BUNDABERG CIRCUIT CHALLENGE

N.R.A. – 2012 Champions

Hearts pumped and beasts jumped as the C.R.C.A. v N.R.A. Roughstock & Barrels Circuit Challenge hit the Agrotrend grounds on Friday 13th April. An action packed culmination on the second day of the agricultural exhibition, the rodeo started with the youngsters and moved up into the ranks of the professionals.

The riders thrilled an estimated 4000 as they put on an impressive man versus beast display."

I think, and most others agreed, it was fantastic and as usual it went like clockwork and came down to the last two rides to decide the outcome with N.R.A. taking it out at their 3rd attempt. Well done N.R.A. bragging rights for the next 12 months.

Congratulations to all who made this success possible. Looking forward to the 2013 challenge.

COMPETITOR INJURIES:

There are an increasing number of injuries which are not being reported to the office.

An Injury Occurrence form MUST be completed for any injury occurred at a rodeo and must be signed by the Medical Officer attending.

This must be received by the office at least one week after the occurrence. Please contact the NRA Office if you have not reported the injury at the rodeo.

Operation Director's Report- Breakaway/ Marketing

As my first report as Breakaway Roping Director & Marketing Coordinator, I would like to address an important issue with regards to the way in which us as competitors portray our image to the general public.

We have to be mindful of how we promote our sport to the general public to ensure we are able to continue to receive sponsorship opportunities and assist committee's with getting people through the gate. With this in mind, I have noticed several members not adhering to the rule of being dressed one hour prior to the commencement of the rodeo.

At times we all run late, however, this is not an exception. It does not matter if you are in the first round, last round or in the slack of your event, if you are at the rodeo and you are competing, you must be dressed in western attire one hour prior to the commencement of the rodeo. (As per: Rule 15 a in the rule book.) Fines are applicable to any member who does not adhere to this rule. I would also like to thank the stock contractors both this season and the last for the quality of the Breakaway Roping stock. To acquire and maintain a fresh, even pen of rope calves can be costly as most of us are aware, and I think the stock contractors need to be congratulated for this. On a more exciting note, the team from Tuffrock have been very generous with sponsorship again this year, with the supply of the Breakaway Roping Champion Buckle for 2012. I would personally like to thank Steve Hurley and the team from TuffRock for their continued support of the National Rodeo Association.

If you know of, or are part of a company that would be interested in becoming a sponsor of the NRA, please feel free to contact me to discuss what options and packages we have available.

Travel Safe and Good Luck to everyone for the rest of the season!

Browne Brothers Bronc Riding School

Blackbutt

31st of March 1st of April 2012

'160 PLUS'

Enthusiasm is how this came about we kept getting asked when we would have another school, so we spoke to Hank McArthur about setting a date and we picked a beauty the weather was fantastic. 21 students turned up to either have their first go or polish up their skills, so we had a mixed bunch and then threw in a few bareback riders, they all done really well.

We called in the young guns Dinny Moran and Matty Makinson to help the riggin riders with setting up there handles and sorting out there gear. Dinny and Matty enjoyed it we appreciate their help, also we would like to thank Ashley Clem for all the effort he put in to helping out,

Hank had a choice pen of broncs. We bucked 160 plus bronc's for the two days, this kept Dave Mawhinney and Troy Palmer extremely busy picking up. Tom Durbridge joined in on Sunday, a really big thank you to you guys.

Hank joined forces with Peter Gill on Sunday arvo to buck some breed bronc, they were outstanding a consistent pen of rank bucking horses and it did not faze the students at all, they thrived on it, they were running back asking 'can I do that again'. Hank finally had to say (with a chuckle) that will do.

Peter Honeyman took out the most improved prize of a gear bag and Troy Stephan was awarded a bottle of Browne Brothers as an encouragement. Well done guys.

Thank you everybody for their attendance and help. The Blackbutt Show Committee for letting us use their lovely grounds. Hank and Peter for their outstanding stock and to our families and friends for backing us up.
