AUGUST 2007

THE COWBOY WAY

Sunday 1st July 2007 at the Mulgowie Hotel was a day which proved that the bond between the Rodeo Community was as strong as ever. With around three hundred people gathering in a relaxed atmosphere that was more like a family BBQ instead of an assembly of top bucking bulls and bull riders all ready to face off and do battle.

The reason for this gathering was not to see who had the best bull or who the best rider was. The goal of this "family" gathering was to rally round a mate, who while doing what he loved almost paid the ultimate sacrifice. That mate is professional bull rider Saras Ramsay, who only a few weeks earlier sustained near fatal injuries at a rodeo which has had him in a serious condition in hospital since.

In an effort to help ease the burden on his wife and two children stock contractor and former professional bull rider Mik Foxlee got on the phone to his fellow stock contracting peers to see what they could do. Eight days later Foxlee had his bulls and those of four other top contractors. Tony Bruggy from Kyogle in New South Wales made the trip up with eight of his best, along with Terry O'Neill from Caboolture, Ricky Ruhland from Mt Walker and Hall Rodeo Company of Willowbank who all donated their time and top bulls to help the cause.

TERRY SHARLAND RESIGNS

The National Rodeo Association has suffered the loss of another Executive Director in June. Terry Sharland resigned citing ill health, family values and maintaining friendships as the reason for his resignation.

Terry has had a long and productive association with the NRA. Commencing as a rodeo committee member, being the father of a former top cowboy in son Brett, official and executive director.

1995 saw Terry accept a non directorship as a marketing consultant. He was elevated to an executive director in 1996 and missing only two meetings continued in this capacity until his resignation.

The Jim Beam Silver Buckle Series was negotiated by him in 1995 and for some 11 years Terry managed this Series, somewhat of a record for a sponsorship agreement. We all owe him a debt of gratitude for its success.

Our Coffee Fix Bull Riding Series in another example of his ability to negotiate with sponsor to ensure a successful result, as this series goes from strength to strength. Many NRA members have won trophies manufactured by Terry. I am please to say many more will as he is continuing to provide end of year surprise awards.

On behalf of the NRA board, members, friends I wish Terry and family a wonderful future and offer our sincere thanks for the contribution and dedication.

DIRECTORS REPORT

Well the year is half over and the bull riding so far has been fantastic. It's great to see the number of entries each weekend and the good Bull rides that are being made. I hope to see it continue for the rest of the year with the title still very much up for grabs.

On a bad note it has been seen that non competitors are going through the return chute while the rodeo is underway. This is not on, this is still part of the arena and as such is not a through way for general traffic.

On a good note the twelve finalists will be receiving Jackets at the finals this year. Only these jackets are not free and we need to find sponsorship for these jackets. So if you have any ideas or know of any one that would like to sponsor these jackets please see me.

Until next time happy rodeoing.

Greg Meech
BULL RIDING DIRECTOR

NEW EXECUTIVE DIRECTORS

Shelley Harrison and Scott Peters were appointed on the 15th July to fill the vacancies left by resignations.

I welcome both Shelley and Scott to the NRA Board and look forward to working with them.

JUNIORS IN RODEO

TIME EVENT SCHOOL

The Time Event School on 7/8 July was a successful as the Rough Stock School, with a 2nd school already planned for Saturday 1st & Sunday 2nd of September. All juniors were enthusiastic, and the instructors very informative. As these schools will be held regularly, the Juniors are encouraged to participate in no more than 2 events over the full weekend, to enable more detailed instruction and structuring of the activities. It is also important for the Juniors interested in certain events to have their own equipment (eg. ropes, pigging strings, horses, helmets etc). Many thanks to Doc, Troy, Terry, Alan, Tanya, Denae, Melissa, Darren, Amanda, Greg, Debbie and Dawn, plus all of the other helpers. It would be appreciated by our Juniors if there are any other Open competitors/members willing to assist at the next school. A 2nd Rough Stock School is in the planning, so keep looking in the newsletter for the date.

IMPORTANT RULES

- It is compulsory for ALL Juniors to wear a PROTECTIVE HELMET when mounted or competing in ANY Rodeo event.
- ALL Juniors competing in ANY Rough Stock event must wear a FULL FACE HELMET and APPROVED VEST.

- If you turn 18 YEARS OF AGE during the current Rodeo season you MUST still abide by the Junior rules when competing in Junior events.
- Juniors competing in OPEN events must have an UPGRADED Open membership as Junior membership only entitles you to compete in Junior events.*
- If you wish to compete in an Open event, you must UPGRADE your membership to Open membership:- both Men's and Ladies' Open membership of $88 (from $44 to $132) plus bond of $35 (from $15 to $50)*

MUDGEERABA KALEN RAMSAY CHARITY RODEO

The Annual Mudgeeraba Community Rodeo is scheduled for Saturday the 6th of October 2007 starting 3pm. The Rodeo has benefited many of the regions community groups that share in the proceeds of the night to enable them to continue their good work throughout the community.

This year the committee has decided to give a smaller percentage of funds raised to each of the community groups, and with the approval of all groups involved is giving the majority of funds raised to benefit a child. In association with "Variety Queensland, we have found a young boy, Kalen Ramsey, who has a life threatening heart condition and will require ongoing hospitalisation, surgery and aftercare during his lifetime. We would like to assist him with financial contribution towards his ongoing care, education or other valid needs.

We believe our patrons will wholly support a charity rodeo that goes beyond supporting the current community groups. We also anticipate the rodeo community rallying to ensure that this rodeo is a huge success.

The Cowboy Way

“Saras probably doesn’t have an enemy anywhere in the world” commented arena announcer Morris Morton, “To see so many competitors and fans turn up all to help one man is inspirational and shows that the cowboy spirit is really alive” he continued.

So many bull riders dug into their pockets paying a reasonable fee to enter the bull ride all because they knew that it was going to be used to help out someone that could have quite easily have been one of them. The truly inspirational part of the day was when the winners cheques were handed out each one of them were handed straight back with the words “This one’s for Saras”.

It wasn’t just bull riders and bull contractors who dug deep to help, Bullseye Clothing Company & Eddie Fisher Rodeo Equipment donated plenty of bits and pieces that were raffled and auctioned off through out the 4 hours of entertainment that had the small but vocal crowd cheering as they saw some immense efforts by the bull riders to win a great trophy that was supplied courtesy of Mick Morriskee. “We all just wanted to win it so bad” said Australian Professional Rodeo champion Martin Carlo “I couldn’t think of a bigger honour than to walk away with a trophy named after Saras”.

Carlo who put a great ride at the start of the day that looked like walking off with the trophy until in the last section of the day when young Jared Borghero rode well enough to be the eventual winner. The junior section was won buy Damien Clarke while Jarvis Sawtell took out the poddy riding title.

Foxlee was astounded by the support he had received from so many people “this started out as a day where a few mates who practice here were going to get together buck some bulls and pass the hat around to get a few dollars” said Foxlee trying to contain his emotion, “this is just amazing you forget how close we really are until something like this happens, it is great to see the sport give something back to someone who put so much into it”.

The Highlight for everyone was when halfway through the show a live phone conversation with Saras was broadcast over the arena sound system. Saras, who was a little lost as to what to say, seemed to cheer up when he heard what was going on. His final words though were more than enough to get a great cheer from every person there, “Thank You”.

The National Rodeo Association and "Coffee Fix" has pleasure in presenting the
