ROPING CHUTES

The official chute of the USTRC &

Priefert's manual roping chute is the most widely used roping chute in the country. The official chute of the PRC A, USTRC, NTRL, WTRC, the World Series of Roping and other major roping organizations, the RC98M is the chute of choice by professionals. Endorsements by champion team ropers like Trevor Brazile, Speed Williams, Rich Skelton, Allen Bach and countless others have made this chute the most popular piece of equipment in arenas around the country. Available in manual and remote control automatic, the RC98 chute is the quietest, most durable chute on the market.

Having trouble finding chute help? Not anymore. Priefert's remote control automatic roping chute is so easy to operate your kids (and maybe your spouse) will fight over who gets to operate it! The handheld remote control fits in the palm of your hand and has 4 buttons that operate the opening and closing of the front and back gates.

No chute help available? No problem. The remote easily fits in your front pocket and can be operated by the header or heeler. The chute also offers a delay from 1 to 14 seconds to give the roper time to push the release button and get ready to go. This chute is ideal for the practice pen and is great for beginners, professionals and just plain lazy cowboys!

Priefert's newest fully automatic roping chute takes efficiency to a whole new level! This new chute can work as a traditional automatic like the RC98A or can be switched over to "fully automatic mode". The chute works like this: the roper or chute helper pushes the release button to release the front gate. As soon as the steer leaves the chute, the front gate automatically closes and the back gate opens for the next steer to enter. As the steer enters the chute, an infrared eye facing down into the chute senses the steer in the chute and closes the back gate behind him. When the ropers return to the box the next steer is in place and ready to go! Ironically, your chute help is now the chute itself!

Priefert's Calf Roping Chute was designed using the same expert engineering as our other roping chutes. Quality and durability tested by 8 Time World Champion Roy Cooper.

Endorsed by the PRC A, Priefert's competition roping chute is a full 18" longer than our standard models to meet PRC A requirements. This chute features all the great features of our RC98 series and also features a neck access panel near the front of the chute.

NRA AGM DIRECTORS REPORTS

Bill Urquhart – Executive Director, Chairman of Executive & Operational Directors

The last year was without a doubt the most difficult I have ever experienced as a Sports Administrator. We as a Board seem to be spending the biggest amount of meeting time discussing minor petty members' grievances, whilst not attending to the bigger picture.

Our year started poorly with weather problems not unlike 2011, this has a major effect on the companies financial income early in a new season. The loss of two major money contributors in 2011 namely the bar at both Urban Music and the Caboolture Finals amount to a significant loss of revenue. On investigation a huge number of members had been using the Association as a financial institution or a bank by failing to pay membership, entries and fines. Changes have been implemented to ensure this will not occur in the future.

A number of incidents took place during 2012 which were passed on to our Judiciary Panel for their investigation and action. Whilst not everyone will be happy with the end result of the findings, we must thank all those that contributed by donating time and effort in supporting the cause. Might I suggest all this waste of money not to mention the effort of many, if every member showed a small amount of thought and avoided senseless actions that not only embarrass themselves, family and do untold damage to the image of the industry. I make an appeal to everyone to let 2013 be a judiciary free year.

Facebook once again has not been without its extremely high rate of inaccurate and highly offensive comments, which do little except make the originator look like a goose. If these so called do gooders put their efforts to being positive the world would be a far happier place and just maybe so would they. Having said all that, any member that offends will be dealt with.

Two Executives resigned during the year, as of now no replacements have taken place. Dale Frahm was the first to resign, his was forced by a campaign generated by contractors laying a claim of conflict of interest. Dale in his letter of resignation state he was standing down in the best interest of the N.R.A. and to take the pressure off me. Shandelle Voll was the second to resign. Shandelle's letter stated a lack of support by the Board. I along with the majority of Board members do not agree with her reason, at no stage did we not support Shandelle. We do however have to follow judicial procedures. On behalf of the Board and Members, we thank both Shandelle and Dale for their contribution and wish them all the best for the future.

