Rodeo Queen Report

Wendy Eisentrager

Firstly I would like to introduce myself. My name is Wendy Eisentrager. Originally from Longreach, I am currently living in a little town outside Warwick called Allora (the best little town on the downs) and working at the Warwick Bacon Company.

On May 17th, I was crowned the N. R. A. Rodeo Queen, Runner-up N. R. C. A. Queen and N. R. A. Miss Horsemanship. Sonya Lockhart was the N. R. A. Rodeo Queen Runner-up and Heidi Sullivan, Miss Congeniality. I urge any girl who is thinking of running for N. R. A. Queen to go for it. Our week at the Gold Coast judging was excellent. We went to Frozen World, Sea World, Palm Meadows, Jet Skiing and the Shooters Bar.

At Sea World for presentation night, I won a beautiful Buckle, again donated by Spike and Judy Johnson. Spike has been donating this buckle for the Rodeo Queen for 18 years - a special thank you to you. I was also presented with a Barrel Racing Saddle donated by Troy and Cindy Welsh and Splinters Saddlery - thank you. I would also like to thank Crazy Horse for their vouchers, greatly appreciated, and to Beenleigh Saddlery for their saddle cloth, which will go beautifully with my new saddle.

My first Rodeo as Rodeo Queen was Beenleigh. Vicky Reardon, our N. R. A. 1996 Rodeo Queen, lead the Grand Entry. Our crowns were exchanged and I was welcomed as the 1997 Rodeo Queen. I would especially like to thank Vicki from everyone. Vicki did an excellent job, a position she took very seriously and professionally. I hope I can carry on in the same way. Thank you Vicki.

Beenleigh was my first Rodeo Queen Competition, where we had 5 well presented entrants - Kelly Hanby was the runner up and Sharon Blazley was the Beenleigh Rodeo Queen. Caboolture Rodeo had Rodeo Queen and Rodeo Princess competitions. The judges had a very difficult task with 17 entrants. After a very hard decision, Lisa Ross was the runner up and Tamara Jakimowicz was the Rodeo Princess. The Rodeo Queen had another big line up with 12 girls. Karen McIntyre was the Rodeo Queen and Judy McDonald the runner up, with an encouragement award going to Tania Wolfenden. I also competed in the Show events on that day and with Yvonne Beezley, rode in the Grand Parade representing the N. R. A. Teebar Rodeo was a day of non stop action and the Rodeo Queen Competition added to this. Kerri-Ann Young was the Rodeo Queen on the day. Dayboro had a bumper crowd and a very successful Rodeo. Samantha Daley was the Dayboro Rodeo Queen. I would like to thank all the committees for their participation, sponsors, judges and compares of these events. I would especially like to thank Janice Lancaster from Western Wearhouse at Burpengary for her participation at Dayboro.

Finally I would like to say a special thank you to Jenco Feed and Seeds in Allora for sponsoring me in the Queen Quest this year, and to all the hard workers at the Allora Sports Club and Bowls Club, who supported me in running functions and buying tickets. Also thank you to Tina Ross for all her hard work.

Don't forget to check out the Rodeos for Rodeo Queen Competition. You will really enjoy it. Guidelines for Winning and Judging the Rodeo Queen Quest are available from me at Rodeos.

Until next month,
Safe rodeoing.

Laurie & Nancy Howard

20 years is a long TIME!!

Too many years ago for most of us to remember - back in the 40s, a very young Laurie Howard began his Rodeo Career in Darwin. These beginnings included competing in Rodeos of the times, travelling with Tent Shows such as Tex Mortons.

This interest continued over the years and after moving to Imbil, Laurie competed and became interested in contracting bulls for S.E.Q.R.R.A.

The Bull Contractors of these days were the Kelihers and Mahwinneys and Morgans.

Starting out and getting a "String" together was not an easy task.

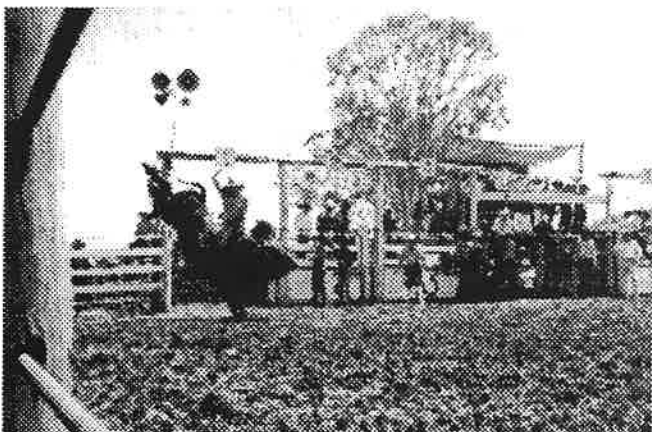

As an example Laurie once bought 100 bulls and did not get one Rodeo Bull out of them!!!

