Secretary's Report

Well it looks like we will all get a well deserved but very slight break for the June period!!! There are a few members who have outstanding application forms I will need these sent to head office or handed to me at the Caboolture Rodeo, as the application makes the office run smoother with regards to paying of memberships and for mailing purposes. Please if you are neglecting to send this form do so now, it protects you the member as well!

Committees your Rodeo affiliations must be in, in time for no less than two months of advertising in the Sports News. This guarantees full use of advertising and gives a better competitor outlook for your Rodeo as most competitors plan ahead. Affiliation fees must also be paid prior to printing! Absolutely no late affiliations will be accepted by head office. Thankyou for standing by these guidelines.

Regarding the Caboolture Rodeo, please remember to use the competitors gate only as we cannot refund from the show gates, and there will be one gate list available! The committee will have signs regarding the gate to be used, but if for any reason you do not see these, the gate is at top of the Caboolture Showgrounds on Beerburum Rd. I am looking forward to seeing you all there!

I will keep my report short as you will see we have a few for you all to read. The cowgirls are going to be running a raffle over the next couple of weeks, so please join and help out anyway possible, you have to be in it to win!

Please keep up with your letters regarding the members say, young or experienced we'd like to hear from you.

A note for judges and directors to keep the fine register upto date as I have had a few inquiries on recent fines that I have no records of. Unfortunately I cannot forward these fines if they have not been registered. As Cathy Wood our Central Entries Officer has the fine register book with her at EVERY RODEO! Please remember this is your responsibility and very important to complete the register and hand the fine to the competitor, at the same concerned rodeo.

Girl's Director Report

Thankyou to all Cowgirls who attended our meeting at Dayboro Rodeo. For all those who were unable to attend or not at this rodeo, I'll run through the main things that were discussed.

Firstly Deputy Directors are; Anne Marie Hasselback, Tina Ross and Doc Cavanagh. Number One issue was fund raising. All our problems were solved, when Doc Cavanagh generously donated a "Pig" to us to raffle. Many of you will remember the "Pig in a Barrow" that the Juniors raffled last year. The Junior committee made $1400.00 out of that one raffle; so come on everyone, lets all get involved and see how much we can raise. Proceeds will go towards novice buckles, other special awards and hopefully added prize money at our finals.

A permit and tickets are being organised now. All members will be asked to buck in and do their bit of ticket selling. To Doc, Joy, Troy and Brad - a very big thankyou for your donation.

We have a few trophies donated already. I would like to express my sincere thankyou to these people.

Tracey and Brian Petersons - a gate sign for the all round cowgirls at the finals.

Ann and Ross Weiden - a rug and hood set to the value of $100 - event yet to be chosen.

A couple of our members are busy trying to organise the sponsorship of casual shirts for all who make it to the finals. Also Graham Casey and myself will be donating a trophy for the Novice Barrel Horse. If any of you have any ideas regarding sponsorship or donations, don't let it slip through your fingers.

I have been asked by several members what is the ruling on the wearing of Skull caps. If you are 18 yrs of age or under, you must wear a Skull cap while competing at NRA Rodeos, regardless of Open or Junior Events. This is because of insurance reasons and legal rules and regulations.

Also at the meeting Michelle Purse was presented with a buckle for winning the Novice Breakaway Roper of 94. This was a special donation from the Breakaway Ropers who competed at the finals. Congratulations Michelle, you now have a momento for your roping efforts.

At Widgee Rodeo, June Kennedy took a serious fall while hazing in the Steer Undecorating, Her horse started bucking, throwing her over the front. June was rushed to Gympie Hospital for Xrays and observations. We wish June a speedy and full recovery, hopefully it won't be too long until you are back on board.

This months newsheet has the 1st of the profiles in it. Could members please fill out the NRA Cowgirl Profile & send it into head office along with a photo of yourself competing or otherwise. Photos will be returned to you.

I hope all members of the NRA took the time to read Brian Petersons letter and especially the foot note. Too many take too much for granted. In the meantime enjoy your rodeoing and remember, conduct yourself in a proper manner as to sell our sport both in and out of the arena.

NRA Rodeo Queen Report

At Widgee Rodeo we ran a Rodeo Queen Competition with seven eager participants. All the girls went really well and the scoring was close however in the end the winner was Rebecca Smith. Congratulations to Rebecca who received an open order at "The Tack Room" Saddlery in Gympie and a beautiful sash as her prize.

We've been having discussions with Sharon and Carl Piggott regarding the 1995-96 Rodeo Queen Quest and it's looking to be very exciting! When the criteria and prizes are all definite we will be advertising in the "Sports News" so you can all see what's involved. Any girls who are interested, if you could please see me so we can forward you all the details once everything is settled.

