2012 Rodeo Queen Report

This is my first report as 2012 National Rodeo Queen and I would like to thank many people for making this possible. The support that I received, not only from my friends and family but from members of NRA who are now new friends was overwhelming. Thank you for taking me in as if I was family. For 2012, I hope to do you all proud representing our association as Queen.

Just a little about myself - I am from Haden, QLD. My husband Matt Boland competes in the bull riding and I, the barrels. I have a 1yr old son Dustin Elliot Boland and he has just started to walk. He currently wants to do anything that dad does so we may have a future bull rider in our hands! Fingers crossed he takes more of a liking to horses (no offence to the bull riders out there©).

I would like to thank Bobbi-Jo, 2011 Rodeo Queen, and Stacey Ebert the Queen Director for putting so much effort into all the girls throughout the year and putting together an amazing finals and great prizes. My family and friends, too many to name, were behind me the whole way and gave me much appreciated support. I would like to thank Maryanne and Eddie Powell for their time and effort with all the girls holding saddle and Queen Schools and just helping us when we needed it. One friend in particular, Kristie Hall, has helped me throughout the year. Kristie has put up with my forever indecisiveness on what to wear or what horse to take. So thank you Kristie for putting up with me.

I'd like to congratulate my fellow competitors throughout the year who made it a tough competition but also a fun experience. I have made new friendships which will last well and truly longer than the title. I would also like to congratulate our new Rodeo Princess Mikyla Hogno and our Junior Princess Cheyanne Emes as I look forward to representing NRA along side of you.

To all the quest competitors for 2011, I hope you all compete in this year's quest. Many people have said how anyone of the 2011 competitors were worthy of the title and that the level of competition over the year was outstanding. To anyone else thinking of running, I encourage you to do so it is an experience that taught me self-confidence, improved my public speaking skills and many other skills but most of all I walked away with new friends and an unforgettable life experience. There is nothing to lose and so much to gain from the competition.

Our first Queen and Princess Quest is at Alstonville Rodeo on the 25th February 2012, I will be posting updates on the Facebook page 'Rodeo Queen and Princess Australia' of times and dates of Quests, schools and various other things for anyone who is interested.

Last but not least I would like to say thank you to my personal sponsor Pollock Plant Hire who specializes in heavy machinery hire and all other sponsors throughout the year for their support. Special thank you to Spike and Judy Johnstone for their kind donation of the rodeo Queen buckle which they put up every year.

Sincerely,

Danika Boland

ROOKIE AND NOVICE

Rookie Competition:

- A Rookie is a member in their first or second year of Rodeo.
- A Rookie Title can be won in their first or second year of membership.
 Points are accrued from Open Competition Only.
 (Rookie points are recorded in the Open Standings in the newsletter with an *R* beside the competitor's name).
- A Rookie is eligible for Novice Money until they "Break Open"

Rookie Breaks Open

- (1) Wins a title
- (2) Accrues 1000 Novice points in an event
- (3) Completes second year of membership

In all of the above the member will then be deemed to be an open competitor only.

ALL ROOKIE COMPETITORS MUST ADVISE THE OFFICE IN WRITING OF THEIR ROOKIE STATUS.

Novice Competition:

- A novice competitor is a member competing in an event not competed in by said member and has been a financial member of N.R.A. for at least two years.
- A Novice competitor is allowed 1000 points and Novice Money until they break open and become an open member.

Novice Points do not appear in the standings in the Newsletter. All inquiries regarding Novice Points should be directed to the N.R.A. Office.

Breaking Open:

As a competitor "Breaks Open" they will be notified in writing from the Office and recorded in the "Break Open" Register. The competitors who have "Broken Open" will be published in the monthly Newsletter. These competitors are no longer classed as a Novice Competitor and they are also no longer eligible for Novice money or points. However your Rookie (*R*) status will remain in the standings until the end of the Rodeo Season.
