Queen & Director Reports

2014 Rodeo Queen Report

Hello friends,

2014 is off to a flying start. To think we are in March already, finals is approaching faster then we realise. On the topic of finals Danika and myself have had several meetings in regards to the handbook. We will have something ready for all our end of year entrants very soon. We are working on ways we can advertise the Quest, we are wanting to open the quest up to a variety of ladies. We all know that the NRA quest and our royalty are prestigious. We work extremely hard all year so we want the right ladies to continue in these roles. Danika and myself have also been working on prizes from the 2013 quest and I can assure you that your wait will be well worth it. We will be in touch with you all with your prizes shortly. Thank you all for your hard work and for your patience during this time.

Hilary Thrift*

I would like to thank my Princess and Junior Princess, Shanea and Montanna you both done a brilliant job at Stanthorpe and have represented us to the highest level. You should both be very proud on what you achieved.

Now that summer has left us we will start to see the calendar full up with All Round rodeos which will mean more quests!! I'm working on getting more on the calendar, so keep your eyes out and follow the quest page on Facebook for the latest information. I hope you have all used your off season to your full advantage. Brushing up on knowledge and researching general horse maintenance and health issues. Remember that knowledge is power.

I leave you for another month with this quote that I hope you all embrace.....

"Never doubt that a small group of thoughtful committed citizens can change the world; indeed, it's the only thing that ever has".

See you all at Toogoolawah

Yours in Rodeo

Sarah Neale

Barrel Racing Director Report

Firstly, thank you to all the committees who affiliated with NRA, especially those who go the extra effort to run Championship Rodeos. The one committee I am going to name in terms of extra effort to run is Teebar. Extraordinarily, what the people of that committee achieved. Huge congratulations to you all.

However in saying that, without committees, we have no Rodeo: without Sponsors we would not survive: Without Members we are nothing. We need all three of the above for the National Rodeo Association to exist and function. We have to communicate, have trust and be trusted. Of late, communication is lacking with Committees: Sponsorship is hard to obtain and often short changed for their contribution.

Less Junior programs throughout 2013 has been very disappointing for many families. To run these days it takes effort and money, so families be forth coming to assist and/or fundraising. NRA has always been proud of our "age group" junior rodeos, and promoted our kids as our future. Then of course, the economic crisis-times are tough. People are finding it hard to meet commitments. This leads to fewer rodeos, which means fewer members. I am aware of several committees having issues of one sort or another. I just hope these issues are overcome in favour of NRA.

On a brighter note, again a huge thank you to Leanne and Rubber Belt Mart for their generous sponsorship of this year's Barrel Race Saddle and Buckle. Also the Rookie Buckle and Runner Up Trophy, which is a saddle pad from Aerofelt. A special thanks to Terry Sharland for his time and craftsmanship that went into making the encouragement awards.

Our twelve barrel racing finalists looked very smart wearing their new vests, sponsored by Kate Benedict. Thank you so much Kate. Although Kate sponsored the vests, she organised to have Rubber Belt Mart embroidered on them; extra advertising for NRA. Remember Kate has western clothing and all accessory requirements – be a regular at her stall. Thank you also to Jenny Harth, who assisted Kate with sizes and ideas. To the Barrel Racers throughout the year, thank you for your assistance and especially organising the timers and course at Point Award Rodeos where I did not attend. Thanks also to all officials who supported our event so as to run smoothly and quickly. My biggest thank you of all in this report is to Bill and Indra. Bill has contributed his life into the foundation and growth of Rodeo in Australia. Indra has worked tirelessly and effectively in our office for 14 years. Welcome to our new board members, with Dionne and Patty in the office. Congratulations to all our 2013 Champions and recipients of minor awards. Super efforts by all!

Best of luck to all this coming season. Take care and travel Safely.

Kim Clarke

BURNIN' DOWN THE HOUSE

A full report of the hottest rodeo action in South East Qld.

RODEO in South East Queensland for February kicked off with the Grassroots Redland Bay Bull Ride.

This event saw huge nominations in the open bull ride with 43 contenders stepping up to the task, however it was Jeff Moretto who came out on top with a classy 84 point ride for which he won over $2700. Justin Robards, Reece Weller and Joshua Lock rounded out the placing's. The novice bull ride was almost as popular with 32 entries, first place was a tie between New South Wales competitor John Couling and Alexander Monro followed by Brodie Bean and Bradie Gray to fill the placing's. Ethan McConnell and Cooper Jones won the under 16 junior bull ride and poddy ride respectively.

On Saturday February 1, the Oakey Bull and Bronc was held. Here the open bull ride was won by Sam Champ, the saddle bronc Mark Collins, bareback Dinny Moran and open barrel race Laura Bostock. There weren't any scores recorded in the novice bull ride and Zane Hall won the junior steer ride with a 67 point ride.

The following weekend crowds and bull riders alike flocked to the Springwood Hotel for a round of the very popular and high paying, Carlton Mid Series. All-around cowboy Dave Mawhinney showed great form on the night by taking out the first round with 87 points and placing second in the final with 71 points to win the average with 158 points. The novice bull ride was won by Sam Dolbel, under 16 junior bull ride by Beau Creighton and poddy ride by Lachlan Dark.

It was another evening of two events with the Tenterfield Show Rodeo also held that night. At Tenterfield Jackson Worsfold and Jack McArthur tied to win the bull ride with 73 point rides.

In the saddle bronc John McNamee took out first place while in the bareback it was Dinny Moran who finished number one.

The barrel racing was once again very competitive with Laura Bostock taking the win in the open competition while Skye Evans picked up fourth place in the open and won the junior.

At the Cooyar Show Bull Ride on February 22 it was hometown cowboy Jack McArthur who took home the Lions share of the cash after riding two head for a score of 165 to win just under $2000.

The Carlton Mid Series Final at the Warner Hotel was the next event on the calendar.

Here open bull rider Fraser Babbington showed good form to ride two head and take home a tidy $1500 pay cheque as well as the series championship. In the novice bull ride Matt Sly put up a solid 73 point ride to win the event and just over $800.

Stanthorpe played host to the only all around rodeo for this month of rodeo with good crowds supporting the event, particularly in the evening.

On the day eleven open bull riders came off second best with no scores recorded, however the saddle bronc riders did better with Jack Capewell taking the win followed by Lachlan Ezzy and Mark Collins. Meantime, Dinny Moran kept up his solid form to win the bareback ahead of Ryan Zadow and Nathan Garlick. At the timed event end of the arena Luke Gall had a good day, winning the rope and tie and taking out fourth place in the team roping with Steve Sutherland. Fellow team roper, David Liaver also had a good day taking out first and second place with Adam Purse and Wade Eastwell respectively.

In the steer wrestling Darryl Jones put together a tidy 4.340 second run to win the event ahead of Steve Doneathy, Shane Hart and Matt Johnson.

In the ladies events Kim Clarke was the standout competitor for the day, winning the barrel race and taking home fourth in the breakaway roping. Tammy Augustin was the winner of the breakaway with a 2.550 second run.

There were a number of junior events held as part of the Stanthorpe program with Cody Kelly winning the junior bull ride, Tom Hansford the junior saddle bronc, Jack Keats the junior bareback, Skye Evans the junior barrel race, Blake Weier the poddy ride and Amy Sutherland the junior breakaway roping.
