"It is not the critic who counts, nor the man who points out where the strong man stumbles, or where a doer of deeds could have done them better. The credit belongs to the man in the arena whose face is marred by dust and sweat and blood, who strives valiantly, who errs, and who comes up short again and again, who knows the great enthusiasms, the great devotions, and spends himself in a worthy cause. The man who at best knows the triumph of high achievement and who at worst, if he fails, fails while daring greatly, so that his place will never be with those cold and timid souls who never know victory or defeat."

- Teddy Roosevelt

Executive Director Events Report

As the Executive Director of Events, I would like to thank all the members who voted for me in the recent election. I hope I keep up to their expectations. On behalf of the NRA members, I would like to pass on our thanks to Mr Mason Jardine for his efforts over the last couple of years - a job well done.

As my first update of the 1997 season, I have no need to remind you that the Jim Beam series is back for a second year. We have had a very busy first quarter with plenty of rodeos and a lot of competitors starting their season on a good note. I'm sure all of us are trying very hard to become the Jim Beam Champion and I wish you all the very best of luck.

It is with some regret that I have to bring to your attention that some of the rodeo promoters are not following the rules set out by the NRA. I cannot emphasise the need for these rules to be adhered to as strictly as possible as they were put in force to ensure the safety of the members and promoters.

It has been brought to my attention that there have been instances where stock contractors have allowed bulls to be entered into draws without the horns being correctly tipped.

Please remember that all horns are to be tipped to a 20 cent piece. All stock not tipped will be withdrawn from the event and the onus will be on the contractor to find replacement stock for the draw.

It appears that there have been some queries with regard to the judging of some events. If you have any queries regarding the judging of a particular event, these queries should be channelled through your Event Director, who would take the case up on your behalf. Whilst judges are paid to adjudicate as they see fit, their decision is final.

To finish on a more cheery note, plans are well under way for our end of year finals, with the best stock and cowboys to be available. This should hopefully prove to be a big crowd puller.

If anyone has any queries or needs any advice regarding rodeo activities, please do not hesitate to contact myself.

Safe Travelling

Bareback Director's Report

Firstly, I would like to thank all the members of NRA for electing me to this position of office, a position I will fulfill to my very best ability.

Rodeos have been progressing very well this year. It has been great to see the increase in the number of competitors at these rodeos, especially the increase in number of bareback competitors. Good luck to all of these new members and competitors. For these new competitors, I would like to encourage committees to introduce Novice Bareback Events, as I am sure an event such as this would have been keenly contested.

Good luck to all competitors in the Jim Beam Silver Buckle Series. This is shaping up to be another great series in 1997. Please do not hesitate to see me at rodeos or contact me by phone if you have any problems with this event.

Yours in Rodeo

Paul Stephen

Office Administrator's Report

We are well into the 1997 competitive season! Which means new people at the top of the standings as well as a few changes within the NRA.

The Executive Directors and Event Directors being only one of the major changes. The new Directors are all fitting into their position it would seem with ease ... Do not forget these Directors are your main link with the Association, support them they are there for you. We can all criticize way too easy...

There must also be a Thank you for all past Executives and Directors alike, for their continued support to the N.R.A.

The new look newsletter is another change, your feedback is most welcome... Please do not let the new look stop you from reading your guidelines as I find this is where most people seem to let the Association down. Please do not wait till you have a reason to read the guidelines, make an effort to regularly check for any changes ... Reference numbers being one of the main offenders. You must always write it down and keep it for any inquiries, and definitely use it for your cancellations ...

The 'Jim Beam Silver Buckle Series' is under way, thanks to the terrific support from Committees and members. Keep up the good work and don't forget to Jim Beam up!!

I'll have to keep my report short, yes I said "short", I know that's disappointing but alas there is more important gossip to read ...

I will see you all at the Caboolture Rodeo. Do not be strangers, come and say hello ...

Rodeo Committee Reports

Beaudesert Rodeo - 3 May, 1997

The Beaudesert Rodeo Club Inc would like to thank everyone from the National Rodeo Association involved in assisting our committee on and before our Rodeo. The day was a huge success and your assistance was greatly appreciated.