Speaking to Pat Speedy one day while looking at his bulls Laurie said, "I like the look of those bulls" Pats reply was "Take them home and you'll like them better"

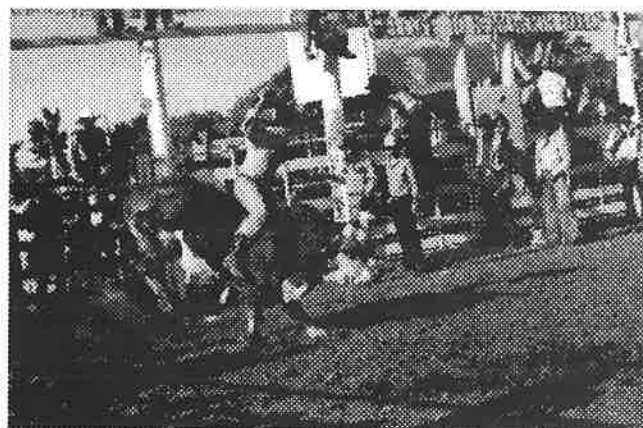

Laurie reckons there is no breed which makes a good bucking bull - mongrel breds make the best bucking bulls -you want then hookin' and lookin'. It has been heard said that you would never want one of Laurie Howards bulls in your herd.

He often told Bill Urquhart to "Hang in there, we'll get there, I'll get a string together" and get it together he did. Laurie and Nancy Howard started contracting in 1977 and continued through tragedy and triumph until 1997.

Laurie continued his illustrious Rodeo Career riding "Point Look Out" for a record 77 points at S.E.Q.R.R.A. Rodeo at Pomona in 1978 (for which he received $120 and a ribbon). This record was held for three years when it was equalled.

In 1980 they built their own arena and started Practice days. Their first bull riding school was held in 1982 and was run by Steve Hilton. Names also mentioned here were Norm Hilton. Dale Laffey, Mark (Sparrow) Brennan and Shane Connolly to name a few. Some we still see competing today.

Laurie "rode" his last bull at Kenilworth in 1987, "Holy Muskalilly". We have proof he was really on the bull!!!!

The first Mary Valley Rodeo was run at Lawrie and Nancy's Arena by S.E.Q.R.R.A. in 1981 and continued until 1989.

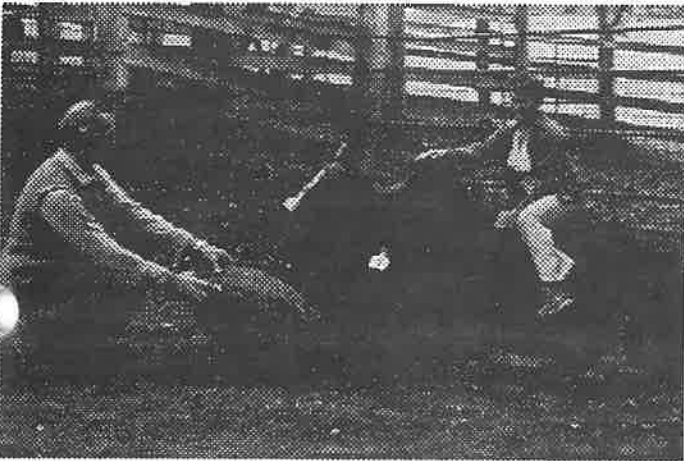

The tragedies: A truck accident going to Mt Mee in 1989 lost six (6) bulls "Turn or Burn", "Old Smokey", "Dairy Hand", "Fogarty", and two young ones. "Freddy Come Lately" was also hurt and had six months off Rodeo.

The triumphs: "Turn or Burn" Bucking Bull of the Year 1987
 "Shirallee" Bucking Bull of the Year 1990
 "Charlie Sampson" Bucking Bull of the Year 1992

Laurie and Nancy Howard were awarded Life Membership of S.E.Q.R.R.A. in 1987 for their support to the Association.

Many of the Howards Bulls really lived up to their names - "Hat Rack" - had horns that you could use as a hat rack and used them really well when he once wrecked a car. "Holy Muscally" - named after a saying of Alan Henderson - a sports comentator of the region. "Charlie Sampson" - a World Champion and a world champion bull. "Shirralee" - was a burden to begin with, being reared by the house cow "Daisey" and a bucket, going on to buck as a junior bull then into open bulls for nine years with nine qualified rides and two years unriden in that time. Obviously he didn't like the burden of a cowboy on his back.

