"It is not the critic who counts, nor the man who points out where the strong man stumbles, or where a doer of deeds could have done them better. The credit belongs to the man in the arena whose face is marred by dust and sweat and blood, who strives valiantly, who errs, and who comes up short again and again, who knows the great enthusiasms, the great devotions, and spends himself in a worthy cause. The man who at best knows the triumph of high achievement and who at worst, if he fails, fails while daring greatly, so that his place will never be with those cold and timid souls who never know victory or defeat."

Executive Director Livestock Management Report

Well, this is my first report for 1997 and my first report as an Executive Director of the NRA. I would like to thank all of the members for electing me to this position. I am honoured to hold such a position and will endeavour to perform my duties in the best interests of everyone concerned.

There have been a number of queries regarding the new rules concerning Rookie and Novice competitors and due to this there is a section elsewhere in this edition of the Sports News that should help to clarify the rules. If you still have any queries after reading this section please contact me and I will be happy to go through it with you.

In my report as Stock Contractors' Representative last year I raised the point that I believed our best stock, as well as cowboys, should be chosen to perform at our Finals Rodeo. I also pointed out that with our current format of individual promoters running the Finals that this would not be an easy task. I am pleased to report that the Executive Board has put a lot of work into this and at this stage it all looks good for this to happen in 1997.

On behalf of the Executive Board I would like to thank all of the directors and members who turned up at the Working Bee on Good Friday to prepare for Rosewood Rodeo. The great response is an indication of how well the current board is working together and this can only be healthy for the future of the NRA. This enthusiasm was also reflected in the great success of the 1997 Rosewood Rodeo.

While on the subject of the Rosewood Rodeo I believe that it was by far the best rodeo conducted there to date with a huge crowd enjoying the action. The rodeo ran like clockwork despite the massive 290 entries which is once again a reflection of a job well done by all involved. Credit must also go to Kerry Hall and Doc Cavanagh for the high quality of stock provided. A number of people have especially commented to me on the quality of the bulls, however they didn't know whose they were. So to answer that question, the bulls were supplied by Kerry Hall with the spectacular "Hells Angel" and "King Wally" still remaining unriden.

Remember, if you have any questions or complaints please feel free to contact me at home or at a rodeo.

Jason Hall

NRA Cowgirls News

On conclusion of my term as Girls Director of the NRA this will be my last report.

Firstly, congratulations go to not only those who won titles and other recognised awards, but also to contestants who achieved personal goals.

I would like to thank all who sponsored and supported the NRA Cowgirls.

Eddie and Maryanne Powell

Rick and Judy Tranter

Tophand Saddlery

Horseman's Trading Post

Denman Products

Queensco Unity Rural

Also a special mention to Janice and David of the Western Warehouse who not only sponsored the Runner-Up Buckles, but also donated embroidered Polo shirts for all the Finalists - men and women.

There are several people among the members who were always so readily available to lend a hand wherever they could. Thanks to all - it certainly made my job that bit easier and let me get on with something else. Special thanks to Tina Ross and Calf Roping Director Greg Gall.

The outcome of the raffle we ran last year was rather disappointing. The usual workers like Judy Gough, Tina Ross and Penny Rayment sold 100 plus tickets. I am aware that some members are not in a position to sell many tickets. However, I feel others made very little effort. Remember the more we all pull together - the more we can achieve in the long term. Please support your new Director whether required to help out with barrels, stock or fund raising.

Finally a very big thankyou to the NRA Cowgirls for the beautiful wrist watch which was presented to me at Presentation Night. Your gift is greatly appreciated and will be treasured forever. Thank you all.

Rosewood Rodeo Committee Report

Rosewood Rodeo held on 29 March 1997 was the first in a series of ten rodeos in the Jim Beam Silver Buckle series.

What a way to start with record entries and very strong competition. Cowboys and Cowgirls performed outstandingly much to the delight of a very large enthusiastic crowd.

The preparations were great! It was very rewarding to see so many Directors and NRA members and helpers at the Rosewood grounds on Friday before the rodeo getting the 'stage set' for the next day.

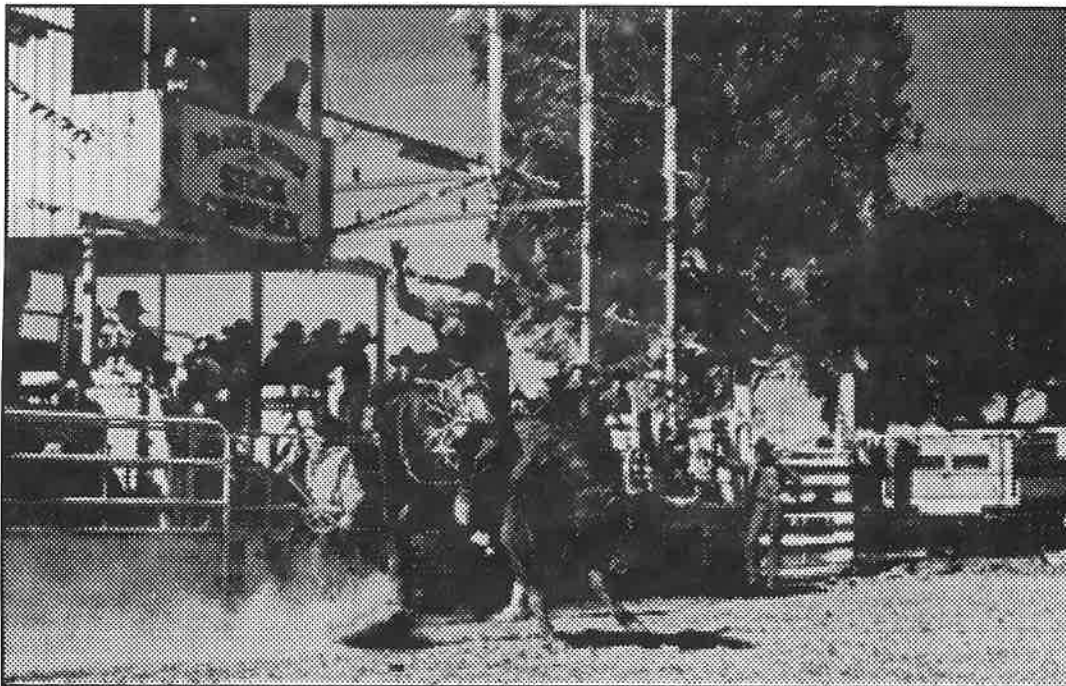

Not forgetting all the effort put in by members of the board, prior to the day, and Terry and Helen McHugh and Terry Sharland in getting sponsors for the rodeo - a job well done.

We wish to thank all those sponsors who contributed to this Rodeo. Without such good sponsorship the rodeo would not have been the success it was.

'New Girls' were also in training. Executive Director of Operations Ann Maree Hasselbach and Central Entries Officer Patty Jones conducted a Central Entries Training Day for Jan Gall, Linda Norton, Marilyn Sharland and Joc Frahm. Please when you see these new faces taking entries at rodeos, remember they are doing their utmost to do the best for you.

Rosewood Rodeo Queen was a very closely contested event with Wendy Eisentrager looking very smart as the 1997 Rosewood Rodeo Queen. The Rodeo Princesses all performed very commendably as well.

Rosewood is a rodeo which has been running for many years and has been run by NRA since 1993. This is the second year Rosewood has been the initial rodeo in the Jim Beam Silver Buckle series of rodeos, a series which has been very successful and attracting a large number of cowboys and cowgirls contesting their events.
