Executive Director Marketing Report

When I accepted the position as Marketing Director there was very little of 1995 left. However I set myself the task of obtaining sponsorship for our championship Trophy saddles.

We are looking for sponsors of the Trophy saddles again this year, and should you know of anyone who may be interested, please do not hesitate to contact myself, so that I can have a presentation package forwarded to them.

1995 Sponsors for the Eddy Powell made Trophy Saddles were; MAVERICKS -All round Cowboy Champion Trophy Saddle TOP HAND SADDLERY -Calf Roping Champion Trophy Saddle EDDY POWELL - Barrel Racing Champion Trophy Saddle.

Thanks must be extended to Joanne Johnson for obtaining the sponsorship of a saddle for the 1995 Rodeo Queen from -HORSEMAN'S TRADING POST.

I cannot stress enough how each and everyone of us must support our Sponsors. We need to look after these businesses to ensure further sponsorship for our sport. You can play a major roll in this by considering our Sponsors first when next you require equipment. Sponsorship is not for the Associations wealth-it is for you, the Cowboys and Cowgirls!!

It has been great to hear the feed back from our 1995 Sponsors how individual Cowboys and Cowgirls have personally contacted the sponsor responsible for their award and thanked them. Some Cowboys and Cowgirls have actually gone to the trouble of forwarding photographs of themselves and their prizes awarded to the relevant sponsors. The result has overwhelmed those Sponsors and certainly aid in endeavouring to clinch their support for 1996. Thanks to those of you who have taken the time to do so.

One such result from Mark Knox forwarding a photograph to TOP HAND SADDLERY, was that Top Hand Saddlery contacted me and said "I want in for 1996" Thanks Mark for your support. Jo and Graham Ewing proprietors of Top Hand Saddlery have become huge Rodeo fans after seeing the excitement and thrill at Kooralbyn. Top Hand Saddlery is basically a Wholesale establishment, but Rodeo Equipment can be bought from their distributors at extremely competitive prices. Please support Top Hand when next you need Rodeo Equipment. See advertisement in Newsletter for a contact number.

Other Sponsors worth mentioning for last years titles were certainly all the sponsors who supported our Cowgirl Titles, so please lend them your support also. The Cowgirl Sponsors can be found in December/January and February Newsletter.

Our largest support for 1996 is JIM BEAM who have become major Sponsors to run a "JIM BEAM SILVER BUCKLE RODEO SERIES" over 10 nominated Rodeo 's.

At the conclusion of the Final Jim Beam series Rodeo, presentations by Jim Beam to Champions will take place.

There are a total of 9 Champion 'Bob Berg' Trophy Buckles to be awarded. These buckles will be displayed by the Jim Beam logo as well as other details of the event awarded. These buckles are of the highest quality for which Bob Berg is noted for, and in the same calibre as the end of year buckles. They certainly are worth competing for.

Look for the advertisement this newsletter for details of events and Rodeo 's. Please note the special rules that apply to this Series.

Grafton Rodeo has been chosen as the final Rodeo, and to stage the presentation because of the committees willingness to assist, and the large crowd that this Rodeo draws. Grafton Rodeo committee is making arrangements to have television media at this Rodeo. We need as many of you there as possible to support this committee and Jim Beam, and we ask that you mark Grafton Rodeo as an important date of your calendar. The more Cowboys and Cowgirls present the more prestigious the presentation will be. Remember we all need to support our Rodeo Committees and sponsors to our fullest.

Those who will have won the Championship buckles must be present to collect their trophy Buckle at Grafton Rodeo and presentations. If winners are not present to collect - Their hold on the title will be forfeited to the next highest points earner.

