A BROKEN FENDER

I'll try not to cry while writing this as I try to overcome emotions after what you would call "very lucky to be here". Words cannot express deeply enough the appreciation of all the get well messages from NRA members and friends. I'm totally overwhelmed by the dozens upon dozens of phone calls, messages, cards, flowers and those who visited me in hospital. So on a mega scale "Thank You" to all. With so much support, I had to fight the battle and not let you down or my four-legged family.

A brief report to put rumours right as to my 16 day stay in hospital. My roping saddle had a broken fender and we had to throw a stock saddle on Flasho to lead a young horse about. I can't be sure just what went wrong but I feel sure that either the saddle or girth pinched him, because he went in happy and relaxed to start broncoing, I stepped off him (being an old goat tying champ from my fossil years) Flasho side stepped away from me and in doing so, he collected me with his near hind in the right kidney area.

I can not praise the staff at the Ipswich at the Ipswich General Hospital enough as I was given the very best care. During my 5½ days in I.C.U. my bed was continually surrounded by doctors and nurses monitoring fractured ribs, renal and abdo problems. One thought that crossed my mind was maybe close by to grab my useful parts if I snuffed it. I did manage to tell them not to bother listening for a heart beat 'cause I have no heart. My most worrying point was when the anaesthetist came to see me before going into the theatre, I was sure he was coming to put me down.

FINAL THANKS:

I would just like to take this opportunity to thank everyone for their help at the finals this year. I think everyone enjoyed themselves, and this year has seen some changes that will take our finals to a new level.

Many thanks must firstly go to the promoters of the Finals, Jason & Steve for a fantastic rodeo at Ipswich and Doc Cavanagh and the Caboolture Show Society for yet another two great rounds at Caboolture. A special thankyou to Jo and Eddie Fisher for the trophy saddles and buckles. The saddle I received this year, would without a doubt be one of the best I have won. A job well done to you both Jo and Eddie, and I think it will look awesome on the Grey! To Shellie Harrison for her continued help at all three rounds of the finals, gathering up the go-round winners, and to Kayla for patiently holding horses throughout the three rounds. To everyone else who helped make the autograph booth a success and to everyone involved in organising the whole event, especially Jocelyn, Indra, Bill and all the executive board and directors. Congrats on a job well executed! Also a big thankyou to Blue Dog Jeans for their kind generosity in sponsoring a pair of jeans to all the Breakaway roping cowgirls, and providing us with caps to throw out to the crowd as we Ride Tuff for their support. Bundaberg Rum and other sponsors - thankyou very much - we appreciate your support.

I would also like to thank everyone for their well wishes for Mick during his time of troubles. He had a "melanoma" removed and we are pleased to say that he has been given the all clear. It was great to get the amount of phone calls we had wishing Mick well and the offers of help and support which were much welcoming. It is good to know that people do care and that we have some GREAT friends to rely on. We thank you sincerely.

On a last note, I wish to announce that Craig Hamilton will be returning to Australia next year - April/May, and will be holding some 4 hour clinics. They will be held at night between 6-10pm. There will be advanced Team Roping clinics and beginner clinics for anyone wishing to attend. We found these clinics much more worker friendly, so that everyone does not have to tie up their weekends, and you don't have to break the bank to attend. So if anyone is interested in attending these clinics please do not hesitate to contact me as soon as possible so that I can arrange your booking. These clinics will be designed to "cut to the chase" for the advanced schools and get some serious roping done.

I hope that everyone has had a well earned rest over Xmas (YOU & YOUR HORSE). Get ready and get focused for the next season. Good luck to everyone for 2007.

Kind Regards

Judy Gough

I would like to thank Katie Upton for lending me "Wombles" for the Junior Finals and the Whitwell family for lending me "Rebel" in the Open Finals. Without the loan of these two great horses, I would not have been able to ride at any of the three rounds of the finals. Also thanks to all those who offered me horses after my horse got sick at Warwick rodeo.

I would also like to thank Mum and Dad who have made everything possible and everybody else who has helped me throughout the year. It is greatly appreciated. Looking forward to another great year of rodeo this year.

