Secretary's Report

Central entries is starting to run smoother, thanks to everyone for their patience!! The Central Entries Officers on the day are working out fine, and have not bought any complaints to the office. I must stipulate to members when you nominate you must ring (074) 991700 and mail must go to P.O. Box 1477, CABOOLTURE QLD 4510 and you must state novice status, if you do not nominate as a novice no matter your reason, you will not receive novice status for the Rodeo concerned at ALL...

When you nominate the Central entries officer will repeat exactly the same information that has been printed, if novice has not been noted it will not be repeated. You may then ask for it to be corrected. COMPETITORS when ringing to nominate please have all your details ready and not sort events out whilst on phone, as you all well know how busy the line is the less we hold it up the more chance someone else will have to get through! Remember it might be YOU!! If you have queries you can ring my mobile A/H 015 720040 almost anytime... CABOOLTURE Rodeo was a success, the decision to hold the Rodeo over two days proved to be successful from a spectators point of view as well as the competitors. As usual everyone was run of their feet, and enjoying it!!! Thanks to all those who volunteered to help in the canteen, all the workers seen in the canteen were volunteers...

Well my son and daughter had a touch of Rodeo fever, Scott went well around the barrels along with Aunty Patty, and when Tania's turn came "Banjo" decided he wanted to enter the Saddle bronc...once Tania returned to the saddle, it was left to Aunty Patty to run some more barrels!! So special Thanks to Patty!!! Video's are on sale, and are available from Mr Jim Stewart of the Junior and Senior Caboolture Rodeo, and is a must for all parents, I already have my copy!!! Jim sells and video's a wide range of Rodeo's. There is an advertisement for Jim in this issue of the Newsletter... COWGIRLS - Kim Clarke would like all the girls with Novice horses to contact her either at the next Rodeo or at home, thank you. Applications and Outstanding accounts are really shaping up! Thanks to all members who are co-operating.

Rodeo Queen Report

It is with great pleasure I write this report, my first as the 1996 NRA Rodeo Queen & 1996 NRCA Runner-Up Rodeo Queen. Congratulations to Jo Taplin who was judged our Runner-Up NRA Rodeo Queen and Linda Norton who won Miss Horsemanship. Well done ladies. I look forward to working with you over the next 12 months and hope to see Linda in a few Grand Finals.

I would like to take this opportunity to say thank you to the Sponsors of the NRA Rodeo Queen Quest. Horsemans Trading Post who donated a wonderful trophy saddle. And of course Spike Johnstone who each year donates a beautiful Bob Berg Buckle. Without the support of our sponsors their would be no Quest. I look forward to helping Trish and Eric with promotions at the Equestrian Trade Show in Sydney and the Brisbane Exhibition.

On behalf of Linda Norton, Jo Taplin and myself a big thank you to Joanne Johnson. Joanne was only too happy to offer support and guidance throughout the past 6 months, especially while on the Gold Coast during judging week. Jo also donated a beautiful basket of Grace Cosmetics as part of the prize for the NRA Queen. I will try my best to represent the Association with as much grace, dignity and enthusiasm as Joanne did. I wish her all the best in the future with her Barrel Racing.

Now on a less happier note - I know there are some sceptics that believe I should not be riding, let alone competing in Rodeo because of my injuries (which I sustained 10 years ago in a riding accident at the Brisbane Royal Show). The biggest hurdle I have to face is not my disability but the ignorance of others. Because nobody can see a wheelchair or a walking stick they are less understanding of other disabilities. There are thousands of people in this world who suffer from various forms of physical disabilities caused either by accidents or disease. Horse riding is one form of therapy which many of these people benefit from, it helps with balance, rebuilding muscles that are not used anymore as a result of injury, and most importantly with self-esteem. (As a matter of fact Horse events has now been included in the Para-Olympics) I am proud to compete as, and represent Disabled Riders. I am even more proud to acknowledge the fact that Rodeo is one of Riding For Disabled major supporters, with some of the funds raised in the NRCA Rodeo Queen Quest go directly to Riding For Disabled. I may never win a Barrel Race or ride like Martha Josey, but I am out there having a go which is what Rodeo is all about.

I would also like to acknowledge and thank those people who have helped, supported and made me feel welcome into the sport of Rodeo. Thank you to Cathy & Dave Woods, the Hart Family, and Lyn & Bill Dabinett in their search for suitable mount for me (no easy task); to Debbie Armitage who I nag considerably for help; Kerry & Cathy Hall; Liz O'Halloran; the Piggott Family; Bill & Dulcie Urquhart and all those people who have made me feel welcome and offered help or advice. THANKS.

