NRA NEW RULING

It was passed at the recent NRA FULL BOARD OF DIRECTORS meeting:

That all Parents/Guardian accompanying any junior competitors into a competitor's only area (ie. Behind the chute box area and time event areas) must abide by the NRA ruling in dress code for members.

Parents/Guardian must be in full western attire, consisting of a hat, boots, jeans or western pants and a long sleeve western shirt with sleeves buttoned down and a collar. All attire must be worn in a neat and tidy manner.

Failure to abide by this ruling in the restricted competitors only area will result in the Parent/Guardian being removed by the security and the junior competitor's entry will be withdrawn. This motion was carried unanimously.

Thank you for your cooperation in this matter.

Blackbutt rodeo will see my return to the saddle after the injury I acquired late last year.
