Rodeo Queen Report

As we head closer to the back stretch of the 2003 season and the November National Rodeo Association Finals, this year's champions' race will be won and lost on the final ride in many events.

As more of our competitors are getting more experience in the rodeo and practice arenas the times and scores are getting closer and closer. This is great for the public appeal of rodeo, and has been especially so in the time box and in all women's events. As I've been talking to many spectators they are taking an increasing interest in the scores, names and times in these events. This is great news to see and hear. It's also apparent by the level of individual sponsorship in timed events that maximum point rodeos will not be diminishing any time soon, though it would be great to revisit some of the towns that have dropped off the circuit.

Sponsorship is an integral part of running a rodeo and to all of rodeo's many community sponsors we thank you enormously. You give each rodeo the ability to put more money back into the community, which would otherwise have to be raised during the rodeo. Rodeo offers sponsors value for their dollars and a new medium to reach their consumers. I truly believe that a sponsor, like our spectators, should get more than they expect when they hand over a cheque to participate at a National Rodeo Association affiliated event. As easy as it is to hand over a cheque, it's easier not to write one for the following year. So at the next rodeo take note of who the sponsors are, and when you're in their store have a chat and thank them for their support.

Rodeos have changed a lot since the days for the "Wild West Shows" and Buck jump displays of the early 1900's. The modern rodeo are run by professional organizations such as community based committees or rodeo producers. Regardless of who produces the rodeo it is up to each competitor to make sure that there is a rodeo to attend the following year. We can better our sport and take rodeo to new levels of professionalism by continuing to support our committees and sponsors.

In my next and final report I'll be reporting what I discovered in the state of wild flowers, Western Australia, where I'll be proudly representing the National Rodeo Association.

Till the next rodeo,

Katie Flynn

N.R.A. are very proud announce that the Jim Beam Silver Buckle Series is again a part of our rodeo season in Queensland and New South Wales for the 2003 season.

In September we travelled to Kenilworth and Kingaroy to continue the Jim Beam Series. Kenilworth was a really great day. Summer was really upon us but the arena setting under the cool trees seemed to capture any breeze that was available. A great crowd were really appreciative of the great competition.

In October we go to Boonah on the 11th and on to the grand finale at Nambour on October 18.

The competition is really hotting up. The points standings are very close in all events especially the men's events. We wish all competitors good luck for this Jim Beam Series.

The N.R.A. Board and members wish to sincerely thank Jim Beam for their ongoing sponsorship of this wonderful series that has been an annual event since 1996.

Congratulations to the Committees for all their interest and hard work in promoting the 2003 Jim Beam Silver Buckle Series of Rodeos.

Friendly Reminders

REFERENCE NUMBERS:

Your reference number is unique to you. Without this number there will be NO investigation of your inquiry, if there are any problems with your entries at a Rodeo. Please have a pen ready and write your reference number in the space provided on the Central Entry Page of your newsletter.

NOMINATIONS:

It is up to each individual competitor to check the draw sheets prior to the commencement of the Rodeo to make sure that their nomination is correct. Please see your event administrator if you have a problem. After the Rodeo has commenced, no discrepancies will be looked into.

CENTRAL ENTRIES:

On the day of the Rodeo, nominations must be paid as promptly as possible – preferably before half time as the Central Entry person is busy doing payouts after this time. Please remember should you have any queries other than those related to central entries on the day please refer these to your event administrator.

CANCELLATIONS:

When cancelling, either by phone or answering machine, you must state the name of the Rodeo, your name, reference number and membership number. Without this information, cancellations cannot be processed and will not be accepted.

PLEASE check cancel out penalties in Central Entry Guidelines.

SLACK:

All members please note. Programs are set by individual committees and it is up to their discretion, which events are to be in the slack or performance. Therefore it is up to you, the competitor to the call the Central Entry line before a rodeo where a slack is advertised. Wherever possible this is available from 12 noon Thursday prior to the Rodeo.

GATELIST:

The gate list is a list of competitors competing on the day at a particular rodeo.

This is issued to committees to allow competitors admission to the rodeo. Competitors only are admitted. You must have your membership card on hand for identification if the committee requires it. In the case where you are competing and your name does not appear on the gate list, you must pay your admission fee and take your ticket to the Central Entries person on the day for verification and refund.

PAYMENT OF FINES:

Any money owed – (fines, turnouts etc) must be paid in full by Monday prior to the rodeo at which you next wish to compete. If an infringement occurs on the day of the Rodeo, the Central Entries officer at that Rodeo has the facility available to accept any owings for turnouts or fines etc. on that particular day. This will ensure your entries are valid for the next rodeo you have entered.

MEDICAL OUTS / INSURANCE CLAIMS:

If a Medical Out is found necessary from an event at a Rodeo, if injured on the day, and unable to compete again, a medical certificate must be obtained from the First Aid Officer on the grounds and submitted to the Central Entries Officer on the day, before the event concludes. This is essential, otherwise a turn out fine is mandatory.

Insurance Claim forms, if applicable, are available from the Central Entries Officer at the Rodeo and must be completed and faxed to the N.R.A. office (0754 957384) by Monday following the Rodeo.