1995 Champions will be asked to visit the Jim Beam VIP Booth at Grafton (Naturally at a suitable time) to mingle with the Jim Beam sponsors and avail themselves for photographs. -

On a different note - The NRA Cowgirls deserve a pat on the back for their fund raising efforts in 1995. The Cowgirls used some of this money to contribute towards the electronic timers, and yet still the Cowgirls account remains quite financial. Good on ya Girls!! A silver lotto draw helped contribute to these funds and on behalf of the Cowgirls I would like to sincerely thank all of those who supported this fund raising effort. The winners of the draw were; Joanne Bate...Jo Taplin... Penny Rayment... Chicken Wales... Helen Nalder... Kim Clarke... Mark Knox... Joy Cavanagh... Karen Roberts... Gary and Mary Banbury (G. & M. Rugs).

TEAMROPING event director Darren Milburn has a fund raiser started with funds going toward Team Roping at more Rodeo 's. So come on Team Ropers lend a hand to Darren and help sell tickets. CONTACT Darren Milburn under Team Roping Director, (inside front of Newsletter) for more information.

Before I sign off, just a reminder..... Without support of Sponsors we cannot maintain the standard of awards given, no other Rodeo Association in Australia gives as many Trophy Saddles as the N.R.A.

SO REMEMBER!!! SUPPORT OUR SPONSORS!!!

Good Luck to you all with the JIM BEAM SERIES. Eddy Powell EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR MARKETING

Secretary's Report

The weather is getting cooler, and points are hotting up! We are inventing a new system for the points in the office, I think it will work better for everyone. Because of the new system I will be printing the NRA 1995 points in the May issue, and everyone will know where they stand for the Pro Masters 1996. And if there are any problems we can have them sorted out before the Pro Masters and have them corrected for future issues. Any queries with your points PLEASE remember to put in writing! No responsibility will be taken for check ups over the phone...

CANCELLATIONS and ENTRIES cannot go through the Head Office please leave any messages to do with these on the central entries Answering Machine, so that Cathy can do a follow up!!! If you need to check that everything is fine, remember you can speak with Cathy on the entry days and times, to confirm.

PRO MASTERS UPDATE; I am receiving some inquiries with regards to the Pro Masters, YES I have a date... The Pro Masters will be held on August, 16th and 17th, for 1996. Any problems with your attendance for this date please let the office know now! This is all I could have for now, but it's a start. When I have more information I will let you all know. Please watch next month's issue for the points standings for 1995.

I am looking forward to Rosewood Rodeo and don't forget the NRA/SEQRRA reunion on the 6th April, commencing at 7pm.

I am actually lost for words, imagine that...

We are still receiving Memberships. Remember to always send an Application form with your membership. I have in front of me, a piece of paper that has two names only written on it, with a cheque for their memberships! Which leaves me with two extra newsletters this month as I have no address to end them or their cards. No doubt I will hear from them down the track, when they are asked to produce their membership cards, or they decide to ring and inquire why they haven't received their Newsletter and do not know where any Rodeo's are!!! You would be surprised with the amount of memberships that look exactly the same...Even just a cheque with no identification...There have also been a large amount of addresses that are not the same as on the mailing list. Either because these people have not changed their address, or have put in a change of address form with the post office so did not worry to change it with NRA. The application form is for your benefit as well as NRA's. It is a record for you, with regards to your address, receipt numbers etc. And a record for NRA to look into if any discrepancies with your memberships.

Advertisements for the newsletter are welcome, but in future the ruling on No accounts will be enforced. Along with any advertisement to be in writing, and the deadline to be the 15th of the month prior, to the next newsletter issue. We are all wanting our newsletter early and not following the deadline is not allowing this to always be possible, along with holding an issue back because an account is not received. If the deadline and the account are not adhered to your advertisement will not appear in the newsletter for that month! Please ensure this is not the case...

Points are only for financial members and will only be counted as of when you pay your annual membership. Members that competed after 31st January, and did not have their memberships up to date will not have those points counted. You can not compete after 31st January unless you have renewed your membership. Even when you resign you are not to compete as a Day Member for three months. Points earned as a day member will not be added to points after your annual membership is paid.

