EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR'S REPORT

I find it really disappointing that my first letter as a member of the NRA Executive Board has to be tarnished with negativity. What is the job of the Board of Directors? I believe the main roles are to discuss and make decisions, to attend Board Meetings and to assist in the general wellbeing of the National Rodeo Association. Decisions are not made lightly and are discussed in great detail at each and every meeting with the people in attendance. When a decision needs to be made, it is voted on. The decision with the highest votes is then carried. It is therefore very disappointing when someone is singled out and ridiculed over a decision that has been voted on and passed as a majority rules vote. It is important to make sure you are not caught up with one side of a story. The aim is to try to get a balance of both sides so you are not flooded with a distorted view of the situation.

Also, there seems to be a lot of people who have a lot to say, but not many people who are willing to put their hand up for the job! At the end of this year there will be quite a few openings on the Board, so if you think you have what it takes, step up and put your name down. If you aren't happy with decisions that are being made, get on the Board! We all try the best we can, but there are always going to be differing opinions and beliefs. So by all means, come on the Board and have your say!

On a happier note, it is great to see the level of competition heating up as we are gaining pace towards the Finals! I should make for a great 3 rounds of rodeo! Remember, winning is great, but doing your best is what really matters! "For myself, losing is not coming second. It's getting out of the water knowing you could have done better. For myself, I have won every race I've been in." Ian Thorpe

Safe Travels,

Shandelle Voll
Executive Director

Due to the number of "stories" and fabricating gossip I have heard in relation to Running P Saddles, I have contacted Chris from Running P Saddlery in regards to the quality of the saddles they will be supplying to the 2011 NRA Champions. I have made regular contact with Chris from Running P in regards to the saddles and below you can read both the e-mail I sent to Running P in regards to saddle quality and the response I received.

"Hi Chris,

I just wanted to ask you a couple of questions. I have been hearing reports that Running P has a couple of "standards" of saddle. Obviously the more expensive saddles are quite reputable. However I have heard that the standard "trophy saddle" is a cheaper version that doesn't have the same great reputation. I am just trying to find out, because the switch to Running P Saddles has caused quite a lot of friction on the Board over here which has resulted in resignations. As I am the one who is doing all of the organising, I am now the one who is the main point of attack for changing from our previous supplier. I guess I am just trying to say that there is going to be some VERY tough critics of Running P saddles and I just want to make sure that the quality is going to match the Tod Slone saddles we have been getting in recent years. I am sorry to bombard you with all of this, but this situation has escalated rapidly over here and I am the one with my head on the chopping block! I am sure you can appreciate my concern. I am really disappointed that it has come to having to ask this again, as you guys have been extremely helpful and understanding throughout the whole process! I just hope that these are the best saddles the NRA have seen!

Thanks,
Shandelle"

"Hello Shandelle,

Please don't hesitate to ask any questions throughout the process. That is what we are here for. The only thing I can think of that you may be referring to is our Shootout Saddlery line. That is some saddles that are very standard that we contract out. That is not the saddles that we are doing for you. The saddles that you selected are completely handmade in our shop. I assure you that I will personally inspect your saddles throughout the process and they will be our top quality. I am sure you and your members will be very happy.

Thanks,
Chris"

ROOKIE AND NOVICE*Rookie Competition:

- A Rookie is a member in their first or second year of Rodeo.
- A Rookie Title can be won in their first or second year of membership.
Points are accrued from Open Competition Only.
(Rookie points are recorded in the Open Standings in the newsletter with an R beside the competitor's name).
- A Rookie is eligible for Novice Money until they "Break Open"

Rookie Breaks Open

- (1) Wins a title
- (2) Accrues 1000 Novice points in an event
- (3) Completes second year of membership

In all of the above the member will then be deemed to be an open competitor only.

ALL ROOKIE COMPETITORS MUST ADVISE THE OFFICE IN WRITING OF THEIR ROOKIE STATUS.

Novice Competition:

- A novice competitor is a member competing in an event not competed in by said member and has been a financial member of N.R.A. for at least two years.
- A Novice competitor is allowed 1000 points and Novice Money until they break open and become an open member.

Novice Points do not appear in the standings in the Newsletter. All inquiries regarding Novice Points should be directed to the N.R.A. Office.

Breaking Open:

As a competitor "Breaks Open" they will be notified in writing from the Office and recorded in the "Break Open" Register. The competitors who have "Broken Open" will be published in the monthly Newsletter. These competitors are no longer classed as a Novice Competitor and they are also no longer eligible for Novice money or points. However your Rookie (R) status will remain in the standings until the end of the Rodeo Season.