Committees and promoters are a major contributor to the success of any rodeo association and the N.R.A. is no exception. We are grateful for the wonderful support shown by this group of rodeo people. I must make special mention of our Finals Committees: Brothers Rugby League – Jason, Steve; Nambour Show Society – Tony, Rohan; Caboolture Show Society – Alf. I have only mentioned a small number of finals contacts, there are many more and we thank you all.

A special mention and a vote of thanks to the office staff Indra, what would we do without you. Angie, our newest member, welcome. Tabatha and Terri both have moved on, we thank them for their contribution. To the Board of Directors, yours is a thankless task however if we work as a team my belief is so much can be accomplished, so hang in and I thank you all.

Respectfully submitted

Stacey Ebert - Executive Director's - Legals and Insurance 2012

This year has seen no formal legal or insurance claims filed against the Association and we are pleased to have amicably settled an insurance claim filed against the NRA from last year.

There have been various complaints submitted to the NRA that have required legal work to be undertaken and have consumed countless hours of the Board's time this year. The Board accepts the rights of its members to submit complaints but would like members to be aware that the enormous amount of time spent on reviewing and dealing with these matters only serves to decrease the time that the Board can spend on ways to grow and further the Association.

Earlier in 2012 the Board met to agree upon changes required to the Rule Book with a view to those changes taking effect for the 2013 season. Various proposals in relation the events such as Rope and Tie and other matters have seen the completion and production of the amended Rule Book put on hold. This decision was made to avoid the unnecessary work and expense of compiling a new Rule Book that would likely be superseded within a very short time. Once these matters are resolved, the Board will be in a position to finalise the Rule Book and distribute it to the members. In the meantime, some of the critical rule changes that have been agreed will be published in the next edition of Sports News and will take effect from that point on. Please read that notice carefully to ensure you are up to date with all rules and raise any queries you may have with the relevant director. We appreciate that this has been a long process and thank you for your continued understanding and co-operation while the Rule Book is being finalised.

NRA AGM DIRECTORS REPORTS

I would like to take this opportunity to remind members that the Board are all volunteers and that the "free" membership they receive pales in comparison to the time and effort they put in to running this Association. Despite what some members think, the work that the Board does is not to advance their own positions but simply to ensure that each and every one of you can turn up and compete in the sport you love every weekend.

Very few people understand the time that various Directors put in behind the scenes. I dread to count the hours I have spent over the last few years attending Board meetings, various other insurance and legal related meetings, drafting letters, providing advice, fielding phone calls etc. During my time on the Board, the Association has not incurred any legal costs whatsoever which is a substantial saving for a non-profit organisation that allows it to continue to reward its members with high quality awards and trophies.

A very special mention must go to Bill who spends countless hours every week attending meetings and dealing with matters that the vast majority wouldn't even know exist. I am aware of much that he does however, I could only begin to imagine the full extent of what he has done over the years and what he will continue to do for the NRA. Bill is instrumental to this Association and his knowledge and hard work is irreplaceable.

While you may not agree with all decisions or actions of the Board, the Board acts in accordance with the Rules of the Associations and in the best interests of the Association at all times. The constant criticism levelled at the Board in circumstances where very few people are actually prepared to step up and lend a hand is disgraceful. Directors do not take on their positions with the expectation that they will receive praise and adoration for their efforts but at the same time, they do not expect to receive disrespect and at times, abuse, from the Association's members.

Directors are legally required for the continued running of the Association. Without directors, there will be no NRA and at the rate things are going, this is a real possibility. All members are entitled to voice their concerns, raise issues and make complaints to the Association and its directors however, there is an appropriate way for members to do so. Moving forward, I encourage our members to consider what has been said and to act in a way that is not only appropriate in the circumstances but that takes into account not only their personal interests, but those of the Association as a whole.

Recently, I saw a quote that said "I often think 'Why doesn't someone do something about that?' Then I realised I am someone". As the Association is constantly short of directors, it would be great to see more members put their hand up to take on a role on the Board which would not only help the Association but would enable more people to gain an understanding and appreciation for the hard work and dedication of our directors.

