Marketing Administrator's Report

It is with great pleasure that we welcome, once again, Jim Beam to the 1998 Rodeo Season with the National Rodeo Association.

This is the third year that Jim Beam has been our sponsor for the Silver Buckle Rodeo Series and our Association gratefully acknowledges the support given to us from Jim Beam.

The 1998 series will see some new venues join us along with a smaller series on the West Coast Circuit. Details of the 1998 series are in this edition of Sports News and I extend to all competitors, the best of luck for the forthcoming season.

In regard to sponsors and sponsorship opportunities, please feel free to contact me with any prospects or if seeking advice or information concerning rodeo promotions or sponsorship.

Safe travelling, and keep "beaming".

Rodeo Queen Report

It was great to see the Rodeo Princess held at the Stanthorpe Rodeo. The winner was Shandelle Armitage. Congratulations Shandelle.

Nanango Rodeo saw a Rodeo Queen and Princess Competition (under 11 years and 12-18 years). The Rodeo Queen was won by Samantha Daley and the princess was won by Stacey Freeman, who was a very excited little girl! The 12-18 year age group was won by Killamey cowgirl Lisa Ross. Congratulations to all those who took the time and effort to compete in these events.

Don't forget, girls, to keep looking in the newsletter for the rodeos which are having Rodeo Queen Competitions.

Until next month ... Safe Rodeoing ...

ATTENTION: Rodeo Community!

In an attempt to record and preserve Australian rodeo's heritage, I am currently researching a book about the history of the sport in Australia. I have a publisher already lined up and a Xmas 1998 dead line!

The book will be an anecdotal and pictorial account of Rodeo's development from the early days of the travelling buckjump shows through to the international professionalism of the 1990s.

As much of the story is folk lore and stored in the minds and cupboards of the people who have lived the sport over the years, I am asking for your help.

If you have any suggestions or interest in contributing to the book - advice, ideas, stories, legends; events or characters to investigate; poetry, pictures or paraphernalia, I would love to speak with you. I shall be travelling around Queensland until June and thereafter based in Sydney. Please contact me or leave a message at one of the numbers below.

News Around the Rodeo Scene

CONGRATULATIONS: Robyn "Rowdy" Donoaghue has had a baby daughter - born Tuesday 3rd March - she has named her Creedence. Congratulations Rowdy.

Nanango Rodeo Committee have been working very hard. Their new permanent arena is a real credit to them. Many favourable comments from all competitors - Congratulations.

Stacey Freeman ran a very successful seafood raffle, donated by her parents Arthur and Wendy Freeman, for Stanthorpe Hospital to say thankyou for looking after her while a patient after her spill at last year's Stanthorpe Rodeo. Thank you to the committee for permission to hold this raffle on the day.

The Jim Beam Silver Buckle Series is about to commence. We would like to welcome our new committees and in 1999 hope to include other committees in this Series.

Committee Report

Kilkivan Rodeo was started seven (7) years ago, with the aim of raising funds to purchase Rescue Equipment for the Kilkivan Shire.

After two Rodeos we were able to obtain the basic "Jaws of Life" equipment valued at over $15,000. Not bad for a committee of 13!

Since then, funds raised are being put towards buying accessories for the "Jaws of Life". Each year we try to incorporate more events on the day. Currently we hold Pony Club, a Maiden Camp Draft, Team Penning and the Rodeo. Last year to the Rough Stock Events we added Steer Wrestling. This year Team Roping has been added to the programme.

The Committee tries to ensure that Prizemoney, Trophies and ribbons make the trip to Kilkivan worthwhile. We would like to thank the competitors who have supported us, each and every year. We would also like to thank them for the positive feedback regarding the standard of the Arena Surface and Facilities.

It is also encouraging to hear feedback from sponsors who have received Thankyou letters from competitors. Once again we are running the day after the The Kilkivan Great Horse Ride. Saturday night prior to the Rodeo there will be entertainment, bar and food facilities available.

See you at Kilkivan 1998 - Sunday 19th April.

Rodeo Princess Report

Hi Everyone

As the NRA Rodeo has well and truly started, my duties as Rodeo Princess look to be exciting and memorable once again. A huge thank you is in order to the following people and businesses - Judy Gough and Mick Hecksher, Kelly Handy, Troy Welsh Saddlery, National Rodeo Queen Quest of Australia, Silverdale Jeans, Maverick Western Wear and Vicki Reardon.

For a change, this year I have organised, for some rodeos, a Rodeo Princess Competition. I have found a few generous sponsors who will donate prizes and in return I hope to help these businesses out with advertising. All the Junior Cowgirls, keep your eyes open in the Newsletter for rodeos that will hold these competitions.

The first Rodeo Princess Competition was at Stanthorpe Rodeo. The lucky winner was Shandelle Armitage and the runner-up was Stacey Freeman. The sponsors for this event were Tramare Saddlery, Rosewood, Pro Riders, Laidley. A thank you must go to Jocelyn Frahm for making the sash for this event. I encourage all junior Cowgirls who are interested in the Rodeo Princess competitions to compete in these events as I am organising them for your benefit and some fun.

Nanango Rodeo Committee held another Rodeo Princess Competition. There were two age groups on the day. The 11 and under winner was Stacey Freeman and the 11 to 18 group was Lisa Ross. Congratulations, girls.

It has been put to me that the NRA have organised caps to be sold at Rodeos (the same way as the badges) to support the Junior Foundation. This will only benefit you Juniors in the long run, so I would appreciate it if all of you could help me at some time or other to sell these caps.

Lastly I would like to wish all the Juniors good luck in the 1998 season.

Safe Travelling

It is up to each individual competitor to check the draw sheets prior to the commencement of the Rodeo to make sure their nomination is correct. Please see your event director if you have a problem. After the commencement of the Rodeo no discrepancies will be looked into.

CANCELLATIONS:

When cancelling, either by phone or an answering machine you must state the name of the Rodeo, your name, reference number and membership number. Without this information, cancellations cannot be processed and will not be accepted.

SLACK:

All members please note. Programs are set up by individual committees and it is up to their discretion, which events are in the slack and or performance. Therefore it is up to you, the Competitor, to call the Central Entry line before a rodeo where a slack is advertised.

PAYMENT OF FINES:

Any money owed for (fines, turnouts etc) must be paid in full by Monday prior to the rodeo at which you next wish to compete. If an infringement occurs on the day of the Rodeo, the Central Entries officer at that Rodeo has the facility available to accept any owings for turnouts or fines etc. on that particular day. This will ensure your entries are valid for the next rodeo you have entered.

MEDICAL OUTS / INSURANCE CLAIMS:

If a Medical Out is found necessary at a Rodeo, if injured on the day, and unable to compete again, a medical certificate must be obtained from the Ambulance on the grounds and submitted to the Central Entries Officer on the day, before the event concludes. This is essential otherwise a turn out fine is mandatory.

Insurance Claim forms, if applicable, are available from the Central Entries Officer (on the day) and must be completed and faxed through to the office (0754 957384) by Monday following the Rodeo.

OFFICIALS PLEASE NOTE Re INSURANCE:

For persons officiating in the arena at a rodeo, e.g. bullfighters, judges etc, insurance is available at $5.00 per day. It is their responsibility to contact the Central Entries person on the day before the rodeo commences if they require this cover.
