JUNIORS PLEASE NOTE

JUNIORS competing in OPEN events MUST HAVE OPEN MEMBERSHIP.

Junior Membership entitles you to compete ONLY in Junior Events. If you wish to compete in an Open Event, you must upgrade your membership to Open Membership. Men's open upgrade of membership is membership upgrade of $60.00 (from $45.00 to $105.00) plus upgrade of bond of $35.00 (from $15.00 to $50.00). Girls open upgrade of membership is membership upgrade of $60.00 (from $45.00 to $105.00) plus upgrade of bond of $35.00 (from $15.00 to $50.00). The only exception to this is where there is not a junior event (the same as the event in which you wish to compete) on the day. In this case you may compete in this open event by paying open day membership. With this option, for any placings in this event on the day, prize money is paid to you but no points are awarded to you for this event.

DIRECTOR OF OPERATIONS REPORT

Dear Member,

On behalf of the Executive Board of Directors, I wish to advise members of the results of the elections held for the positions on the board of Ordinary Directors for 2003/2004.

NRA Officials/Contractors Director	Murray Whitwell
Bull Riding Director	Greg Meech
Saddle Bronc Riding Director	Graham Browne
Bareback Bronc Riding Director	Bernie Hamilton
Rope & Tie/Team Roping Director	Wayne McPhee
Steer Wrestling Director	Darren Milburn
Breakaway Roping/Steer Undecorating Director	Judy Gough
Barrel Racing Director	Denae Turnbull
Junior Director	Steven Browne
Rodeo Queen/Princess Director	Shelley Ellis

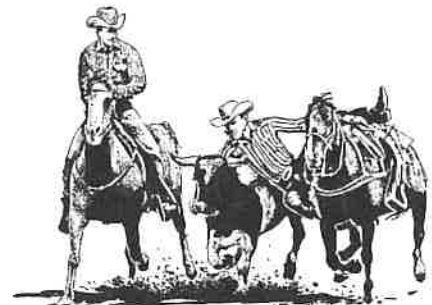

Under the new structure these directors are responsible for the day to day operation of NRA affiliated rodeos. Any inquiries or matters in relation to your respective events should be directed to the appropriate director.

The appointment of these directors to manage the conduct of our rodeos will allow the Executive Board to focus on the strategic direction of the association.

On behalf of the members I would like congratulate Anne Marie Hasselbach on receiving a Life Membership for recognition of her commitment to the association over many years.

In closing, I would like to take this opportunity to thank Mark Knox for his efforts whilst on the Executive Board. Unfortunately due to work commitments Mark did not re-nominate for another term.

 Operations Manager

RODEO QUEEN REPORT

Firstly, I must apologize for omitting to congratulate Ashleigh Birch as the Runner-up Junior Princess for 2003 – sorry Ashleigh.

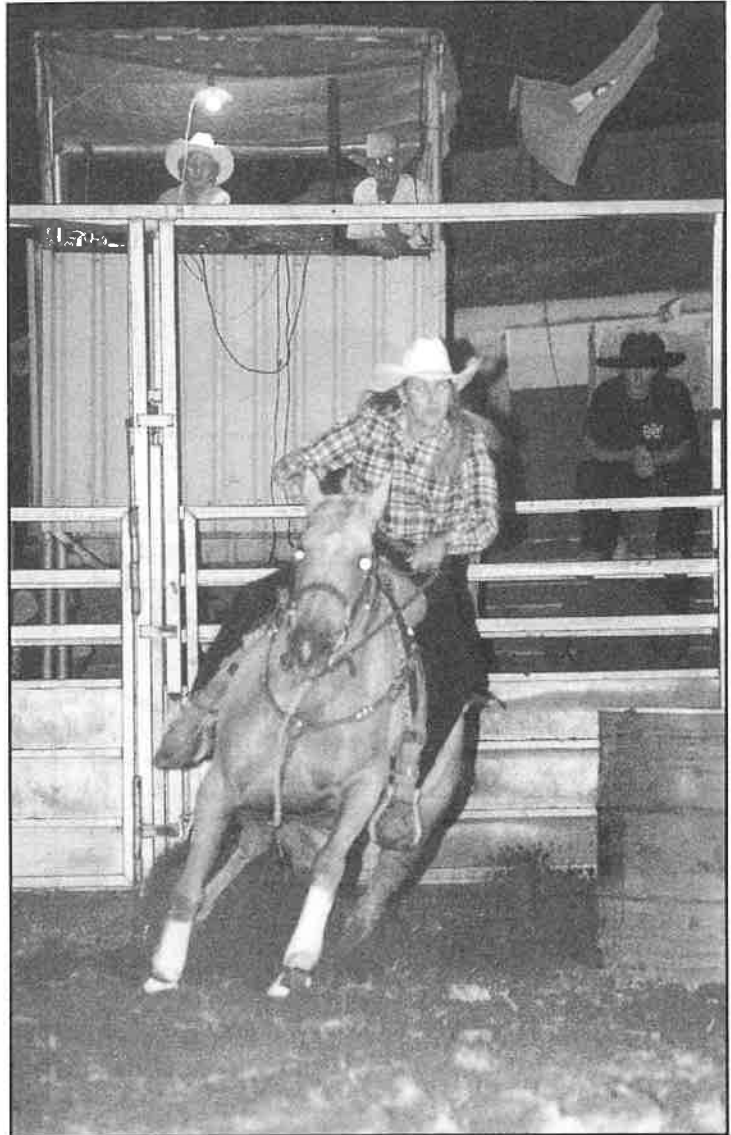

I'm three months into this position and I'm having a fabulous time. I've also started looking for girls who will be willing to represent the National Rodeo Association in 2004, as NRA Rodeo Queen. I will be encouraging our committees to conduct rodeo queen competitions so there will be a number of opportunities for you to get queen savvy before entries close later in the year. I will be happy to assist and provide advice to anyone bold enough to give it a shot. In 2002 as an entrant I had my first taste of being a rodeo queen entrant. I planned to use 2002 as a practice run, but as I read more and listened to all the advice that was given to me I eventually won a number of competitions, and then finally the NRA Crown. So if I can come with nil experience to winning then anyone can, if you are willing to put in the research and effort.

As well as the physical prizes there are also opportunities that can only come with being queen. One my proudest moments so far was to carry the Australian flag on Australia Day at Woodford rodeo. I had never really considered myself to be patriotic but I was proud to carry the flag that day. Thank you to Woodford Rodeo Committee, Dallas Weller and Doug Chicken for giving me that opportunity. This year I also plan on representing the NRA when I visit New Zealand and Western Australia later in the year, which I am really looking forward to. Should you decide to enter you can look to previous queens for a guide to what you should do but you don't have to stick to their mould.

Finally congratulations all the successful directors and administrators – I look forward to working with you during 2003.