Last Thursday I led the grand Parade at the Ipswich Show on Kathy Hall's lovely chestnut gelding. This was heaps of fun and was to help promote the Rodeo on Saturday Night. Any committees who would like help promoting their Rodeo please contact me, as I'll be only too willing to contribute whatever time I can. Also if any committees would like to run a Rodeo

Queen Competition, please contact me for how to go about it.

Finally I hope everyone is enjoying their Rodeos and driving carefully. Remember ...

"The highest reward for a person's toll is not what they get for it, but what they become by it!"

Yours in Rodeo

1995 Rodeo Queen

NRCA Rodeo Queen

I am writing this letter to introduce myself as the newly crowned National Rodeo Queen of Australia. I was chosen to represent the National Rodeo Council of Australia and its affiliated associations on 8 April 1995 and will do my very best to fulfil my duties over the next twelve months in this very important role.

I would like to thank Debbie & Bob Armitage for attending the presentation evening. I'd also like to thank Patricia Kelly for her time and advice throughout the judging week. It was great to have been able to receive help and support from someone who had experienced it all before.

If you would like me to participate in any promotions or attend Rodeos and various functions I would be only too pleased to do so, but require a months notice in advance. To all those involved with the National Rodeo Association I look forward to meeting you and helping you reach your goals throughout 1995.

Yours in Rodeo
Vicki Whitaker
National Rodeo Queen

1994 NRA Rodeo Queen

With the Rodeo Queen Quest finished this will be my last Rodeo Queen Report with heaps to say. Firstly I would like to congratulate the Queens being Janene Ryan on the 1995 Charity Queen, Joanne Bielenburg on winning the 1995 NRA Rodeo Queen and Vicki Whitaker for taking out the National Rodeo Council of Australia Rodeo Queen as well as the Findraising Queen. The week on the Gold Coast was sensational!

During the week on the Gold Coast we stayed at the Islander Resort where the service was great from the managers and staff. Our first night we had a pyjama party and settled into our rooms. Tuesday we met the press at the Islander Resort with Mega the Bull, we also ventured out to Currumbin Bird Sanctuary and fed the kangaroos and had a tour of all the animals. Wednesday we were off to Movieworld and had breakfast with the stars and spent the day promoting. Thursday was at Dreamworld with more promotions, and by Friday all of us were very tired and wanted to rest. The week went quick with all of us ladies hitting it off together from the start making the week more enjoyable. On behalf of the NRA Board of Directors and myself I would like to thank Sharon and Carl Piggott for this opportunity and wish them all the best in the future on making the Quest more noticeable to the outside world.

I believe our new Queens will do their best this year in presenting their Sport of Rodeo and wish them both all the best. The presentation of these two girls were very stunning on the week on the Gold Coast as well as the Judging at Wiangaree Rodeo. Thankyou to the Wiangaree Rodeo Committee for letting me hold the judging there on the day for the National Rodeo Queen Quest.

Charity Queen Report

Hello Everyone, On the weekend I attended my first three Rodeo's as National Rodeo Association Charity Queen for 1995. What a big weekend it was. Beaudesert, Dayboro and Widgee let me tell you what a great time I had.

Congratulations to Joanne winning the Rodeo Queen title. I know she will do a great job and I am more than happy to be working along side her throughout the hectic year ahead.

Joanne has already told you all about our week away promoting Rodeo, so I won't double up on what she

Members Report

Each weekend and in some cases during the week, rodeos are held around Australia. Whether it be the competitive spirit in us or the loyalty to our sport, the rodeo community is made up of a bunch of people that each individual has something special about themselves. All of this combined is important to keep the rodeo "Family" together to make our sport bigger and better than ever. There is no limit to how far rodeo in Australia can go if everyone is prepared to put themselves out for that little bit extra.

The last weekend was probably the biggest weekend on the calendar, starting with the junior rodeo at Beaudesert then followed by three senior rodeos at Beaudesert, Dayboro and Widgee, all of which required hours of travelling and organization. We

Thankyou

The Beaudesert Rodeo Club would sincerely like to thank all those who volunteered their services to make the Junior Rodeo an enjoyable

During my year of reign I had a wonderful time meeting people and promoting the sport and most of all doing the Grand Entries. I may have had a difficult time getting competitors in the Grand Entries, but the ones that stuck by throughout the year in which I won't name them all as I do not want to miss anyone accidentally. I would like to thank you all for your support. I believe there is nothing more professional at our Rodeo than giving it a finishing touch with a Grand Entry. This way the spectators can put names with faces and see how well we all can work together as a team. There is one person I would like to thank specially for being at every maximum point Rodeo Grand entries and never once hesitated to say no. Thank you Kerry Donald for your full support throughout my year of Rodeo Queen. I also have a few other people I wish to thank for their support, being the Cavanagh's for the loan of "Grey" or as Joy would say "Gee Gee" and to Tina and Trevor Ross for the loan of "Danny" and Chris and Stuart Grayson for the loan of their Pick-up Horses as well as Kathy and Kerry Hall for the loan of their beautiful Paint Horses and the lovely Chestnut Horse, I may have not thanked you all enough without all of your support. That means a great deal to me riding these lovely horses throughout the year. You may have noticed most of my report is thanking everyone for their support as this is my last report and I do not want to miss anyone.

