JULY 2009

“FROM CABOOLTURE to BEAUDESERT WITH PRIDE”

Greetings once again, what a great year I am having. Firstly I would like to say a huge thank you to our judges and volunteers who support the Queen and Princess quests and assist me in my quest to give the words “Rodeo Queen” even greater meaning. With record numbers of queen and princess entrants all dressed and performing to a standard worthy of a win in anyone’s books. These ladies look stunning and it is obvious how much time is spent preparing themselves and their lovely mounts that draw the attention of the crowds. Keep it up girls. Congratulations to all the winners throughout the year so far and to Stacey Kettleton, Rebecca Young and Cheyenne Lange who took home prizes from Caboolture on June 6.

RODEO QUEEN REPORT - Continued

Big thank-you's to all for participating in the Grand Entries and helping to make it a spectacular sight. I would also like to let everyone know that on Sunday June 14, 2009, my daughter Layla Wilson and myself participated in the parade of 1000 Hooves as part of the Country and Horse Festival at Beaudesert. I dressed in my best NRA Queen outfit and Layla her best NRA Princess outfit and our ponies looked pristine for the event. I carried the NRA flag and 6 year old Layla rode unaided through the crowded street. As we led the procession the National Rodeo Association was mentioned several times.

We entered the main arena while a child sang "I still call Australia Home" over the loud speaker. I sat tall and my pride swelled as the crowd clapped as we went by. Layla knew that it was of course really all about her, after all she did know a good portion of the grand stand. Good thing we were out in front because she may very well have had a collision while busily waving back to everyone aboard her trusty pony. The local newspaper have since contacted me (in regard to the young lady I had riding with me) and requested a story about her for next weeks sports section in the Beaudesert Times paper. I also hope to get a picture in the festival round up edition printing on June 17, 2009. What a great feeling it is to open the door to the world for a child. It is with pleasure that I say thank you once more to all the fantastic people that make up our association and I look forward to seeing you all out there.

CABOOLTURE COUNTRY MUSIC FESTIVAL 2009 HAS COME AND GONE.

With great success.

Our appreciation goes to all those members and supporters who gave their time to work at the recent Urban Country Music festival in Caboolture. Special thanks to Terry O'Neill, who was the NRA coordinator at this year's festival.

A lot of time and effort goes into the preparation and organization of this event. This involves many hours prior to as well as on the day. It entails organizing of the ordering, setting up of the bar and the rosters of workers shifts on the day, as well as supervision on the night.

As this is one of our major fundraising events of the year it is a very important project and we thank all those who were involved.

A BIG THANKS TO EVERYONE

Thank you also to all those "locals" who under the guidance of Terry O'Neill, assisted the Caboolture Show Society to set up the recent Caboolture rodeo. The Caboolture Show Society is very appreciative of this assistance as the rodeo was a great success.

Our gratitude also to all those who contributed to making the Junior Rodeo so successful. All the arena officials give their time voluntarily and much of the Junior stock was donated. Thank you to Indra and Kim Clarke for being the "expert little secretaries". The Association would welcome the assistance of any additional junior parents who would be willing to assist with the running of these Junior events in the future.

THANK YOU
NRA Board.

JUNIORS IN RODEO

CABOOLTURE JUNIOR RODEO

Thank you to everyone who supported the Caboolture Junior Rodeo, the increase in numbers indicates your commitment to the Juniors.

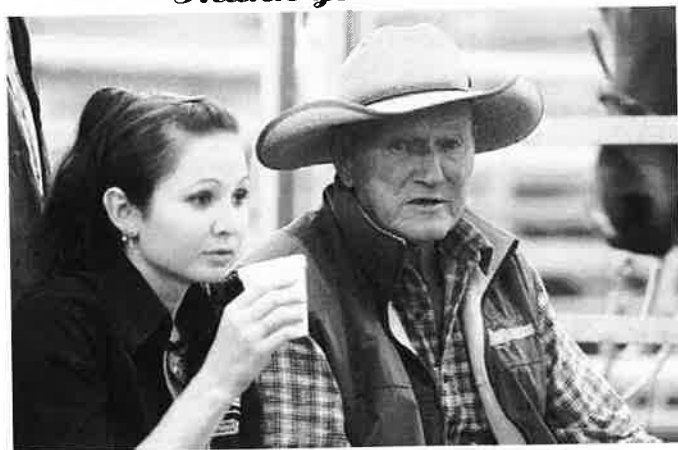

Thank you to the people who volunteered with the Caboolture Junior Rodeo especially; Snow Fox for his contribution towards the prize money and his time spent, Scott Peters for Chute Bossing on the day and also his donation towards the Dummy Roping (7 years and Under). Also, Bill Urquhart for Announcing, Peta Browne for Time Keeping and Announcing, Steve Organ-Moore for Time Keeping, Murray Whitwell and Scott Augustin for Judging and also a big thank you to the Caboolture Show Society for their continued support with the Junior and Open Rodeos.

There seems to be a misconception about the future of Juniors at NRA, we can assure you all that the NRA will always be committed to the Juniors. We have one of the best support programmes for the Juniors compared with the other rodeo associations.

Congratulation to all the winners at the rodeo and best of luck to all Juniors for the rest of the year.

Thank you,
Terry O'Neill
NRA Junior Director