CATCH YOU ALL AT ROSEWOOD RODEO REUNION SATURDAY 6TH APRIL AND ROSEWOOD RODEO SUNDAY 7TH APRIL 1996.

Rodeo Queen Report

Hi Everyone,

The countdown is on for the Rodeo Queen Quest judging on the 11th of May at Movie World. I'll be picking up the beautiful Bob Berg buckle in the next few days which was very kindly donated by Spike Johnstone who has been sponsoring the buckle for a number of years. Spike is a hard man to track down, so if you're reading this, "THANK YOU" from myself and all past and future rodeo queens! There are no rodeos on the night of presentation, so anyone who wants to come along please contact the Rodeo Council for details on what will be a big night.

The Beenleigh Rodeo held our last Queen Competition which was once again hotly contested. A BIG thank you to the judges Fiona Tranter and Debbie Herbst who did a great job in a limited time span! Jo Taplin decided to add an element of "Roughstock" to the Queen Competition with the help of my VERY naughty horse, Scoota. He decided the noise, lights and all the other action was too much to handle and I apologise to Jo - I honestly did NOT think he would do this in the Queen Competition! - and as for bronc contractors the highest bidder can have him! Seriously now, even though Jo showed excellent style in the saddle bronc (sorry Jo, I couldn't resist!), Patty Kelly also put in a great effort and was announced the winner. Congratulations Patty as the competition was stiff and you did very well!!

I would like everyone who enters Queen Competitions to remember this is FUN!! If you're feeling nervous before the competition, try to relax with the usual trick of breathing deeply and concentrate on warming up your horse properly - to keep your mind focused - and as funny as this may sound, sing!! It's hard to be tense when you're singing along to Garth Brooks!! Also, remember: all you have to do is answer some questions about rodeo that anyone who reads the newsletter will know, have a chat to some friendly people, and do a workout that you would do any day at home! If you put in a bit of extra effort and turn your horse out as best as you can, keep your gear clean and wear your classiest western wear, the presentation part will be a breeze! Something that I found helpful was to make everything SLOW (totally opposite to Barrel Racing!!) If you take your time with your workout than it is going to look a lot neater and precise and you won't look slow, just confident and relaxed. If the judge asks for a flying change and your horse isn't capable of it, don't worry about explaining this to the judge, simply do the change that your horse is capable of doing neatly. As far as I'm concerned - as are most judges - a perfect simple change is a lot better than a messy flying change. Of course the number one thing to remember in any Rodeo Queen type situation, no matter what happens SMILE!!! I'm sure mine has slipped on occasion but you'll find that smiling saves you most of the time, after all this is FUN!!!

Don't forget to come along to the Rodeo Reunion at Rosewood on the 6th of April. I have donated a basket of Nutri-Metics goodies, valued at $200, which the Queen Quest entrants will be raffling on the night and the next day at the rodeo. For the small charge of $5.00 to get in, it should be a great night with heaps to drink, good country and rock music and rodeo videos from over the years, including Johnson Bros Bulls from 1986 to current and a fashion parade featuring all the latest gear from Horsemen's Trading Post. All past and present members and friends are invited, so come along and help support our entrants in the Rodeo Queen Quest and have a good time doing it!

I haven't been to any rodeos lately, as a few days after Beenleigh I was diagnosed with having Ross River Fever, which is in epidemic proportions in South East Queensland at the moment. The main drama with this, is it effects your joints like chronic arthritis! So I find myself hobbling around with what feels like two broken ankles and I have very sore hands. As you can imagine I haven't been able to ride, which has been driving me crazy! So Scoota hasn't had any work to get the buck out of him and King is getting very fat. I tried to ride King yesterday and he's feeling so good he tried to buck, Help! Anyway, wonky ankles or I'm going to start riding again, so hopefully I'll be back on the rodeo scene soon'!

A big thank you to Christine Pennell who organised the Grand Entry at Stanthorpe and Lindsey Speedy for taking my flags and to all those who participated.

Yours in rodeo
