Thank You

I wish to thank Wendy Eisentrager, the N.R.A. Cowgirls, both Junior and Senior and all the N.R.A. Members for their gift of a beautiful horse rug which was presented at Caboolture Finals.

It was a beautiful thought and kind gesture. It was an honour for me to represent the Association in my year as N.R.A. Rodeo Queen.

Thanks Again ... Happy Travelling

Vicki Reardon
1996 N.R.A. Rodeo Queen

Committee Report

LAIDLEY

Laidley Rodeo Association President Col Litfin is mustering the energy of his committee for the 1998 Charity Rodeo Spectacular on Saturday 28th March 1998.

Col and his committee have two very successful rodeos behind them now - having purchased for Laidley Hospital in 1996 a laser for the physiotherapy department and last year an electro cardiograph machine.

Colin presented the ECG machine to the Hon. Mike Horan, MLA, Minister for Health, himself an enthusiastic rodeo supporter. As well as providing the Laidley Hospital with specialised equipment to the value of some $6,000, cash donations were also made to ten (10) other local caring agencies, including the two nursing homes and the Ambulance Service.

A new accident and emergency and new outpatients department is in the process of being built and a lift installed at Laidley Hospital. So Colin and his committee won't have any difficulty in finding some special pieces of equipment to purchase to compliment the services provided by these facilities.

A print of Jason Hall on "Crystal" has been enlarged and superbly framed by the Laidley Rodeo Committee Secretary/Treasurer and will hang in a prominent position in the hospital's new building.

We do appreciate the support we have had from N.R.A. members and their families over the past years. You can be assured that the proceeds raised from your contribution to this year's Rodeo Spectacular will be spent wisely.

Prize money will again be equal for Guys' and Gals' events, with the exception of the Bull Ride, which will have a $500 purse, donated by Joanco feeds of Toowoomba.

Rodeo Queen Report

Firstly I would like to congratulate Christine Pennell on being crowned NRA Rodeo Princess '98. Also thank you to Kalana Norton '97 Rodeo Princess on a job well done. At Caboolture, Karen Freeman was the under 11 Princess and Stacey Freeman the Caboolture Local Princess.

The NRA finals saw a Finals Rodeo Queen for the first time - the winner Kelly Hanby, a very happy and deserving winner, received a Trophy Buckle and sash.

At Canungra Finals we also judged our NRA Finals Princesses. The 11 years and under was won by Shandelle Armitage, 12 to 14 years was Lisa Ross and 15-18 years Tamara Jakimowicz. These girls then competed for the buckle and the winner was Lisa Ross. Congratulations Lisa.

Events were run at Caboolture for the Under 6 Cowboys and Cowgirls. All who competed had a great time with ribbons donated by the Caboolture Show Society. Thank you Caboolture Show Society and also to Jocelyn Frahm who made special ribbons for the girls and boys. It was very much appreciated. The High Point girl was Bianca Weier and boy Luke Cannon. I would like to thank all those who judged.

Hervey Bay saw 7 entrants in the Rodeo Queen competition. Casey Marks from Longreach was crowned Rodeo Queen. Casey was also successful in winning the Alstonville Rodeo Queen at their Rodeo.

Anyone wanting to enter the NRA Rodeo Queen competition for 1998/99, please contact myself, the NRA office or Sharon Piggott on 07 5533 2887.
