away at the Woodenbong Rodeo Queen competition and one other yet to be advised. I've just been speaking to the Secretary of Woodenbong Rodeo Committee and they're looking forward to the Queen Competition because when their Rodeo started - 49 years ago - it was to raise money for a Rodeo Queen Entrant! They also have a lovely sash and trophy as prizes. As I agree it's okay for the more mature juniors to compete in Rodeo Queen Competitions (however this will be at my discretion at each inaugural Rodeo), they will not be eligible for the $300 certificate should they win and it will be changed to the next Rodeo Queen Competition. The same applies should one person win two or three Rodeo Queen Competitions where the certificate is part of the prize. At the moment I am working on getting a saddle donated for the 1996 NRA Queen so depending of the success of this, we will be able to give a definite amount girls need to raise by the end of June. Please be patient as I'm trying to make sure everything is cut and dried. However if you wish to enter the quest there is no reason why you can't start raising your money immediately. Please see me for the entry form and other relevant information. In the August Newsletter I will advise which Rodeo's the horsemanship phase will be held at.

Now I think I've digressed enough so back to the Caboolture Rodeo Queen Competition! This was once again highly contested and all girls did very well with the scores being extremely close. However the winner was Rebecca Smith who was thrilled with her prizes and is now entering the 1995-96 Queen Quest with her $300 entry fee paid! Well done Rebecca! I'll also mention that a very excited Nicole Conway won the Rodeo Princess trophy from 15 eager young girls. Congratulations Nicole and all the girls for trying - these are our Rodeo Queens for the future!

Finally thanks to eveyone who has been so reliable as Grand Entry participants, your support is really appreciated. If your name is on the list -please check this! -near the draws at the Rodeo but you can't take part PLEASE LET ME KNOW! I'm depending on your assistance and it looks pretty lousy if no one rides out from the time event competitors.

Thanks to the roughstock directors and cowboys who have been really co-operative.

If I can't get enough people on horses I'll simply require girls with flags and the rest of you won't receive your moment of glory! The spectators want to see YOU, so let's all work together and present a united front as the one big Rodeo Family that we are!

REMEMBER:— "There are no strangers, only friends we haven't met yet!!"

Yours in Rodeo Joanne Bielenberg, 1995 NRA Rodeo Queen

Rodeo Princess Report

Hello everyone, since my last report we have had more Junior Rodeo's for 1995, these were Beaudesert and Caboolture.

At both Rodeo's we held a Grand Entry, where I again received support from competitors which were willing to help me present a neat grand entry. We all did that successfully and I wish to thank all of you who have continuously supported me. I would also like to thank Shandelle Armitage who sang the National Anthem for us at both Rodeo's. Thankyou Shandelle.

We held a Princess competition at both Rodeo's. At Beaudesert we had eleven girls compete. I would like to thank the judges, congratulation on a job well done. Beaudesert Rodeo Princess was won by Rebecca Smlth, Miss Horsemanship was won by Crystal Norton, Miss Appearance went to Lisa Ross, Miss Personality to Candice Piggott and Miss Knowledge was Shandelle Armitage. Congratulations girls! I would like to thank Mrs Richards for organising the prizes for me. Also a big thankyou to the sponsors who made the prizes available to the cowgirls.

Caboolture we had 15 eager cowgirls enter. All the girls are to be congratulated on neatly presented workouts and their outstanding appearance. The judges, Wendy Richards and Samantha Daley are to be congratulated on a job well done. It was a close event and in the end the Caboolture Rodeo Princess was won by Nicole Conway. Congratulations Nicole! Thankyou again to the judges and to the cowgirls who made this competition possible, without you we would not have a competition.

There was All Rounder trophies presented at both Rodeo's, with congratulations to the competitors who won these trophics.

I would like to thank Doc Cavanagh for his support at the Caboolture Rodeo. These were two successful and enjoyable Rodeo's, but without the support of our parents, friends, junior committee and our sponsors this would not have been possible.

See you all again at the Rodeo for 1995. Good luck for the next Rodeo. Safe travelling. Keep Rodeoing!