Thanks

Bianca Weier

I'll try not to cry while writing this as I try to overcome emotions after what you would call "very lucky to be here". Words cannot express deeply enough the appreciation of all the get well messages from NRA members and friends. I'm totally overwhelmed by the dozens upon dozens of phone calls, messages, cards, flowers and those who visited me in hospital. So on a mega scale "Thank You" to all. With so much support, I had to fight the battle and not let you down or my four-legged family.

A brief report to put rumours right as to my 16 day stay in hospital. My roping saddle had a broken fender and we had to throw a stock saddle on Flasho to lead a young horse about. I can't be sure just what went wrong but I feel sure that either the saddle or girth pinched him, because he went from happy and relaxed to start broncoing. I stepped off him (being an old goat tying champ from my fossil years) Flasho side stepped away from me and in doing so, he collected me with his near hind in the right kidney area.

I can not praise the staff at the Ipswich at the Ipswich General Hospital enough as I was given the very best care. During my 5½ days in I.C.U. my bed was continually surrounded by doctors and nurses monitoring fractured ribs, renal and abdo problems. One thought that crossed my mind was maybe close by to grab my useful parts if I snuffed it. I did manage to tell them not to bother listening for a heart beat 'cause I have no heart. My most worrying point was when the anaesthetist came to see me before going into the theatre, I was sure he was coming to put me down.

Getting home was wonderful – the things in life that we take so much for granted such as fresh air, looking out the door to see my horses, the dogs and have the cats on my bed. Pod and Polly (calves) looking to get back in the house yard.

The one who has been on the emotional roller coaster is my partner Bruce. He has been a tremendous support and is so very caring. I also thank those of you who have been there for him to lean on.

Sadly it seems, Casey who is back in Montana, received very few of all the messages left for her, and updating her of my well being. However we have spoken several times since my home coming. That's more than enough on poor old Kim.

Number One – what a great 3 rounds of the finals, congratulations to Bill and the finals committee, directors, Stock Contractors and all the hard working "behind the scenes people". Arena conditions were very good and stock were even lines. Eddie & Jo Fisher – the trophies supplied by you were second to none – Excellent.

From juniors and up what quality "truck loads of trophies. Congratulations and thank you to all of the sponsors. Without you and all those who put in heaps of effort, our great Association would not be so successful. Another "pat on the back" to the little winners, bucking stock, down to the smaller trophy collectors.

On behalf of the girls/ladies of NRA, I would like to express a huge thanks to our directors. Shelley Harrison – setting up barrel patterns (so often with Dale Frahm's help) thanks Dale. It seems even running around three drums can still cause disputes and Shelley handled these well. Judy Gough – just so totally devoted and dedicated to our sport; you are just making it bigger and better. The extra efforts after sourcing Blue Dog sponsorship. Another to mention – Lisa Sutherland for organising the Breakaway Roping caps. All of things have nearly become things of the past.

So often overlooked, are the overworked office ladies. Wouldn't answering that damn phone so many times in one day send most of us around the twist, let alone always being so polite.

Joc - we get to see you at a lot of rodeos, however Indra, is the voice behind the phone many of you have never met. The gifts of appreciation presented to you at the finals, is a small token of thanks for your work in the running of the office.

I'd like to again thank you for all the "well wishes". Best of luck for 2007 and can't wait to be back amongst my rodeo family.

Be safe and Treasure every day.

Also big congratulations to all the 2006 NRA Rodeo Champions. On behalf of all the Girls I would like to say a huge thank you to Nicole Cavanagh, you did a wonderful job with organizing the quest. To all the Judges who took the time out of their day to judge the Quest Thank you, it wouldn't have been an easy job. I would like to take this opportunity to thank the Sponsors of the Rodeo Queen, NRA, Bullzye for the Jacket, Spike and Judy Johnson for my Buckle, and to Southern Cross Saddlery for my Breast Plate, I will wear these with pride.

There are a few people I would like to thank on behalf of myself, Shelley Harrison, The Young Family, The Armitage Family and most of all Denae Hart and her beautiful Horse Cruize. I would also like to thank Mum, Dad and Richard for all their help and to anyone else who helped me on the day, you girls know who you are, and without all of these people I couldn't have done it, Thank You.

Well as the new season is upon us, Good Luck to everyone. If there is anything I can do for anyone throughout the 2007 year please feel free to contact me. Congratulations to both Troy and Nicole Cavanagh on the birth of their baby boy.

Until my next report, Travel Safe.
