THE PARENTS/GUARDIAN DUTY OF CARE TO ALL JUNIOR COMPETITORS.

It is the responsibility of all Junior Parents that their Junior Competitor is accompanied to a rodeo by a parent or guardian.

If in the circumstance this is not possible, a responsible ADULT should be appointed by the parent or guardian to act as custodian for that junior competitor.

In this case the onus is on the appointed person to act in the best interest of the junior competitor and on behalf of the parent and in which case the parent should accept the decisions or actions taken by the appointed responsible person.

DIRECTORS REPORT

Well you would swear it was last year all over again with the wet weather playing havoc on rodeos. We have missed out on a couple but hopefully the rest of the year will be kind to us. It's great to see some of our young Steer Wrestlers winning and keeping us older fellas honest. Keep up the good work. That's about it for my report; just remember to stay safe while travelling.

Thanks

Shane Hart