Due to the upcoming birth of our first child, I have decided not to accept a re-appointment to the Executive Board for the 2013 season. I would like to thank the Board and in particular, Bill, Luke and Indra for their constant support during my time as Executive Director and wish them, the Board and the Association the very best for the future.

Regards

Stacey Ebert

Executive Director's Deputy Chairperson - Legals and Insurance

Luke Gall – Executive Director - Animal Welfare

2012 was a year Animal Welfare issue's once again reared its ugly head through media and social media.

I would like to commend most contractors on the quality of livestock throughout the year and the condition and professionalism that these animals were turned out at our rodeo's.

Contractors along with us/we as members are the people always in the spotlight at rodeo's but also in our backyards. Please remember that whilst at a rodeo, professionalism is the number 1 key. Remember to refrain from all forms of abuse whilst in the public eye, as these days it always appears Big Brother is watching.

We highly advise to not comment to any of these activists personally or via social media sites such as facebook as it only infuriates the situation.

With the drama's last year with the Rope and Tie a new device has been developed which will be mandatory by March 1, 2013. I would appreciate all Rope and Tie competitors make themselves aware of this new device and how it works.

As one of the newer Executive Directors I didn't quite realise how much time and effort that the members of both the Executive & Operational Directors have to dedicate. The amount of Abuse and personal agenda's that people take to levels I have never seen before is beyond me, considering we are all still competing in a sport we are meant to enjoy. As a volunteer it has astonished me what some people have to endure to help their sport move forward, and I am hoping 2013 will be a better year.

NRA AGM OPERATIONAL DIRECTORS REPORTS

Malcolm Wieland – Operational Director Bull Ride Events

Hi once again,

Well another year of rodeo has come and gone with a lot of kilometres in between. There was a lot of competition throughout the year with competitors attending upwards of 50 bull riding events this season. Was good to see quite a few good young bull riders competing at the finals and also the regular faces we see week in and week out.

Congratulations to Cameron Taylor on winning the title after coming down to the last rodeo of the year, and runner up Frazer Babbington. Congratulations to the rookie champion Jayden Sims who has a good run of bull rides coming into the Finals and also James Hayes on a good win of the finals aggregate. A tremendous effort throughout the year has seen Kirstin Wood win his first bull fighting title.

On another note a very big thank you to Dave Mawhinney for organising the finals shirts this year not only for the saddles bronc for the bareback and the bull riders.

I would also like to say thank you to the contractors for their co-operation through the year with this and a little communication it has helped events run a lot more smoothly. Also I would like to note the quality of the stock with Animal Welfare is a high priority one has to appreciate the efforts that are put into to give us this calibre of stock each and every weekend.

Thank you to Brian King for his generous sponsorship and a big thank you to all competitors, who make up our Association and happy rodeoing. See you all in the New Year.

Yours sincerely

Malcolm Wieland

2012 Bull Riding Director

Dave Mawhinney – Operational Director Saddle Ride Events

All the best for the New Year everyone,

Firstly, thank you to everyone who helped me with my rodeoing throughout 2012. Big thank you goes to my family for their support. Good to see all the new competitors coming into the sport. The year ended on a good note with an excellent final series and has started well with some good rides at the first couple of rodeos for the 2013 season. Senior riders please keep helping all the new riders and juniors wherever you can. If you have some free time to lend a hand at junior rodeos, this would also be much appreciated.

Again, ride hard and have a great 2013.

Thanks

David Mawhinney

Melissa Howard – Operational Director Steer Undecorating Events

Hi All,

Another year over and a very exciting one it was. The competition in 2012 was great with more competitors and some smoking hot times.

I would like to congratulate all the winners and place getters and thank all the sponsors, stock contractors and people that helped all year.

Hopefully 2013 will be a great year with more events and great competition once again. I would like to thank everyone for their help.

Safe Rodeoing in 2013

NRA AGM OPERATIONAL DIRECTORS REPORT

Dallas Lange – Operational Director Steer Wrestling Events

Hi Everyone

Firstly I would like to thank all Sponsors for their support of the National Rodeo Association 2012 Rodeo Season. Without your sponsorship it would be a lot harder to have a great Finals Series and Trophies for the end of year presentation.

