EXECUTIVE DIRECTORS REPORT

Dear Member,

Over recent weeks it has been brought to the board's attention that a number of junior competitors have been competing in Novice or Open events without wearing a helmet.

The board of directors wish to make it quite clear that all junior competitors are to wear safety helmets whilst competing in any event. Failure to comply with this rule will result in the member (s) being disqualified from their event.

One aspect of this rule pertaining to juniors that needs clarification is when a junior member turns eighteen years of age, he or she is still required to wear his or her helmet in all events and whilst mounted for the remainder of that season.

The only time a junior member (who has turned eighteen years of age) can compete without a helmet is if they advise the board of directors in writing that they are no longer competing in any junior events.

The board wishes to further advise that in order to enforce this rule a qualifier (J) will be listed beside the names of all junior competitors competing in open or novice events.

Board of DirectorsNational Rodeo Association

AUSTRALIAN HIGH SCHOOL RODEO ASSOCIATION INC.

As the new secretary for the Australian High School Rodeo Association Inc. I would like to thank the NRA for their wonderful support and would like to share some background information on the AHSRA with other NRA members.

Formed in 2001 supported by Australia's major Rodeo Associations AHSRA aims to promote high school rodeo on a national basis working with educational institutions and government to bring about High School Rodeo as a sport. AHSRA conducts and administers rodeo competitions and clinics specifically for High School age students. The association promotes and encourages members to continue in school or education establishments while achieving their rodeo goals.

Members may compete as a team for a school, college or region or as an individual. To be eligible for membership High School students must be studying full time and not have turned 18 before January 1st 2003. Full time students (15-18 years) of Tertiary Institutions such as TAFE and Agricultural Colleges are eligible, but not apprentices or trainees attending these institutions part-time.

Competition is divided into two age groups: 12-14 years (must not have turned 15 before 1/1/03) and 15-18 years (must not have turned 18 before 1/1/03). Approved events are bull riding, steer riding, saddle and bareback bronc riding, team roping, breakaway roping, barrel racing, rope and tie, and steer wrestling. Professional stock contractors and officials are engaged to produce AHSRA rodeos with safety and animal welfare considerations being paramount.

I have spoken with Paul Range, Terry Sharland and of course Bill Urquhart who represents the NRA on the AHSRA Executive Board. AHSRA will endeavour to enhance the great NRA junior programme not compete with it. We should be able to muster up plenty of high school teams in South East Queensland. I have information packages to send out to schools, so send me some contact details, kids.

Yours sincerely

Michelle Purse
AHSRA Secretary/Treasurer

RODEO QUEEN REPORT

The NRA and the ABCRA went head to head at the second annual Casino Beef Week Rodeo, and the response received from the crowd was fantastic. The competition between the states was hot, but the Queensland contingent came home champions. The members of the public whom I spoke to were very impressed at the level of professionalism demonstrated by both the rodeo organizations and rodeo management committee; with many people marking that date on the calendar for next years event.

I was honored to participate in the Casino Beef Week street parade alongside Stacy Clark, 2003 Casino Beef Week Queen. The parade was a lot of fun and many people of all ages coming out to support the local clubs and organizations. The increased crowd numbers who came to view the state-to-state challenge was partly a result of the success of the parade. Congratulations goes to all junior and senior event winners, you did your state proud.

Earlier this year Jenny Dyer, one of our endorsed rodeo photographers was generous enough to donate a mounted collage of photos taken from 2002 Widgee Rodeo and Campdraft - a very popular prize with lots of rodeo competitors. This highly sought prize was raffled at Dayboro and Widgee rodeos raising $182.00, with the proceeds going towards further development of junior rodeos. I wish also to thank Ashley Dewar for his contributions to the NRA Sports News and rodeo, providing many superb action photos. Please support both these fantastic photographers as they have backed our sport, and captured the essence of rodeo.

The glamorous aspect of rodeo has been going strong and there have been many girls participating at local Rodeo Queen Quests. It is great to see so many new faces in the queen, princess and junior princess quests. If you are keen to enter, please give it a try. I am available to answer or advise on any questions you may have.

There have been two Rodeo Queen Quests run since the last report. I am pleased to congratulate Toorbul cowgirl Stacey Freeman as she was chosen to represent Gympie Rodeo and Shandelle Armitage of Blacksoil to represent Caboolture Rodeo as the respective Rodeo Queens. On behalf of all entrants and queens I would like to thank both committees and judges for volunteering their time to participation in these events.

Till next time
Katie Flynn

Spike Johnston has been donating the Rodeo Queen buckle for the National Rodeo Association Rodeo Queen Quests since 1979 – this gesture has been greatly appreciated by this Association and the Rodeo Queens.

PRESS RELEASE

Country music performer Brett Goodwin is about to release the first single of his new album "Backyard Builder". The single is called Riding on the Stars, a tribute to the young bull rider James Cross who was tragically killed last year in a car accident at the age of 18. James was a fun loving cowboy who lived for rodeo. Brett is a close family friend and was moved when James's mother asked him to try and write a song in memory of her son. Brett rang Brendon Warmsley, a Golden Guitar winning writer and a friend of Brett's and asked him to help write this song. The song talks about the feeling of 8 seconds and the adrenaline rush.

"The gate goes crashing open, the crowd are on their feet He's on his own to find the place where fear and freedom meet, So cross your heart and say a prayer and hope he hangs on tight, He's found a piece of heaven Riding on the Stars tonight"

The album was recorded in Sydney using the best players in the country and was produced by Stuie French. It has twelve tracks and is Country Music at its best. The single is set for release at the end of June onto radio with the album being released mid August. You will be able to catch Brett performing at the Gympie muster this year.

If you would like a copy of this album you can send a money order for $30 to:

21 Wide Wood Crt Heritage Park Q. 4118 or phone 07 38000776.

Australian Team (Qld members) to the National High School Rodeo (NHSRA) Finals in USA CONGRATULATIONS!!!!!

Congratulations are in order to our 11 NRA Junior competitors who travelled down to Scone last month for the Australian Student Rodeo Finals. These 11 competitors showed outstanding rodeo ability to earn positions on the Australian Rodeo Team to represent Australia at the National High School Rodeo Finals in America, in July, at the largest rodeo in the world. Good luck to all who can go; we know that you will all do us proud. This is not the first time we have had NRA Junior competitors represent Australia as Katie Upton, Shandelle Armitage, Jack Cranston and myself were on the team last year. We know how much fun you all will have, it's a mind blowing experience to ride out in the arena with 4000 Americans chanting 'Aussie Aussie and to hear your fellow Aussie team mates cheering you on. To those of you who are going for the first time or second, we wish you all the best of luck.

Shandelle Armitage, Steven Augustin, Peta Browne, Martin Carlo, Jack Cranston, Lloyd King, Jordan O'Neil, Katie Upton and Johnny Want - GOOD LUCK!!
