ABOUT CRAIG HAMILTON:

My roping history must begin with an explanation of my family's history with cattle and horses. My grandfather 'Choc' Hamilton was a member of the first professional cowboy association which was called the 'Turtles' - their motto was you don't get anywhere without sticking your neck out. He then qualified for the first ever team roping national finals held in Clayton, New Mexico.

My father Bill Hamilton grew up roping and working the range with Choc and then ultimately became the team roping champion of the world in the professional rodeo cowboys association. Along with 15 national finals qualifications, he was the National team roping director for eight years, and was the one responsible for making team roping a standard event in the western states. During his term as director he also changed team roping from tie down to dally which as anyone who ropes knows is the reason the immense popularity the sport enjoys today. My own career in roping began at an early age as well. I started swinging a rope about the same time as I started walking and roped my first steer from a horse at the age of 5. Roping, horses and cattle were all that I knew for many years until I became a professional cowboy at the age of 16. One note of distinction here is that I was 'voted' into the pro ranks without having to first fill a rookie permit, something that was rare then and non-existent today.

I team roped and also roped calves at the pro level and qualified for the national finals team roping in 1986 & 87.

Along the way I won or placed at most of the major roping and rodeos in the Nation. A few of my wins at pro level include - Oakdale, CA team roping; Las Vegas NV team roping; Colorado Springs, CO team roping; Rowell ranch rodeo team roping; and Kingman AZ team roping, Denver Stock Show;

Albuquerque, NM; Odessa, Tx; Salt Lake City, Utah, Tuscon AZ, Pheonix AZ, Cave Creek AZ, Clovis Ca, San Fransisco Ca, Palm Springs Ca, Red Lodge Mt, Globe, AZ Prescott, Az, Payson, Az, Bremerton, Wa. Walla Walla, Wa. Greely Co.

I am the only man to ever win all three of the California series 'open to the world' winner take all match ropins in a single year. I won two while heading for Allen Bach, and one while heading for Clay O'Brien Cooper. I also am the co-producer of the team roping instructional video 'Team Roping Basics' with Allen Bach. In 1987 I began to focus more on my training and horsemanship than on the Pro Rodeo trail. Since that time I have taught roping and horsemanship clinics across the US from East to West, and North to South. I teach in Canada, Hawaii, Alaska and soon to be in Australia as well. I teach all aspects of roping, from basics of swinging a rope, to proper body positions, to the most in-depth mental aspects of mind control and winning.

I do not have a gold buckle to show off, what I have instead are great communciation skills, wonderfully clear techniques, a 'give a damn' attitude and far more quality information than you and ten others like you can absorb in any three day clinic. So if you want to seriously improve your 'roping' 'horsemanship' and 'mental game' and serious enough about it to want more from a clinic than to just rub shoulders with the latest name in lights, then I am the best in the business.

In fact, I am so sure about what I can do and show you that I make this guarantee at all of my clinics.

"If for any reason you feel that I have not met or even exceeded your expectations as a clinician, horseman, and a roper I will not charge you one thin dime."

Sincerely CRAIG HAMILTON
