IAN ALLEN IRON MAN CHALLENGE

PROUDLY SPONSORED BY:
“BEACHMERE FIBREGLASS”

HISTORY OF THE IAN ALLEN IRON MAN CHALLENGE

This year welcomes the fifth year of competition in the Ian Allen Iron Man Challenge.

The Iron Man Challenge was named after a fellow competitor who has shown true spirit and dedication to the sport of Steer Wrestling and as a result, the Ian Allen Iron man Challenge was born.

Ian has been a true inspiration having had 40 years of experience under his belt thus far. He has achieved seven runner-up titles before becoming Steer Wrestling champion in 1986 and he continues to perform at every event possible.

Ian has qualified for 30 finals rodeos, won some of our biggest rodeos in our country, including Warwick and still competes at the age of 56.

The aim of the challenge is to encourage competitors to be more consistent and travel to as many rodeos as possible. It has been proven that consistency wins this title.

The Challenge rules operate as follows:

1. Catch a steer – receive that time;
2. Miss a steer and receive 40 seconds;
3. Not entered at a rodeo and receive 60 seconds.

An aggregate of points is taken over the year of competition and the competitor with the lowest time wins a “Ride Tuff” Ian Allen Iron Man Challenge buckle.

The Challenge has been lucky enough to secure a major sponsor for the next five years from Simon at “Beachmere Fibreglass” to ensure this award will be around for some time to come.