We would also like to thank organisers of events, especially Vicki Reardon for the Grand Entry which was very well done, the Cowboys and Cowgirls who took part in our promotion, the "Meet the Cowboys" morning, just taking time to talk to and sign autographs for the children. I'm sure the children who attended enjoyed themselves. To Vicki Reardon and the cowboys who did interviews with the local Radio Station, thanks heaps.

Although the weather was a bit shaky, the crowd just kept rolling in. With an estimated crowd of over 4000 people, our committee was overwhelmed with the success of the rodeo. We've had a very positive feedback from spectators and it makes you realise Rodeo is getting bigger and better in our state.

Thanks again,

J Harth - Secretary

Caboolture Show Rodeo - 7 June 5 pm, 8 June 3pm

Long gone are the days of anticipation looking up at the sky before the Caboolture Show Rodeo and hoping the weather would clear! Long gone are the weeks of preparation getting the grounds into tip-top condition - from the backyards to the arena surface! Just how many truckloads of fill did the Caboolture Shire Council put into that arena? Nowadays the Indoor Arena at the Caboolture Showgrounds has ensured an ideal venue - much work is still involved in getting it transformed for a rodeo.

Not gone, however, are the weeks of panic in the Cavanagh household in the leadup to the Caboolture Show Rodeo. You'd think after so many years things would just happen!

The Caboolture Show Rodeo was run for many years in conjunction with the Caboolture Apex Club who always did a mighty job, but in later years it has been under the banner of the Caboolture Show Society, all under the directorship of rodeo stalwart "Doc" Cavanagh.

1997 is shaping up to be another great rodeo, being part of the Jim Beam Silver Buckle series, with this ideal venue always drawing huge crowds to be assured of great entertainment.

Nanango Rodeo - 26 April, 1997

Dick and I would like to sincerely thank all those who helped and supported so well on the 26th, our first Nanango Charity Max points Rodeo. It makes us feel proud that the 'Rodeo' family is thriving so well and the future of rodeo is secure in Nanango. The South Burnett has had eight years of semi-drought and was so impressed with the very great day of professional entertainment.

Many of our 30 plus volunteers and friends had no idea what they were in for! But comments of "Great rodeo", "Best steaks", "Wonderful hospitality", "Be back next year", made it well worth while for them, and the public will be back again definitely. Sponsors have already ordered their banners!

Thanks to all again.

COWBOY

He'll put his rope on the bull, spur on his boot,
Ready for the adrenalin to jump out the chute,
With the bull bucking high, his hand in the air,
He'll feel the wind blow through his country blonde hair.

The bull bucks hard, he falls with a thud,
He'll have to get up and run, or be forced into the mud.
With the bull's horns sharp, smoke out of his nose,
The cowboy cradles his arms and stands up on his toes,
The bull takes the charge, he knows what he chases,
The cowboy runs to the fence, seeing many faces,
The bull is put away, the rodeo clowns shake hands,
The cowboy packs his bag and heads back to the highlands.

This newsletter we are featuring Breakaway Roping past and present CHAMPIONS. The history of these has been compiled with information available. It may not always be correct, for which we apologise. We would welcome feedback to update our records wherever possible. WHERE are they now? WHAT are they doing?

Breakaway Roping may have been one of the 'latest events' to break into the competitive world of Rodeo, much the encouragement and dedication of Terry McHugh.

Not so 'behind the times' have been many of our competitors in being recognised as well deserving champions.

Debbie Armitage, the first Breakaway Roping Champion went on to become the Australian Pro Masters All Round Cowgirl. 1996 Breakaway Champion Joanne Bate was also the Australian Pro Masters All Round Cowgirl in 1995.

Judy and Vicki Gough have proven themselves very creditably in Breakaway Roping winning many titles. Vicki holds the fastest time for Breakaway Roping in Australia.

Another family well represented are the Bate sisters, Jacki and Joanne.

Other deserving champions have been Dawn Tamini, Kerry Donald and Lisa Dibetta.

Congratulations!