I look forward to the following year as NRA Promotion Queen and look forward to working with all the committees in a bid to attracting a bigger and better crowd to their Rodeo. I do hope that ALL COMPETITORS will support me this year with the Grand Entries. They are a lot of fun and it does give your horse a chance to look at the arena. And Roughstock guys, well it gives the girls a chance to look at those Wranglers!
Yours in Rodeo VICKI REARDON

Rodeo Princess Report

On the 8th of June we held a Jnr Rodeo at the Caboolture Rodeo Grounds. As the day got rolling the competition started to heat up it showed that every competitor was striving to do their best. The Princess competition was as big as Rosewood with 12 very eager girls wanting to win the prize. My two very good judges were the 1996 Rodeo Queen Vicki Rearden and the 1995 Rodeo Princess Tamara Jackimowicz and after talking to both the judges all the way through the competition I saw just how hard judging is especially with the way each of the girls presented themselves and their horses. The overall winner was Lisa Ross, both herself and her horse "Danny" were presented beautifully and really did stand out. I would like to thank every person that went into the Grand Entry and again Shandelle Armitage for singing Advance Australia Fair. Once again thank you Doc, Troy, and Brad Cavanagh and Darren Milburn for setting up the arena and working so tirelessly throughout the day the juniors really appreciate your assistance and to all other workers a big thank you to you for all your help, without you the junior rodeo's would find it very hard to run so efficiently. All

Round Champions Casey Clark, Kalana Norton, and Luke Gall. Thank you to stock contractors for the use of your stock as once again the stock proved a challenge to all competitors. And lastly a big WELLDONE to all competitors on the day. The juniors were well represented and we can hold our heads high among the open competitors. Safe Travelling

MANY THANKS

Bryan and Marlene Kofoed of B & B Rodeo's wish to thank this years NRA Rodeo Queen, Vicki Rearden, for all her help in promoting the recent B & B Rodeo held at the Newtown Rugby League Grounds, Toowoomba. Also for the publicity she was able to get in our local paper, Toowoomba Chronicle. It was an honour and a privilege to have met and spoken with Vicki. She is a very lovely young lady, and we congratulate her on winning this years title

BOGUS BUCKLE

As a young header, but aspiring still,
I roped with a heeler with twice of my skill.

If we were flagged out or didn't do fine,
I couldn't blame bronc, cause the fault would be mine.

But I ducked one, one day, to be 6 flat or less,
And bronc threw a hoop that was mostly a mess.

I mentioned to bronc as we rode to the gate,
That I had been thinking and planning of late.

I'd save some money from calves that I'd sold,
And buy me a buckle of silver and gold!

"Champion Header at Salinas" the engraving would say,
Perhaps I'd attract better heelers that way!

Bronc barely paused as he was no dunce,
"I think you should try it, it's bound to work once"

All Rodeo competitors please note, if you have an injury at a NRA Rodeo please obtain an inj/occ. form from the Central Entries office and have it signed by an attending Director and a medical officer on the day, and have the form faxed through the very next working day to NRA 074) 957384 before 3.00pm. As any late claims or claims not faxed through will not be accepted by the insurer.

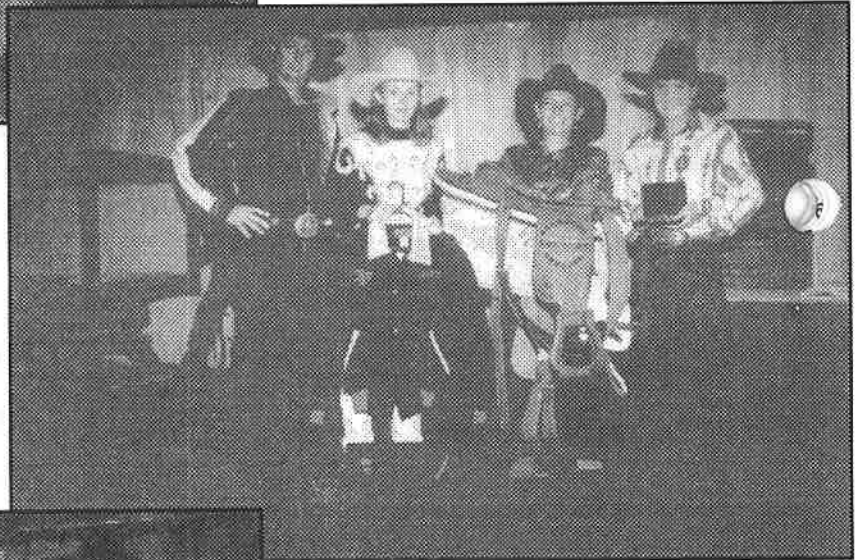

Minor or Serious please follow this simple procedure as it can save alot of future stress. Injuries phoned through to the office, will have all care taken but no responsibility... If you see a competitor/friend injured to the extent that they may not be able or even thinking of an inj/occ form please feel free to obtain and have it filled to the best of your knowledge for them, I am sure this will be much appreciated.
