Rodeo Queen Report

Nambour Rodeo is over which also meant the end of the 2003 Jim Beam sponsored series. For the past eight years Jim Beam has been a major sponsor of rodeo through this series. On behalf of the NRA members, fans, champions and myself we sincerely thank them.

Now we turn our heads and begin to concentrate on the next major event on the NRA calendar - the Finals. By the time this goes to print we will be well on our way to determining whom the 2003 event and all round cowboy and cowgirls are. I wish to congratulate all those competitors who will make it to the finals. But to the competitors who have made individual improvements on their own performance, I hope to see you performing again next year.

The end of the 2003 season will also mean my reign, as 2003 National Rodeo Association Queen will also come to an end. I can honestly say that I have enjoyed the responsibility representing the NRA and rodeo to the public and the opportunities that have come from this role. I recommend if you have thought about representing rodeo, the NRA, or changing the future of rodeo becoming Queen, would be one way of achieving this.

Of course I could not have gone through 2003 as Queen alone, (any one who has been Queen would know what I'm talking about). I need to thank Danny McLaughlin for all he has given up, his assistance and for keeping me grounded this year. Darren Milburn and Amanda Barry for their terrific horses - always willing to lend them and have them prepared. For her friendship, assistance and willingness to step in for me - Denae Turnbull. Their willingness to provide knowledge and assistance I am eternally grateful - Jocelyn Frahm and Indra Dias. Shelley Ellis and Maryanne Powell for always being available to listen and provide guidance.

One of my duties at rodeos has been to organize grand entries. Grand entries are used to provide flamboyance, glamour to the rodeo and promote each event. To all cowboys, cowgirls and their horses that have participated in each grand entry either on foot or horseback, thank you. Each person who has assisted in handing out and collecting flags before and after each grand entry, your assistance has been invaluable. Finally Denae, because through out the year you have created some fantastic patterns.

There have been many very close Queen quests this year and on behalf of each entrant and myself we would like to thank each committee for hosting these pageants as well as each judge and sponsor for their assistance. Thank you.

Next month I'll have a special report on what I saw, learnt in Western Australia.

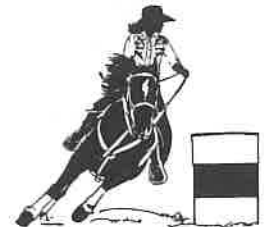

Till the Final, best wishes and safe travels.

Katie Flynn

N.R.A. are very proud to be a part of the Jim Beam Silver Buckle Series of our rodeo season in Queensland and New South Wales for the 2003 season. In October we travelled to Boonah on the 11th and on to the grand finale at Nambour on October 18. Congratulations to all the Champions. They all received beautiful buckles crafted by Australian Ann Wieden.

The N.R.A. Board and members wish to sincerely thank Jim Beam for their ongoing sponsorship of this wonderful series that has been an annual event since 1996. Congratulations to the Committees for all their interest and hard work in promoting the 2003 Jim Beam Silver Buckle Series of Rodeos.

Congratulations Martin Carlo & Jordan O'Neill

In July 2003 seven junior competitors travelled to the National High School Rodeo Finals in America, at Farmington, New Mexico to compete for Australia.

These seven competitors showed the Yanks just how much talent we have here in Australia. Out of the seven competitors five were offered scholarships to colleges in the States.

Two of our top junior competitors Martin Carlo and Jordan O'Neill were offered scholarships to Cochise College in Arizona, with very little notice. These two boys accepted the scholarships and flew out at the beginning of October.

On behalf of everyone I would like to wish these two boys the best of luck at college and hope to see you back in Aussie land soon.