I would like to say a Special Thank You to the Sponsors that I personally worked with during the season. Especially to Priefert Australia for supplying a professional Time Event Box for the Finals, Gulf Western Oil for supplying the Back Numbers for all qualified Final Competitors, these made the Finals more professional and looked great.

Eddy Powell Saddlery for sponsoring and supplying the Breast Plate for the Steer Wrestling Horse of the Year and to the Judges who judged this competition Mr Alan Flood, Mr Marcus Jones and Mr Tony Breed and the decision from the three judges sheets awarded Battle Glory as Steer Wrestling Horse of the Year. The horses were judged throughout the year on not how much money they made or how many people that rode a horse, but the consistency, performance and honesty of the horse. Thank you Calvert Lodge Texas Longhorns and Corriente Cattle Company for sponsoring the Hazer of the Year.

Congratulations to Lachlan O'Neill for winning the 2012 Steer Wrestling Champion, Jordan O'Neill for Runner up, George Wheeler for Rookie of the Year and Thomas Whitwell for the Encouragement Award.

I would also like to thank all the members that made an effort to attend the Presentation Night to make it a great success.

Also I would like to thank Daryl (Doc) Cavanagh and CMC Contracting for running a trial at the beginning of the year with cutting back the Steers Horns so they can pass freely through the Time Event Box. There will be a new rule for Horn Lengths for Steer Wrestling, etc in the Newsletter.

Unfortunately, a small minority of members were not happy with the running/judging of these new awards, Steer Wrestling Horse of the Year and Hazer of the Year. The sponsors were not happy with the small minority of members conduct and behaviour and they will not be sponsoring these awards in the future. This is very unfortunate for our event, just because it did not go their way, this spoils it for other members.

I would like to remind all members THAT IF YOU DO NOT SUPPORT YOUR SPONSORS THEY WILL NOT SUPPORT YOU.

Please remember the Executive and operations directorship is a volunteer role, so treat these people and other members with the respect they deserve and the way you would like to be treated.

Dallas Lange

Steer Wrestling / Operations Director

Chris Meyer – Operational Director Rope & Tie, Team Roping Events

With regard to the motions being put forward today that relate to rope & tie and team roping, I'd like to briefly give my opinion.

- Team roping as a permanent event

To me this is a no brainer. This is the largest event at a rodeo and these competitors bring a lot of family etc. through the gate which benefits both the association and the committees. 30 years ago when there were only half a dozen ropers, it was an appropriate rule, but these days it deserves to be a permanent event.

- One team, one man

While I can see some benefits to this, I think overall, it will be detrimental to the event, making it harder for beginners to find partners and get involved in the sport.

- Rope and tie to be made optional

After talking to Brad about this motion, I am confident that he doesn't have any hidden agendas. He simply wants to create some discussion and I think it's one that we have to tackle as this event becomes more and more controversial. However, if we make rope and tie optional, I believe it will disappear.

Kim Clarke – Operational Director Barrel Racing Events

In so many ways 2012 was a beautiful year for NRA. Well run rodeos, good entries and good stock. In most cases, happy committees. Weather conditions were much kinder than in some previous years. We were unfortunate to have Greenbank called off and especially Ipswich finals getting rained out before completing the programme. Then two beautiful rounds of finals at Nambour followed by Caboolture. Congratulations to all committees.

I have heard a lot of positive feedback on presentation night. It was uplifting to see so many members, family and friends supporting the night. Along with a number of our sponsors. Of course, this change didn't agree with everyone but it certainly eased a lot of pressure off officials at the last round of finals especially when titles are so close plus the aggregate points.

Congratulations to Danika Boland for not only her work as Rodeo Queen throughout the year but her ideas and work, along with many other people who all got involved with the setting up at the Cultural Centre at Laidley which looked great. Thanks also to those who stayed and cleaned up. Also a big thank you to the chefs and waiters for preparing a very tasty roast meal.

Our sponsors: no matter how big or small, a huge THANK YOU. Without you, NRA like many other sporting organisations would not survive. My personal special thank you to Leanne Turner of Rubber Belt Mart for sponsoring the Barrel Race and Rookie buckles also the runner up awards for both open and juniors.