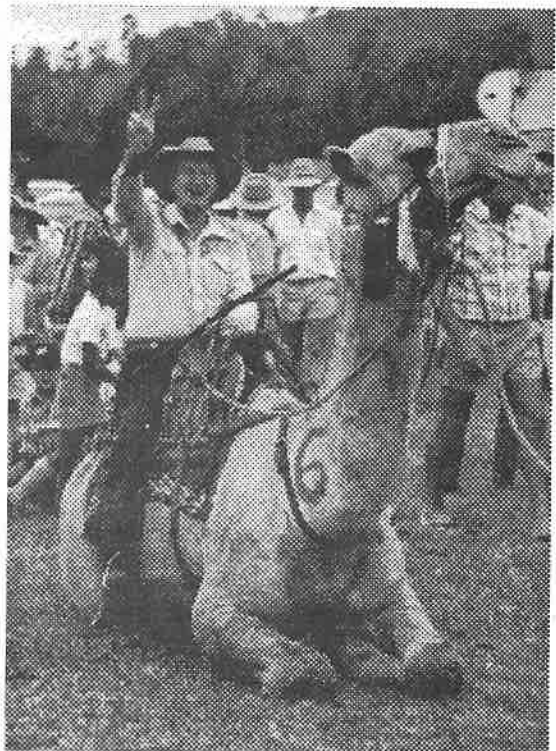

"Idi Ahmin" a real threat to all and cowboys, was a bucking bull from 1978 to 1990. He was a real favourite of the Howards and his horns are mounted on their lounge room wall. At home he was like a pussy cat but in the arena with a cowboy on his back he was really something to be contended with. Once in Laurie's Arena, Laurie was bucked off him and while clambering up the mesh fence. It separated, leaving a hole above his head, which Idi took advantage of and jumped through the hole and out into the paddock where he was very content!

Gone are the days of the Howards contracting bulls, the landrover stands on the hill - no more mustering bulls, the shetlands, camels (which Bill Urquhart once mounted used cheekily for a charity promotional ride) and other animals now take the place of the bulls which are sadly missed.

Their interest in Rodeo will always stay. N.R.A. members and committees will miss the Howard connection, however what goes around comes around, and once again the Keliher Bros are contracting bulls. Laurie felt he was putting his bulls in good hands. Laurie, you can now go to a Rodeo in the car and not the truck, enjoy a beer with the boys and Nancy can drive you home in the car.

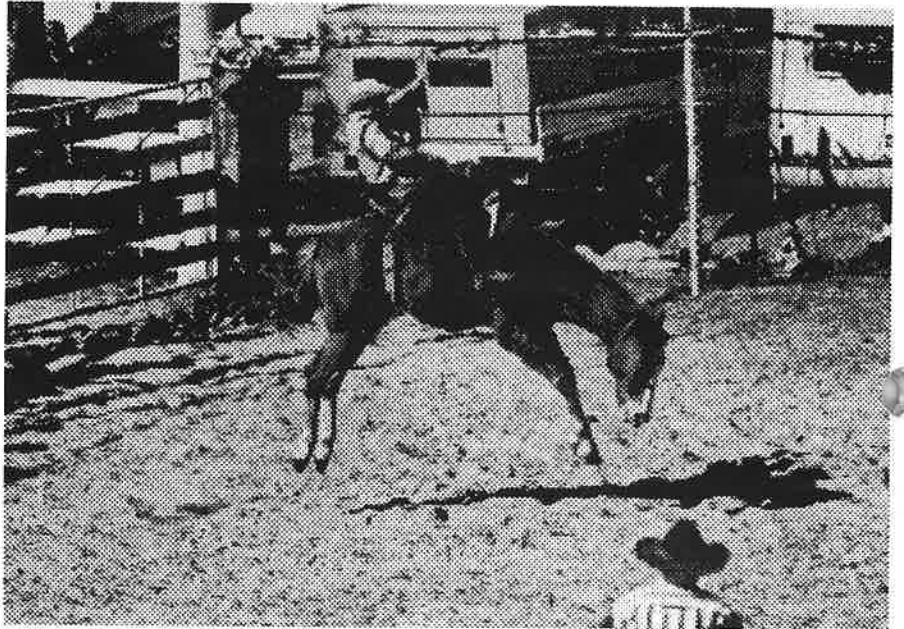

Thankyou and good luck.

Insight into bucking horse stock

In 1990, Stuart Grayson and his wife Kris purchased a line of bucking horses, lead by the legend HONKY TONK. Stuart being a competitor for what is now 15 years, knows that competitors ride for the challenge. So with this in mind the Graysons fulfil this challenge by scouting Australia for top bucking horses to add to their existing string.

One horse in particular, CHARLIE PRIDE, a small bay mare with a big heart is proving a handful to all competitors, with scores of no less than 75 points if ridden.

The Grayson's home is an endless mantle piece with trophies and memorabilia showing a life lived with Rodeo. The great HONKY TONK, 1992, 1993, and 1994 Bareback Horse of the Year, CHARLIE PRIDE, 1994 Saddle Bronk Horse of the Year, and again in 1995 by the Australian Rodeo Council, all taking center stage.

Stuart knows his stock individually and his pick up team have safety as first their priority. This priority is an example of why Stuart will always pick up his stock and why he was chosen 1995 Pick Up Man of the Year by the National Rodeo Council.

Anyone who is close to Stuart and Kris Grayson knows that their stock takes first priority in their lives. The horses are not just bucking horses but are added to the list of family. That's why the death of HONKY TONK in May 1995 was a private matter and songs and poems written are something to remember.

As the interest in Rodeo for young people in the last few years has increased, so has the demand for Stuart to instruct at his own schools.

Stuart has numerous titles to his belt and is still heavily involved in Rodeo.
