News From Around the Rodeo Scene

A pen of steers was noticeably absent from the practice pen at Pumicestone Road, Toorbul on Sunday 20th September.

Cavanagh, known as Doc
Forgot his stock
And didn't know where to find them

Left them alone
Kenilworth is not home
Now he hopes this will all be behind him

The Commonwealth Games was the theme of the day
So, many of us want to take part and play.

It was the sprint by the (ex) Queen, as never before seen
That made it apparent that she was real keen.

The barrels aside, the junior up and astride
But, it was the mother who had the hide.

The one hundred dash was not done for cash
And was successfully run in a flash.

Without any shame, to take on the game
How wonderful it is to become part of the fame.

It's great to see so many more Junior Competitors
competing in Rodeos.

We would especially like to thank the Freeman family for donating the seafood trays for raffles to support the Juniors.

The proceeds from these raffles have been used to encourage more Junior Events at Rodeos and provide the place getters of Junior Events with ribbons. Thank You.

Thank You!

I would like to thank the N.R.A. especially the office staff for all the extra work they put in giving preferences to competitors to want to travel to another Rodeo. It has helped me greatly and I'm sure a lot of other people as well.

Keep up the good work as it can only help support the SPORT OF RODEO.

Once again, thank you.

Debbie Armitage

Rookie points will be recorded in the open standings - 'R' beside the competitor's name. Members wishing to be classified as a Rookie must do so in writing to the NRA Office.

Novice points will no longer appear in the standings in the newsletter. They will be tabulated in the office and be available to competitors through Central Entries and the Secretary on the day at Rodeos. As a competitor 'Breaks Open' he or she will be notified in writing from the office and recorded in the 'Break Open' Register. These competitors' names will be published in the monthly newsletter in a Break Open section.