As members, wherever you can support our 'business sponsors' and our private sponsors, ensure you take the time to send them all a thank you email/letter. Support those who support us. Also throughout the year at rodeos where you have success take the time to find out from the committee who sponsored your event/s.

Being an event director on the board comes with many mixed feelings. It's good having this extra interaction with committees to assist where possible and them having the reward of a successful rodeo. There is much more to running a rodeo than just what happens in the arena. It's also nice when there's no hiccups in the barrel race!

On the downside, I find it very disappointing and distasteful in the manner some winge, whine and throw teddy in the dirt the moment when things don't suit them personally or their mate. The verbal abuse that has been flung at executives and board members, judges, co-ordinators and even committee men has been disgraceful. If you think these people get paid $180,000 a year – wrong. Number 2 – you think they have to put up with it – WRONG again.

At a board meeting, the amount of time spent on trivial complaints e.g. bull bucked harder than I thought he would and I fell off! Or their calf was too fast – just cause old mate was a day late and riding a slow horse, dum!!

Animal welfare is such a strong issue – everyone of us has to be extremely mindful of this. There are eyes, ears, mouths and cameras everywhere just looking for the slightest harshness to broadcast. To open competitors, older juniors and contractors it is up to us to all be respectful in the way we handle our animals, to educate the little junior competitors of the future. Or there will be NO rodeos in the future.

As my role of Barrel Racing Director, I'm pleased to report there has been minimal incidents that need addressing. However, if I am to see something that is inappropriate in or out of the arena or such is reported to me, the matter has to be addressed. Remember to check the draw and be available to assist – especially with taking drums in and out of the arena. The rakes are at most rodeos – everyone is more than welcome to use them, not just the same select few.

A big thank you to my deputy Peta Browne. Peta has been exceptional – keeping a keen eye on everything that goes on, nothing slips by her. Thanks so much Peta for your commitment. Enjoy 2013 having time out for yourself.

Congratulations not just to those who collected awards at our presentation night, but those who met their personal goals for 2012.

Travel safe and good luck to all for 2013.

Kim Clarke

Barrel Racing Director

NRA AGM OPERATIONAL DIRECTORS REPORT

Christine Gall – Operational Director Breakaway Roping Events & Marketing

In 2012, the breakaway roping competitors saw a few changes put in place with regards to flag judging and string. Any competitors who are deemed as pulling their ropes off the saddle horn after they have roped their calf will be disqualified. This has been a long standing rule with the National Rodeo Association, and it was brought to my attention at the start of the season, that some competitors were not abiding by this rule. I held a meeting with all Breakaway competitors at Dayboro Rodeo in May, and explained this on behalf of the flag judges.

Also discussed at this meeting, was the quality and quantity of string to be used. A new rule was passed by the Board in 2012 to increase the amount of string to be used to 4 pieces. This rule was to come into effect once the new rule book was published, but due to this being delayed this rule as well as a few more will be published in the next monthly newsletter. This rule will be taken into effect as of Alstonville All Round Rodeo held at the end of February.

Once again, the 2012 season was a great one. The Breakaway competition was a tight one right up until the finals, with Kim Clarke winning the title. It's great to see that each year the Breakaway is still open slather until the finals, and the quality of breakaway roping is at an all-time high. I would also like to thank TuffRock and Katie B Western as our two sponsors for 2012.

With regards to the NRA Marketing campaign, in 2012 it was discussed with the Board, to upgrade the current NRA website, this is still in the production stages and will go live once final board approval is given. We successfully designed and sold stubby coolers at the Presentation Night. These were a huge success, and I will be looking into designing more for future events. The proceeds for the first batch that were made, have gone to the NRA Junior Fund raising a total of $270.00. Thank you to everyone who supported the Juniors by purchasing a cooler.

In 2012 we also saw a record number of sponsors. Without the generous support of our sponsors our association would not be able to move forward. I would personally like to thank each and every sponsor for their support, and look forward to working with you again in 2013.

