ENTRY AT RODEOS

To all Parents, Guardians, Siblings and Partners accompanying Junior competitors to any NRA rodeos.

Rodeos are conducted by various committee/promoters and therefore they control entry costs into the rodeo. The N.R.A. has "NO AGREEMENT" with these parties for reduced entry costs for persons accompanying Junior competitors (Parents/Guardians/ Siblings and Partners).

There have been special cases where the committee and some promoters agreeing to a special rate per adult accompanying a junior competitor e.g. Caboolture November 2008. This is in no way a fixed or compulsory entry fee for all other rodeos. Should you wish to find out if there are any special entry fees, please ring the NRA office one week prior to any rodeo to confirm this.

Expecting a special rate on the day of the rodeo where there is none is unacceptable. Please co-operate with the committees/promoters.

We thank the committee/promoters who do provide a special rate for adults accompanying Juniors at certain rodeos.

Your continued co-operation towards a fantastic day at a rodeo for everyone is greatly appreciated.

Thank you.
