RODEO QUEEN REPORT

This has been a busy month for all involved with the Queen and Princess Quest and those assisting with the Grand Entries.

Rathdowney Queen and Princess Quest was a huge success with 10 cowgirls competing for the title. Due to the number of Cowgirls competing and with limited time, the Quest was held before the slack. This proved to be a success and will be used at some Rodeos later in the year, so Please check what time each Quest will be held. I would like to thank our Judges Dallas Rumbelow, Angelina Palarozzo and Angie Dabble. The Judges were impressed with the level of competition and the amount of time that had obviously been spent in preparation for the Quest.

This Level of competition was raised yet again at Kingaroy Rodeo. We started the Quest off with interviews on foot, with the Judges Lou Loudon and Tania McAuliffe, commenting on the level of Knowledge, particularly of some of the younger Cowgirls. Once the interviews were over we regrouped in the Arena. 12 Cowgirls and their horses standing proudly in the sun! This was also the first time I awarded the 'Miss Cowgirl' award. I have made this award to recognise Cowgirls that many not always win, but to Cowgirls that show - hart for their sport, kindness and care to their horses, are willing to assist when needed, in general show themselves as true Cowgirls both in and out of the arena. We would like to say thankyou to the Heaton Family for sponsoring both of these Quest.

On the 9th of April I was invited to be one of the Judges at the Conondale Miss Rodeo Princess Dance. This was a great opportunity to meet people and talk to people about the NRA rodeo later in the year. I was joined by the State Member for Glasshouse, Andrew Powell along with Jim and Sandra Goulton from Maleny Showcase Jewellers. The winner of the seniors was Jessie Fyfe-Farell, Intermediate was Sarah Peters and the Junior winner was Audrey Rose Torielli. Congratulations to all of the girls and I wish you all well for your future endeavours.

The next NRA Quest will be held at Dayboro Rodeo, Widgee Rodeo and Gympie Rodeo. Cowgirls wishing to compete in these Quest please contact me before the rodeo so I am able to organise sufficient time.

RODEO QUEEN AND PRINCESS

Hello all,

For those of you who are unaware, Louise Wilson has resigned from her position as Rodeo Queen and Princess Co-ordinator due to personal commitments. On behalf of the N.R.A. Board and the Quest Entrants, I would like to thank Louise for her hard work and effort during her term.

At the recent board meeting it was resolved that Rodeo Queen and Princess would be included within my portfolio as an Executive Director. I thank the board for this appointment and thoroughly look forward to working with Bobbi-Jo, Sharni, Jess and all entrants this year.

A Handbook is currently being prepared which will detail all information entrants need to know in relation to the Quest for the crowning of the 2012 title holders including nomination requirements, judging, fundraising requirements etc.

If you are interested in running for Rodeo Queen, Princess or Junior Princess at this year's finals and have not done so already, please provide me with your email address and phone number so that I can ensure you receive all the information you will need.

If you have any queries in relation to the Quests to be run throughout the year, you should contact the Rodeo Queen, Bobbi-Jo Blake. Alternatively, if you have any comments or concerns or your question is regarding the end of year Quest, please feel free to contact me on 0438 386 092.

Stay tuned for further updates in upcoming newsletters or join the Facebook group – 2012 NRA Rodeo Queen and Princess Quest!

Safe travels.

"A Great Weekend Away"

I've just sat down, we've unpacked the truck, settled my horses in their yards with a rub on the side of their face saying "thanks mate" as we had such an achieving weekend.

We had been at the Whitwell's for the first of Bobbi-Jo's Queen/Princess schools. My new horse had a great first day out in the arena. On Saturday morning it started with ourselves, my first thought "oh boy I need some help here".

The help and support was there.

Special thanks to Bobbi-Jo, Debbie and Nicole. We learnt so much over the two days in all areas covered.

The ladies and girls this year are so down to earth and approachable not to mention fun to be around.

We all have a great appreciation for rodeo and have pride for ourselves and our horses.

I would really recommend anyone to come along to these schools. Great way to touch up on skills, improve horsemanship and knowledge.

Thank you to all who helped and gave their time and support. Thank you sponsors for our lovely gifts and prizes.

Great job Bobbi-Jo.
