DIRECTORS REPORT:

Welcome to 2009 a year we trust will be dilemma free after having to cope with the EI for the last two years.

Congratulations to all the 2008 Award recipients and our 2009 Rodeo Queen and Princesses.

I would especially like to thank Indra and Helen for their work in the office. Thank you to all executive directors and all the operational directors for their hard work throughout the year. Welcome to our new directors – I hope you enjoy your contribution to the Association - sometimes it is a thankless job but other times very rewarding. Many thanks to our outgoing directors for their input to the Association. I would also like to thank the members, committees and contractors for their co-operation with the office.

It was disappointing that Ipswich Finals could not go ahead because of weather conditions. I would like to thank Doc Cavanagh and his merry men for the setting up and running of the Caboolture rodeo, the people in the spotlight and the tireless workers behind the scenes, the bar personal and all the volunteers who helped Dale in the bar. My personal thanks goes to Judy Gough who did a great job organizing the Grand Entry. Peta Browne was a great help in getting the presentation truck ready. Thank you to Chris Howard for the use of his truck, Mark Frahm for the use of his ute for the Champions laps, Joy for helping in the office, and last but not least - Jason Hall – he saved me so much work by being on the job and calculating all the recipients of the close events and believe me that was quite a task. This year saw a Doc Cavanagh innovation with the Champion's lap of honour and introduction to the audience.

I would especially like to thank Snow Fox and Terry O'Neill – they have been such a help taking the Central Entries boxes to rodeos if they cannot be picked up.

Without a rodeo queen for 2008 I would like to give Bianca Weier a big pat on the back for organizing the grand entries. This year wherever possible at Championship rodeos the grand entry participants will be posted on the internet along with the draws etc.

All the best for 2009.

Jocelyn Frahm
Executive Director

Thank you to all the members who attended the A.G.M. Your show of support and interest in N.R.A. is greatly appreciated. Welcome to all new and retaining Directors for 2009 and thank you to all out-going Directors for your continued support throughout.

I would like to sincerely thank everyone for their phone calls, visits and cards after the loss of my beloved partner Roy Kelly.

To the people who offered to pick up Roy's horses and look after them for me, your kindness and generosity was truly appreciated.

Thank-you for the many offers to help me pack and move. No words can express my gratitude to you all.

As I struggle to put my shattered life back together, your love and kindness help me face another day.

"Rest in Peace, Roy, I love you and miss you every minute of every day".

My love and many, many thanks to you all.

Shirley Garland.

First, I would like to thank everyone who helped and supported me in 2008.

I am pleased to see the regular high number of competitors that supported the Association throughout the year. Contractors and Committees alike have put in a lot of effort to keeping stock and grounds in good condition. However, some of the arenas being both portable and permanent need some attention for both public and competitors' safety.

Also, thanks to all the bull fighters and comedy clowns for there relentless efforts, I hope to see good support and a good following for the 2009 rodeo season.

Malcolm Wieland
Director Bull Ride Events

*Peter 'Tex' Burn has been donating the encouragement award for the N.R.A. Finals for over 10 years.

RODEO QUEEN REPORT

Hello to all and welcome to another exciting year of rodeo. What a great honour it is to be crowned 2009 NRA Rodeo Queen. Firstly I would like to congratulate our 2009 Rodeo Princess Maddison Swan and 2009 Junior Princess Ashleigh Howard on their success. Well done to all of our other entrants for setting a great standard of competition. I would like to say a sincere thank you to everybody involved in running the Rodeo Queen and Princess competition. Without these people I would not have this great opportunity of representing our fantastic sport of rodeo as the Rodeo Queen.

The beautiful Gist buckle I received was so kindly donated by Spike and Judy Johnstone. These fantastic sponsors have seen our queens and princesses wearing quality buckles since 1979. Thank-you Spike and Judy. I would like to acknowledge Nicole Cavanagh for all her hard work and dedication throughout the year to ensure our competition is a success. Thank you to Ridetuff rodeo equipment for the lovely accessories I received as prizes. A special thanks to Jo Fisher and Suzanne Brooks for taking time to help me throughout the year, and I cannot forget my dear friends Eddie and Maryanne Powell from Trails End Saddles who are always at hand to offer any assistance they can possibly give. They have been a great help to me in my journey to become Rodeo Queen.