For the past 4 years I started with the NRA Central Entries Officer and by doing this I got the chance in meeting a lot of the Competitors and Committees from there I moved up to the Secretary and then had the pleasure working with our President Bill Urquart and the Executive Board then I won the 1994 Rodeo Queen and had the chance to do more for the sport of has already said except to say I had a great week. Thanks to Sharon Piggot and everyone who spent time with us during the week.

Now I would like to take the opportunity to thank Troy Cavanagh & Darren for letting me use their horses.

Thankyou must also go out to Mary Ann & Eddy Powell who helped me more than they know, spending time with you both has inspired me. Spending time with achievers can only lead to achievement yourself, I can assure you this is happening to me... Thankyou.

must all give ourselves a pat on the back for our efforts and an extra thought for the officials and those who helped during the weekend - Well Done.

There is one special group of people we must also make a note of. These are the spectators, without them we would feel lonely and isolated. Not everyone would realize but some of the public follow the sport as closely as we do. There are more and more asking for newsletters and dates etc, at every rodeo. This is something that must be encouraged.

Remember, wherever we go and whatever we do we are walking advertisements for the sport of rodeo so be proud of it and keep the image clean. We will only get as much out of rodeo as we put in to it.

and successful one and to all competitors who came and supported the Beaudesert Big Bucks Charity Bull & Bronc Spectacular, an exciting

Rodeo. You all may think that I am glad to be out of it all now but one thing I can say out of it all I got the chance to meet you all and hope to still keep the friendly relationship with everyone as I did when I was part of the NRA.

I have had a couple of competitors say to me "bet you are happy to be finished the Rodeo Queen." Personally myself I can now concentrate on my new event but in the same token I very much enjoyed my reign as Rodeo Queen and will certainly miss it. I have only one thing to say to that "You only get out what you put in!" and I certainly put a lot into Rodeo Queen and I certainly got a lot out of it. One thing I enjoyed was hearing from the competitors that is nice to see a smile always on my face.

I have one more special thank you for Bill and Dulcie Urquart. Dulcie for her time and effort with helping out for the songs in the Grand Entries and her opinion and Bill's full support in everything and specially the last few weeks. Thank you both I very much appreciate and look forward to working with you both in the future.

Remember ...
"Without our spectators we wouldn't be here today!"
Safe travelling.

Yours in Rodeo
Patricia Kelly
1994 NRA Rodeo Queen

Evette Atkins a big thankyou to you for your effort in obtaining the prizes I will receive. Also for all your help last year for singing the National Anthem at Wiangree Rodeo.

Finally I would like to thank Clayton and my family for keeping me going over the past year.

Safe Travelling
See you at the next Rodeo.
Janene Ryan.

It is also great to see competitors from one event having a go at other events. eg. Dale Jones in the Team Roping, even if Dale did cop a ribbing from the shutes when he missed his steer at Dayboro - what else could you expect from his fellow Bullriders.

Also Brian Lovett in the Steer Wrestling, Mexican Poker whatever may take his fancy for that weekend.

We have also seen Bill Church on the odd bull recently. Luke Richards has started off his Steer Wrestling career well as has Brooke Frahm in the Steer Undecorating. Keep up the good work.

As his pony stamps the bog
His lessons surely learned
His fate is now to come
And even if he loses
His heart has surely won.

The barrel race is over
And the break for tea long gone
His event has started
And the list is moving on
Through champions and blood a new
They chase and fall
A steer is to the ground
Five seconds that is all

Then up they rise with backs of mud
And to the gate they slowly wander
Reliving every moment
Nothing to do but sit and ponder
In a moment of glory
The result, the final out come
The stories not over
'Til the last, the final run

As into the box he rides
For the very first time in his life
His heart beats fiercely
Anticipation cuts deeper than the knife
The haser's set in place
The steer is kicking out
He nods his head
And gives the ready shout

The steer released
His horse jumps forward
The time has come
To venture his reward
And there beside the beast
He leans and in his saddle lifts
As by the horns he takes his steer
Within his mighty fists

But I shall not revel
Just how this story ends
For win or lose
It just depends
On lots of luck
And skill and dare
But he will always win
As our hearts for him will always care.
