Rodeo Queen Report time again and not a lot to report home quest wise. Our first official Quest for 2014 is at Gympie this coming weekend and I hope you are all as excited as I am. Next time I write in I will have photos and results to share with you all.

Hilary Thrift*

The first quest is going to kick off with the next few following through very quickly being Caboolture and Canungra. I have been doing a lot of promoting as far as the quest goes and I think I have a few Queens that are very interested in running for 2015 Queen, these ladies are very attractive very intelligent girls that are going to bring new life and colour to the quest. With the new handbook almost in our hands its heating up to be a successful year. On the topic of 2015 royalty if you are interested and would like to know more information please contact myself or Danika at any time and we will endeavour to get back to you as quickly as we can.

Also Quest entrants I have some fundraising that I will require assistance with at some coming rodeos so please make your selves available to help even if just for a short time. At the end of the day the fundraising is to help you and the juniors in Rodeo.

Until next time safe Rodeoing

Sarah Neale

Junior Director Report

The 2014 rodeo season is underway with some great competition throughout the Junior events already, I am particularly happy to see so many entries in all events.

On behalf of the Junior Breakaway Competitors, I would like to thank Bevin and Wade Eastwell for kindly donating their calves used in the Junior Breakaway Roping at the Stanthorpe rodeo, the calves were a great even pen for the kids.

At the recent Beaudesert all round rodeo, we ran a very successful raffle. We raised much needed funds to support our junior program, and I would like to thank Jody Ruhland for organizing the prize, and to the Juniors who helped sell the raffle tickets with Tanya and myself. I had a meeting and discussed cleaning up after the rodeo and only a handful of families stayed and helped out, to the ones that did I appreciate the big effort you put in. If anybody has any suggestions or wants to do some fundraising for the juniors, please come and see me as I have been approached by committees wanting to run Junior Rodeos but we need to raise funds to do this.

Good luck to all the Juniors with the upcoming Rodeos, I look forward to seeing everyone competing with their positive friendly attitudes.

Alan McHugh

BURNIN' DOWN THE HOUSE

A full report of the hottest rodeo action in South East Qld.

MURGON Show Rodeo on March 15 saw additional events added to the traditional show rodeo program with the timed events well supported by competitors from across South East Queensland. However, it was Thomas Whitwell and Gene Hingst who were the eventual winners in the team roping with the 5.350 second run while Shane Hart took the win in the steer wrestling with a 5.990 second run. Laura Bostock made her way around the barrel racing course in the swift time of 13.417 seconds to win the barrel race, followed by Cheyenne Whitwell, Hilary Thrift and Christine Bushell. At the rough stock end of the arena John Foster with a score of 77 points took home over $900 as the only qualified ride in the open bull ride. The under 16 junior bull ride was won by Faron Davidson while Jarrahah Davidson placed second. Meantime in the poddy ride Lleyton Browne rode time for the win with Brandon Long placing second.

Also on March 15 was the Eatons Hill Hotel Rodeo where Jack McArthur scored 82 points to win the open bull ride ahead on Sam Champ on 80 points. Jack Bredhauer won the saddle bronc, Steele Allston won the bareback, Jack Keats won the junior bull ride, Dylan Talbot won the under 16 junior bull ride and Blake Weier won the poddy ride.

The following weekend was the Hills College Rodeo at Jimboomba, a popular event with both competitors and spectators alike. Fraser Babbington walked away with almost $2000 as the only scorer in the open bull ride while Mark Collins won the saddle bronc, Matthew Makinson the bareback and Matt Sly the novice bull ride.

Cheyenne Whitwell took the double crown in the barrel racing by winning both the open and junior events while Ty Payne was the winner of the poddy ride. It proved a good day for Fraser Babbington who also competed at the Kyogle Bull Ride Spectacular and took out equal first place with Daniel Piggott.

At Kyogle Craig Haigh took out the novice bull ride while Cameron Southern won the junior bull ride, Dylan Talbot took out the under 16 junior bull ride and Cooper Jones won the poddy ride.

The first event for April was the Nanango Show Rodeo on April 12 with almost local competitor Jack McArthur winning the event ahead of Brodie Bean, Rick Morrison and Fergus Cordie. A total of 16 junior bull riders contested their chosen event with Dylan Talbot coming out number one with 79 points. In the junior steer ride Dion Doro was just ahead of Steele Gilliland with 68 and 67 points respectively.

On April 19 Brymaroo held a successful all around rodeo at which there was once again only one score in the open bull ride, this time it was Sam Dolbel who took home all of the prize money. In the saddle bronc Lachlan Ezzy scored 73 points, to be ahead of Jim Ryan, Michael Maher and Kane Clayton-Green. Current leader of the rope and tie, Mitch Eastwell won his pet event in a quick 10.310 seconds, Shane Hart once again took out the steer wrestling while Adam Tozer and Kel Lucas won the team roping. In the ladies events breakaway roping leader Cameille O'Toole took home first place with rookie barrel race leader Hilary Thrift winning her first open barrel race. In the junior events Clay Hall took out the junior steer ride while Brandon Long won the poddy ride.

The next day bull riding competitors headed to the Maidenwell Hotel where there was a tie for first place between Ryan Dickens and Fraser Babbington who both scored 83 points and pocketed over $1000 each.

Local competitor Cody Kelly won the junior bull ride while Dylan Talbot won the junior steer ride and Lleyton Browne won the poddy ride.

At the Dayboro all around rodeo from 15 open bull rider Sam O'Connor was the only one to ride time, scoring himself 76 points and close to $1500. In other roughstock events Mark Collins won the saddle bronc and Dinny Moran won the bareback. At the timed event end of the arena Brock Eastwell won the rope and tie and Shane Hart the steer wrestling while Luke Gall took out first and second place in the team roping with Steve Sutherland and David Liaver respectively. As always competition was fierce in the ladies events with Sharni Webb winning the open barrel race and also taking home the novice incentive while Skye Evans won the junior barrel race and Lisa Sutherland took home first place in the breakaway roping.

Next on the calendar was the Beaudesert all around rodeo which received strong nominations across all events.

In the open bull ride Fraser Babbington went home in first place with Sam Champ close behind him in second position. Warwick cowboys Michael Maher and Mark Collins took out first and second in the saddle bronc while Dinny Moran and Steele Allston took out first and second in the bareback. Nathan Eichhorn showed good form in the rope and tie to take out the even in 9.580 seconds, Thomas Whitwell won the steerwrestling while Luke Gall and Steve Augustin won the team roping. Laura Bostock once again made a good run in the open barrel race to win that event while Ashleigh Howard won the junior barrel race and Chantelle Robbins won the open breakaway roping with the quick time of 1.970 seconds. In the junior rough stock events Zane Hall won the under 16 junior bull ride, Dion Doro won the junior bull ride, Clay Hall won the junior bareback and Kade Attenborough won the poddy ride.
