In this case you may compete in this open event by paying open day membership. With this option, for any placings in this event on the day, prize money is paid to you but no points are awarded to you for this event.*

President's Report - 2001

This being my final report as President of the NRA, I will endeavour to address a few items of my personal concern regarding rodeo in general.

The lack of members making themselves available for Board positions, indicates to me people are either happy with the way the Association is being administered or show a complete lack of interest and leave it up to the others to run their sport. If the indications are correct, I must question if members are happy, why do we still hear veiled complaints about the way the NRA is being conducted and these complainers still do not put their hands up to make an effort to contribute. It must be easier to sit on the fence and criticise than stand up and be counted.

I have for some time been concerned with private promoters conducting events in our sport. My concern is that all do not have the sport at heart, and conduct so called rodeos to feather their own nest without regard for damage that could result. In most cases if challenged these people hold little or no loyalty and jump from association to association to avoid penalty.

The number of Rodeo Associations in this country is a joke. The sport cannot continue to sustain these numbers without being damaged. I believe in fair trading and competition with all things being equal. However, some Associations don't have this outlook and appear hell bent on thumbing their noses at Rules and Regulations that have been agreed to by all Major Rodeo Association Administrators. Associations that do not try to conform, leave us to believe their actions are to gain an unfair advantage.

Rodeo in Australia is still growing and will continue if the essential ingredients for further development are implemented and adhered to. First and foremost I believe Associations should develop a closer relationship. We need to have a professional approach to administration, continue to improve facilities for competitors and spectators and further development of our sport in the education system. We need to ensure that sponsors, media and committees are treated as V.I.P.'s, not the enemy, a closer relationship between contractors and associations and last but not least support Juniors in Rodeo as they are the future.

I have been asked about my announcing future. I intend to continue in this field while I remain fit enough and that I believe my performance is of an acceptable standard.

Bill Urquhart

N.R.A. President 2001

Operations Manager's Report

The Board of Directors of the National Rodeo Association has resolved to adopt the Australian Rodeo Association's "Animal Welfare Code of Conduct".

This code provides standards for the care of animals used in rodeo events. The NRA through the APRA has secured the services of Mr. Reg McNair to conduct a seminar on the Code of Conduct.

The seminar will be held at Brothers Rugby Leagues Club, Wildey Street, Ipswich on Saturday, 9 February 2002, from 8:00am until 2:00pm.

All costs associated with this initial seminar will be borne by the NRA. However, the costs for future seminars may be at the participant's expense.

The Code of Conduct is intended to encourage rodeo personnel to be aware of rodeo welfare issues and the need to comply with animal welfare legislation. The NRA board requests that all contractors, judges and or any member that intends to become a judge or contractor attend this seminar. It is envisaged that in the near future the completion of this course will become a pre-requisite for the accreditation as a stock contractor or judge.

By the time this report goes to print a letter should have been received by all approved contractors and judges (except those who have completed the course through the APRA). If you have not received this notice please contact the NRA office immediately.

Rodeo Princess Report

Hi everyone,

As this is my first article as NRA Rodeo Princess 2002, I would like to thank Maryanne Powell and Judy McDonald for their efforts in organizing the quest. A big thank you to sponsors - Silverdale Clothing Company, Faye Rolph Modeling, Trails End Saddles, Silverspur Embroidery, Pegasus Saddlery, DWS Rodeo Videos, Thistledome Equine Lodge and Bob, Jill, Stephanie and Becky Young. I received some great prizes.

A few rules have changed in the quest with contestants now being able to gain points throughout the year for promotional efforts. Any girls interested in competing for the Rodeo Princess 2003, should contact me for more information.

We had our first princess at Alstonville Rodeo with 9 entrants. It was good to see some fresh faces with a few of the girls competing for the first time. Congratulations to Peta Brown - overall winner and Katie Upton - runner-up. Please contact me if there are any questions you have or if I can be of assistance in any way.

Yours in Rodeo,

Shea Fisher

Breakaway Roping Report

Hello Everyone,

I would like to thank all our Breakaway cowgirls who have supported me through my time as Breakaway Roping administrator.

I would also like to congratulate our 2001 Breakaway Roping Champion, Lisa Sutherland and encouragement award winner Nicole Johnston. You have both worked very hard for these titles and I do wish you both the very best in 2002. In closing, I would like to welcome Christine Pennell as our new Breakaway administrator and I know all our cowgirls will show the same amount of support to her as you showed to me.

All the best in 2002.

Good roping and safe rodeoing.

Kerri-ann Young

Breakaway Roping Administrator 2001

Friendly Reminders

REFERENCE NUMBERS:

Your reference number is unique to you. Without this number there will be NO investigation of your inquiry, if there are any problems with your entries at a Rodeo. Please have a pen ready and write your reference number in the space provided on the Central Entry Page of your newsletter.

NOMINATIONS:

It is up to each individual competitor to check the draw sheets prior to the commencement of the Rodeo to make sure that their nomination is correct. Please see your event administrator if you have a problem. After the Rodeo has commenced, no discrepancies will be looked into.

CENTRAL ENTRIES:

On the day of the Rodeo, nominations must be paid as promptly as possible – preferably before half time as the Central Entry person is busy doing payouts after this time. Please remember should you have any queries other than those related to central entries on the day please refer these to your event administrator.

CANCELLATIONS:

When cancelling, either by phone or answering machine, you must state the name of the Rodeo, your name, reference number and membership number. Without this information, cancellations cannot be processed and will not be accepted. PLEASE check cancel out penalties in Central Entry Guidelines.

SLACK:

All members please note. Programs are set by individual committees and it is up to their discretion, which events are to be in the slack or performance. Therefore it is up to you, the competitor to call the Central Entry line before a rodeo where a slack is advertised. Wherever possible this is available from 12 noon Thursday prior to the Rodeo.

GATELIST:

The gate list is a list of competitors competing on the day at a particular rodeo. This is issued to committees to allow competitors admission to the rodeo. Competitors only are admitted. You must have your membership card on hand for identification if the committee requires it. In the case where you are competing and your name does not appear on the gate list, you must pay your admission fee and take your ticket to the Central Entries person on the day for verification and refund.

PAYMENT OF FINES:

Any money owed - (fines, turnouts etc) must be paid in full by Monday prior to the rodeo at which you next wish to compete. If an infringement occurs on the day of the Rodeo, the Central Entries officer at that Rodeo has the facility available to accept any owings for turnouts or fines etc. on that particular day. This will ensure your entries are valid for the next rodeo you have entered.

MEDICAL OUTS / INSURANCE CLAIMS:

If a Medical Out is found necessary from an event at a Rodeo, if injured on the day, and unable to compete again, a medical certificate must be obtained from the First Aid Officer on the grounds and submitted to the Central Entries Officer on the day, before the event concludes. This is essential, otherwise a turn out fine is mandatory. Insurance Claim forms, if applicable, are available from the Central Entries Officer at the Rodeo and must be completed and faxed to the N.R.A. office (0754 957384) by Monday following the Rodeo.

OFFICIALS PLEASE NOTE – Re INSURANCE:

For persons officiating in the arena at a Rodeo, e.g. bullfighters, judges etc, insurance is available at $5 per day. It is their responsibility to contact the Central Entries person on the day prior to the commencement of the rodeo, if they require this cover.

ENTRY TIMES:

WEDNESDAY:	10.00am - 2.00pm
THURSDAY:	2.00pm - 6.00pm
