Rodeo Queen Report

Hi everyone,

First, a very big THANKYOU must go to Trish & Eric from Horseman's Trading Post and AETA for giving me the opportunity to attend the Australian Equestrian Trade show in Sydney last month, in the official capacity of Rodeo Queen. It was a great public awareness exercise for Rodeo, on both a national and international level. The highlight of my trip was attending a cocktail party being held by Lady Fairfax and Zilco industries. I was extremely proud to attend the party as the NRA Rodeo Queen and even more proud to represent our association and sport amongst such dignitaries.

The trade show was a great opportunity for me to meet some of our sponsors for this years titles and to also encourage & develop new ones. Thankyou very much to Wrangler Thomas Cook who have generously supplied me with a wrangler jacket to wear. And thankyou also to Off the Top Clothing who have kindly supplied 3 beautiful denim and leather shirts — one each for a male and female member to wear while competing and one for our president Bill Urquhart. Don't forget to consider our sponsors next time you shop == they are all human like you or me and need to make a living in order to survive. Would Rodeo survive without Sponsorship???

My appreciation and thanks to Judy Gough who allowed me to use her lovely horse Doogie for the grand entry at Woodenbong. Thankyou to Jo Fisher and Julie who had the unenviable task of judging the Woodenbong Rodeo Queen. After much deliberation, Tamara Jackimowicz was our winner. It is great to see our younger competitors showing interest in this event, as they are our up-and coming Rodeo Queens and what better way to gain valuable experience.

Beenleigh Rodeo saw Joanne Taplin, our Runner up Queen for 1996, take over the reins in my absence. Thanks Jo, you did a great job! And thankyou to those competitors who showed Jo their support for the grand entry. Congratulations to Rebecca Farrel who won Beenleigh Rodeo Queen.

Thankyou to Quonna Ross who braved the icy conditions to help at Warwick B&B with the grand entry. I know the weather conditions were far from perfect but it was great to see you and your horse tough it out. I am sure the committee appreciated the effort. Don't forget, if there is a Rodeo on in your area and you would like to be involved with any promotions, just ask. As you can appreciate it is hard for me to contact everyone to find interested parties, so either contact me at home evenings or see me at the next Rodeo.

For those ladies who are wanting to run for 1997 NRA Rodeo Queen or NRCA Queen, please make sure you notify me before to much longer. The year is going by so fast, so don't waste any time in getting started. For those of you who are worried, for what ever reason, about entering the quest—don't be. The Queen Quest is a fantastic opportunity to build self confidence, meet new people and conquer many fears. And, I can guarantee, whether you are crowned Queen or not, it will be one of the most exciting and memorable times in your life. Life is what you make it—have the heart and desire to make your dreams come true!

Yours in rodeo
Vicki Reardon

Suzanne Brooks Report

TO ALL INTERESTED (and not so interested) MEMBERS!!!

As you are all aware the Annual General Meeting is nearly upon us once more and with this comes the need to make important decisions regarding the future of our sport and association, including the need to vote for our directors for the following season/s. I have given this matter alot of thought and I, Suzanne Brooks, strongly believe I can be of service to the National Rodeo Association and its members in the role of NRA Junior Director.

Should I be voted in I would do my best by all members in a fair and honest manner and put much effort into the encouragement promotion of our junior competitors - the future of our sport. Taking a leaf from Kym Clarkes book (and what a wonderful job she has done), I would strive to raise funds and gather sponsorship for extra Junior awards for encouragement and achievements. I think it would be wonderful to try and establish funds to supply a trophy for Junior All-round and an encouragement award at every maximum point Rodeo.

I would look into the running of Junior Rodeo Schools and also the running of more Junior Rodeos/Jackpots and would always make myself available to anyone with problems or queries regarding Junior events or Rodeo in general whether it be at a Rodeo or over the phone. As I attend approximately 90% of all N.R.A.-sanctioned Rodeos, I will more often than not be available, to, any seeking to solve a problem or ask a question.

I have been a member of the NRA for three years now and although that is not long, in the comparatively short time I have been involved, Rodeo has managed to become the most important facet of my life and its future, is of the greatest concern to me. I would appreciate your consideration of me, Suzanne Brooks, when you cast your vote for NRA Junior Director.

Yours in Rodeo Suzanne Brooks

Shane Sollitt's Report

Titles and Edited Video Tapes of NRA events - St. Vincents Toowoomba, Mary Valley and Kenilworth Rodeo plus selected ~ other events in the near future are available from Shane Sollitt on 074) 951747. Tapes are $25.00 plus approx. $7 extra for C.O.D. Many thanks to Bill Urquhart, Dene Barram, Doc Cavanagh, all the riders and our Rodeo Queen who have been interviewed etc. for their much appreciated assistance to date.

Any how smile when you see the camera. Yours in Rodeo Shane Sollitt.

Grafton Comm.

The Grafton committee would like to state that the Jim Beam Series withdrawal from the Tooheys Jacaranda Rodeo, was through no fault of the Committee and was due only to Sponsorship controversy.