From Your 1995 Rodeo Princess Tamara Jakimowicz

Members Say

Everyone will remember the 10th of June as being one off the most successful Junior Rodeo's held in Australia. With a massive job well done by Doc Cavanagh and helpers to put this Rodeo together in the new indoor complex at the Caboolture Show Rodeo.

With entries bigger than ever before in all events some 42 Barrel Racers, 31 Junior Bull Riders, 11 15-18yr old Bronc Riders, 8 15-18yr old Bareback Riders, 14 Chute Doggers, and the list goes on! The whole day was a mile stone for Rodeo in many ways. The competitors all ranging in age from 6yrs old to 18yrs old, excelled in their chosen events, showed true sportsmanship and professional conduct towards the sport of Rodeo. The entries in the Rodeo Princess was amazing 15 young girls immaculately presented went through a small pattern showing there horsemanshipskills and Rodeo knowledge.

This Rodeo was a highlight to the Caboolture Show as the stands were full all day. The crowd was so enthusiastic towards these kids it just made you proud to be a part of jt!

THOUGHT FOR THE MONTH VOLUNTEERS ARE VIP'S

Australia's great sporting reputation has been attributed to many factors - Our climate, our will to win, our natural talent. But there is one important factor often overlooked, it's the work done each year by thousands of volunteers - volunteer administrators, volunteer helpers in general, volunteer fundraisers.

It has been calculated that there are about 1.45 million volunteers involved in Australian sport and that their contribution is valued at $1.65 billion annually.

Unfortunately, volunteers have often been taken for granted and given little or no training, encouragement or recognition.
...Thank a volunteer today!...

Brett Townsend Interview

CG. "Hi Brett, thanks for taking the time to talk to me.'

Q. How does it feel to leading the Bareback standings half way through the season?

A. "Its a good feeling to know I'm on top and I just hope that I can keep going.

Q. Do you think you will have a fair chance of staying ahead for the rest of the season?

A. "As long as I can keep drawing good stock and I can keep away from injuries and keep feeling fit - yes."

Q. What made you want to ride Bareback horses?

A. It's just an event I wanted to do, it is a very hard event that is never quite perfected and takes quite a bit of skill, to be that little bit better than the others.

How long have you been riding with the NRA for?

A. "Since 1989, I did ride a few bulls as well."

Q. Have you got any set plans for your Rodeo

A. Towin a World Title and towin more Titles than Frank Green."

Q. You drew 'Honky Tonk' 21 times, what was your success rate on him?

"I think it ended up 9/12 - to him."

Q. Would you rate him as the best horse you have ever been on?
A. "Yes."

Q. Why do you think 'Honkey Tonk' had something special about him that appealed to everyone?
A. "He always bucked, he always put 110% into it and he was good to watch.

Q. Who would be the hardest horse to ride that you have ever been on?

A. "Bomba', or Gary McPhee's, I think it was in 1991 at Warwick."

Q. Why? A. "He was just a big, awkward and powerful horse. Q. Do you idolise anyone in the sport of Rodeo?

A. "In Australia, I guess

Frank Green. I think he is the most consistant Bareback rider the country has ever seen."

Q. On to a more serious side sport of Rodeo 'on the map'

more in Australia?

needed sponsorship."

Why?

Q. Do you think there is too much politics in the sport?

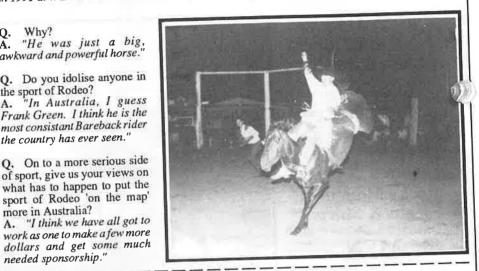

A. "At the moment, yes."

Q. Finally, what do you think you would be doing if you didn't have Rodeo's to look forward to most weekends? Seriously Brett! A. "Umm...Probably I still would be racing motor bikes for fun."

Interveiw by Caroline Green.