Christine Gall

Breakaway Roping & Marketing Director

Alan McHugh – Operational Director Junior Events

2012 was a good year for our juniors. Thank you to Judges, Officials and Parents who helped out at Junior Rodeos. I have been getting a lot of interest for junior rodeos outside our own rodeo area eg. Mt Isa, Rockhampton, Crow's Nest etc.

I also had a lot of new enquiries about junior members for 2013. Congratulations to all our Juniors who competed and did us proud throughout the year and a special mention to Cheyenne Whitwell and Shanae Payne.

On a lesser note, juniors at the Goomeri New Years Eve rodeo were seen at the bar area even though there was a curfew at 10.30pm at the rodeo and at closing time. We still had several Juniors in the bar area. If caught this may jeopardise the Committee's Liquor License and therefore possibly effecting one of their main sources of income for the rodeo. The NRA is not a baby sitter, this needs to be done by the parents/guardians.

Everyone is well behaved and that is a credit to the parents.

We have a good bunch of kids and let's keep it that way.

Thank you

Alan McHugh

Junior Events Director

Thank you

To the NRA and Running P Saddlery for the quality saddles I was presented with for the All Round Cowgirl and Breakaway Roping titles. Also NRA for the All Round buckle and valued sponsor Tuff Rock for the Breakaway Roping buckle.

Another thank you to Rubber Belt Mart for the Barrel Racing saddle pad made by Aerofelt for the runner up of that event. Special thanks to my hazers, especially Brad Cavanagh all throughout the finals and Norm Bushell who is never far away from the box to get my calves. Also a big thank you to our office ladies.

Thank you all.

BURNIN' DOWN THE HOUSE

A full report of the hottest rodeo action in South East Qld.

THE 2013 season of rodeo has got off to a flying start for the National Rodeo Association with six events held up until January 10.

To kick off the year NRA competitors went head to head with ABCRA competitors at the annual dual affiliated Lawrence twilight rodeo.

Of the NRA competitors to star were first and second place getters in the bull ride Jeff Moretto and Matt Boland who took their places with 82 and 81 point rides respectively.

Michael Maher and Dave Mawhinney kept representing NRA in the saddle bronc leader board, tying for second on 75 points. Good friends Matty Makinson and Dinny Moran stepped in the winner's circle in the open bareback with 77 and 69 points rides to place them third and fourth respectively.

The time event end of the arena was dominated by ABCRA competitors however Judy Gough stepped into third place in the breakaway roping with a slick 2.86 run.

Meantime at Goomeri New Year's Eve rodeo it was once again Jeff Moretto who took out the open bull ride with a solid 81 point ride followed by Cameron Taylor, Ryan Dickens and PJ Bradford.

Jim Ryan took out the saddle bronc with an 80 point ride while Dinny Moran won the bareback and PJ Bradford the novice bull ride.

At the time event end of the arena it was Cheyenne Whitwell who once again took home the lions share of the prize money with a win in the open and junior barrel race.

Veteran competitor Alan Knox showed he hasn't lost any form by taking out the rope and tie on 11.250 seconds.

A full program junior rodeo followed on New Year's Day with good competition shown by all competitors.

On January 5 the rodeo road train headed to the coast for the Noosa Pirates Leagues Club event which saw Jim Ryan once again take out the open saddle bronc, this time with a 75.5 point ride.

Matty Makinson showed the style which makes him a champion in the bareback ride to take the win with 82 points.

Further south at Cudgen Leagues Club on January 5 it was in form junior competitor Jack McArthur who stepped up to take out the open bull ride with well put together 77 point ride as well as being the only score in the junior bull ride on 70 points. Cameron Taylor took out the open saddle bronc on 69 points while PJ Bradford conquered two head to win the novice bull ride on 143 points.

Following this, rodeo just kept heading south for the Byron Bay rodeo on January 10 where seasoned competitors Martin Carlo and Mark Collins, took out the open bull ride and saddle bronc respectively.

In the open barrel race Cheyenne Whitwell flew around the drums in just 12.851 seconds to take the win from Jamie Cottam, Katie Vaughan and Kate O'Dea.
