Marketing Administrator's Report

I would like to congratulate our 1999 Rodeo Princess Shandelle Armitage and welcome her to this very important position.

Not only is the Princess the representative of the N.R.A. Juniors, she also has the responsibility of assisting the N.R.A. Rodeo Queen in also her promotional duties as well as conducting the Grand Entry Team when the N.R.A. Queen is unavailable.

The positions of Princess and Queen are not just "Glamour Roles" – they are important responsibilities. They are the public face of Rodeo – in particular the National Rodeo Association. In a majority of cases, the Association is judged on the conduct of its members.

To our past N.R.A. Princess – Christine Pennell – may I extend the Association's gratitude for a job well done!

The 1999/2000 N.R.A. Rodeo Queen and Rodeo Queen of Australia will be conducted on the 24th April 1999 at Movie World on the Gold Coast. To all our entrants, may I say good luck and best wishes on the night.

With the 1999 Rodeo Year well under-way and the 1999 Jim Beam Silver Buckle Series commencing at Kilkivan on April 11th, may I extend a warm welcome to our new committees as well as our old committees in this prestigious series, and trust that the success achieved over the past seasons will only expand in 1999.

 N.R.A. Marketing Administrator

News From Around the Rodeo Scene

This month's profile (see page 4):

Do you know the Bull rider who will turn 39 this month? He was New Zealand born, has many many finals in Bull riding. This Bull Rider could think of nothing better than sitting in from of the tele watching 'Tombstone', eating a big plate of seafood with a Fosters light in his hand.
