NRA Rodeo Queen Report

Hi everyone!

The Finals are over and we're all getting fired up for another exciting year of Rodeo. Congratulations to all title winners and to everyone who competed as most of you showed what true sportsmanship is all about.

The horsemanship phase of the 1996 Queen Quest has been completed and I felt that this went well. Miss Horsemanship will be answered at Movie World 1996. As it was the first year the judging has been done this way I would really appreciate comments from people on how they thought it went. I worked really hard to make sure everything ran smoothly and except for the Bull escaping in the middle of Sundays judging (That showed how fast we could all move! thought it did. A big thank you to the judges, Rick Tranter, Trish Greenham and Shane Richards on a difficult job, well done!! Also thank you to the pencillers Wendy Richards, Janene Ryan and Vicki Whitaker. Vicki is the Rodeo Council Rodeo Queen and stayed with us the week before the Kooralbyn to help with Shopping Centre promotions etc. Vicki also worked tirelessly helping with the horses and numerous other things during the finals. A BIG Thank you to Vicki...

The First Rodeo Queen Competition for 1996 will be held at Hervey Bay Rodeo and then onto Alstonville Rodeo. So don't have too big a New Year and be ready for a great year of Queen Competitions !!! I will be taking the 1996 Rodeo Queen Saddle for you all to see and keep you motivated.

Remember that Horseman's Trading Post are our very generous sponsor and they would love to see all Queen Quest Entrants. So don't forget to drop in and show Trish and Sue your appreciation!

On November 26, Boonah held the "Back to the Bush" weekend including a street parade which NRA were invited to participate in. Thank you to Matthew and Lindsey Speedy, Gary and Linda Brennan, Lynda Johnson and Mick Johnson who all got dressed up and rode with me in the Parade, on what was a very hot day! We were a popular item and even got in the Boonah paper.

Lastly Thank you to everyone who participated in the Grand Entry - Which we won't ever be late for again, Mr Johnson! -at Gympie and Kooralbyn. I think overall it went really well. A special thank you to Sandy Gilchrist who has always helped me without hesitation.

Now I'm all "Thank You's" out! See you all, hope everyone had a good Christmas and not too wild New Year!!

Yours in Rodeo
Joanne Johnson

Rodeo Princess Report

Hi everyone, well this is my second duty as the 1996 Rodeo Princess. My first was to present all the trophies to the champions after the conclusion of the Jnr Finals which was held at the Caboolture Indoor Arena on the 19th of October. On behalf of all the Juniors I'd like to thank all the sponsors, the Cavanagh Family and all the workers who managed to make this another great day for us kids.

At 10.30am we were saddled up and ready to start our finals. Everyone excelled in the events contested to show that Jnr Rodeo in Australia is growing. At the end of the day the presentation ceremony took place which the weather tried to upset. Congratulations to the All Rounders who in their Age groups were Casey Clarke, Tamara Jackimowicz and Brad Cavanagh, well done to all that competed for such a great days effort, the skills and ability which were displayed tells us the open ranks have something to look out for as we move into their competitions.

The Princess Competition was held with 8 girls ready to do their workouts and tell the judges of their knowledge on the sport. Each girl was well presented and their horses were the same. As the competition drew to a close awards were given out to Miss Horsemanship- Crystal Norton, Miss Personality- Yvonne Beezley, Miss Appearance- Shandelle Armitage, Miss Knowledge- Suzanne Brooks and the runner up was Kalana Norton. The judges for the competition were Mrs Frahm and Fiona Tranter. I would like to thank them for such a great job also I'd like to thank Steve Sutherland for allowing me to use his terrific horse, Denver, Lisa Dibetta for helping me practice, Grandma for all her years of help and support, Sam Daley, Ann-Marie Hasselbach, Joanne Johnson, Linda Norton and Mrs Urquhart for playing Garth Brooks during my workout. I'd like to give a special thanks to Mum, Dad & Myles for all their support & encouragement since my rodeo career has began & Tamara for always being my friend and sidekick; and a special thanks to Denver.

Look Forward to seeing all the juniors at the next Rodeo.

Keep Rodeoing

COWGIRL OF THE MONTH

-FEBRUARY-

NAME; Suzanne Brooks DOB; 03/08/78

LIVES; Caboolture FAMILY MEMBERS; Dad Ted, Mum Irena

OCCUPATION; Just completed yr 12 - now I do a little bit of everything; Riding lessons, hoof trimming etc.

FIRST INTRODUCED TO RODEO; Through the Wallace family which led to me spectating at Bribie Island Rodeo. Right then I knew I had to be a part of it...

FIRST EVENT CONTESTED; First Rodeo event contesting was Barrel Racing but started off in showjumping and endurance.

PEOPLE WHO HAVE HELPED YOU THE MOST; My dad-for travelling so many miles to Rodeo's.

MEMBER OF WHAT ASSOCIATION; NRA

EVENTS CONTESTED; Barrel Race and Steer Undecorating

MOST MONEY WON IN SINGLE EVENT; Not quite as much as Brooke Frahm but enough to cover costs!!!

NO. OF TITLES WON; Well it's not really a title but I won the Steer Undecorating Aggregate at the Finals '95'.

HORSE; Cindy, Kulali, Kunama and Geronimo.

BREED; Cindy is the mare I use to Rodeo on and she is an Arabian x Ah/Stockhorse.

HIGHLIGHT OF RODEO CAREER; No particular highlights - I love every moment of it.

AMBITIONS; To travel to the U.S. and successfully compete in all the roughstock events as well as barrel racing, roping and anything else they'll let me do!!

DISLIKES; The pettiness that exists between many of the competitors - we should all stand together the "real" cowboy way. Remember, everyone has their own axe to grind, including you !

WHAT WOULD YOU LIKE TO SEE CHANGE IN RODEO IN AUSTRALIA? More media and t.v. coverage but of course to achieve this we need the finances - however, I'm sure in the long run it would be worth it with larger crowds and more sponsorship being the result.
