Directors Report

The Board of the NRA has appointed Mr Paul Range as Operations Manager of the Association. Paul's responsibilities are varied and to this date have not been completely confirmed. He will however be empowered to make decisions, which will hopefully result in a more professional organisation.

You will note an add in this newsletter for a dual affiliation between the ABCRA and NRA. This rodeo is to be conducted at Lawrence in December and is one of two such affiliations programmed in the near future. The Lawrence Rodeo being an ABCRA rodeo, all entries will be forwarded to that Association's head office. NRA members will earn points for their association as will the ABCRA competitors, because of the dual affiliation NRA members will not have to pay day membership.

The other such affiliation will be a state challenge NSW Vs QLD at Casino Rodeo in 2002. This will be an NRA rodeo we will be releasing more details at a later date.

Both dual affiliations of the rodeos Lawrence and Casino have been as a result of a closer working relationship with the ABCRA and other leading associations.

Rodeo Queen Report

I would like to say a special thank you to all those committees who have conducted a Rodeo Queen Competition this year. It has been a pleasure working with you and on behalf of the Rodeo Queen entrants I wish to thank you for your co-operation and gifts.

At our most recent rodeos our Rodeos – our Rodeo Queens have been:

Kenilworth – Denae Turnbull
 Apple Tree Creek – Stacey Freeman
 Boonah – Rebecca Murray

I would like to remind all Rodeo Queen Entrants that the scores in Rodeo Queen Competitions are confidential. Thank you to all the competitors for their cooperation and participation in Grand Entries at Rodeos.

The committees and spectators alike all appreciate a Grand Entry to promote our Sport of Rodeo.

I would like to wish all the Rodeo Princess's in this year's Rodeo Princess Quest "Good Luck"

To all competitors – I wish you all the very best for the FINALS.

Maryanne Powell our Rodeo Queen and Princess Coordinator has reminded me of an old saying -

"A TRUE SPORTSMAN WINS with a GRIN and LOSES with a SMILE!"

Yours in rodeo,

Erin Healey

Rodeo Princess Report

Since my last report, there have been quite a few Rodeo Princess Competitions.

CONGRATULATIONS to all our overall princesses at these competitions and thank you to all the girls for competing in them.

This year the judging for the Rodeo Princess will take place at Caboolture on Friday 7th December and Saturday 8th December.

The format of the judging will be slightly different to last year – some of the judging may be done on the Friday night prior to the last of our ASSOCIATION FINALS held at Caboolture. The time is to be confirmed. We do ask you please to be there at least an hour before we commence the judging, as we will need to run over a few things before we start. The appearance of your horse will also be judged on the same night. Your Personality, Appearance and Knowledge will be judged on the Saturday morning of the Junior Rodeo.

Again, this year, secret judging will take place, quest entrants will be advised when it will start.

If you have any queries or problems, or require any help, please do not hesitate to contact me on 54966494.

Until next time ...

Safe Rodeoing ...