Thank you to all my friends and family and most importantly to my best friend and partner Davey Dean, who travelled everywhere with me no matter what and encouraged me to do and be my best in spite of the fact he was injured in early 2008 and unable to compete himself. So without further ado let's get to doing what we all like doing best and hope to see lots of queen and princess entrants this year. See you all out there.

Louise Wilson.

DIRECTOR STEER WRESTLING REPORT

To start my report off I would like to thank Brad Henry for doing such a great job in the Directorship. I only hope I can do just as good a job. I have taken on this position because I firmly believe Steer Wrestling to be one of the strongest events in the NRA. So I think it has a very good future. While contractors and directors are working together to supply good lines of cattle. I think it can only go in one direction and that is Up. The Ian Allen Iron Man series has been running for a few years now and is gaining more interest every year. I have had the pleasure of winning this series for the past two years and I am so honoured to win the beautiful Ride Tuff buckle that goes along with it. If you have any questions about this series please come and have a talk to me at any rodeo. In closing I would just like to say to all the Steer Wrestlers, I am here to make this event a great event, so if you have any questions or ideas, please come and talk to me.

Just remember - You only get out of it, What you put into it.....

Thank-you Shane Hart Director Steer Wrestling.

DIRECTOR'S REPORT

I would like to thank all the competitors who have been going in the Grand Entries last year, with a huge Thank-you to Bianca Weier for organising the majority of them. I would like to remind everyone to check at the Central Entries for the list on the day of the rodeo. There have been a few competitors on the list not turning up for the Grand Entries. This just makes us look a bit silly when the announcer calls your name and no one enters the arena.

6) Congratulations to this year's winners – Louise Wilson, Rodeo Queen; Maddison Swan, Rodeo Princess; and Ashleigh Howard, Junior Rodeo Princess.

All the entrants looked fantastic and the hard work they put in showed. The judges did have a hard time. I would like to make special mention of Sheridan Giles and Tamika Anderson, who both raised more money than they were required.

I would like to thank the NRA and Spike Johnstone for the Buckles, and Ridetuff – Eddie Fisher for helping with prizes.

The last couple of years have hit the Association hard. I hope that 2009 can be a bigger, better year for Rodeo.

All contract stock must be selected from Contractors listings published in NRA Monthly Sport News.

Please contact the N.R.A. Office at least two (2) weeks prior to your Rodeo with names of your Contractors, Judges, Chute boss, Timekeepers, Pick-up Team and Bull Fighting Clowns, Announcer – all of whom must be N.R.A. Members.

ELECTRONIC TRANSFERS AND CREDIT CARD PAYMENTS

Please note that all payments must be received by Wednesday before the rodeo that you are competing in. Therefore please ensure that all transfers are processed by Monday 9.00pm to allow office staff to check payment has been received. Please ensure that you print receipts for any electronic payments that you make and you advise the office by fax, email or phone when the payment is made. If the payment is not received by the office on Friday and you have no proof (receipt), you will have to pay on the day of the rodeo. If the payment is then credited to our account we will make a refund to you if you have paid twice.

Now that all horse movement has been made easier please do not take it for granted - please help yourself and our committees by having the correct paperwork completed prior to the rodeo.

Rookie and Novice

Rookie Competition:

- A Rookie is a member in their first or second year of Rodeo.
- A Rookie Title can be won in their first or second year of membership.
 Points are accrued from Open Competition Only.
 (Rookie points are recorded in the Open Standings in the newsletter with an R beside the competitor's name).
- A Rookie is eligible for Novice Money until they "Break Open"

Rookie Breaks Open

- (1) Wins a title
- (2) Accrues 1000 Novice points in an event
- (3) Completes second year of membership

In all of the above the member will then be deemed to be an open competitor only.

ALL ROOKIE COMPETITORS MUST ADVISE THE OFFICE IN WRITING OF THEIR ROOKIE STATUS.

Novice Competition:

- A novice competitor is a member competing in an event not competed in by said member and has been a financial member of N.R.A. for at least two years.
- A Novice competitor is allowed 1000 points and Novice Money until they break open and become an open member.

Novice Points do not appear in the standings in the Newsletter. All inquiries regarding Novice Points should be directed to the N.R.A. Office.

As a competitor "Breaks Open" they will be notified in writing from the Office and recorded in the "Break Open" Register. The competitors who have "Broken Open" will be published in the monthly Newsletter.
